Thanks for this note Suzanne –We'll stand-by to hear when you're ready what more we can do to assist in making this happen. Based on my understanding of the informative (vs direction-seeking) purpose of the session, I think it would be good if there is some time for members to ask clarifying questions to enhance their understanding. However, since (if I understand correctly) no input or direction is being sought, I would not be overly concerned about adequate for dialogue.

In the interest of certainty for TRAN and MCT, I've advised Grant that the tentative plan is to keep the item scheduled to P&A on March 26th from 5 to 6 pm. I've let him know that there are a number of moving parts at play that will affect this and that should the timing shift, I'd be in touch w him immediately upon becoming aware of any adjustments.

Thanks again

Agreed that the break week is not a good option.

Elizabeth, here's the current draft agenda for the MIRR session with. Cabinet. I still don't have final approval from Don/PJH to go ahead. As you can see, it's pretty ambitious, and doesn't have much if any time for dialogue.

Hello Suzanne (and thank-you Michelle for doing this investigating of options).

My sense is a break week meeting would not be well received. I would be inclined to steal an hour of the Cabinet time on the 26th, but to take it from the last rather first hour to get as many ppl free to travel on the Thursday night. Thus I think it might be best to do P&A from 5 to 6 pm.

All subject to of course whether 3 hr-only FN info session for the 26th would be too short to accommodate proposed agenda. Please Suzanne, would 3 hrs be acceptable?

Thanks

Hi Elizabeth – forwarding this info to you so you can send to either Don/Suzanne for approval if you agree.

I understand the s.12 needs to go through PA and cannot wait until May 10th. I inquired with Amber about one hour on April 25, 26 or 27 for a PA meeting. Premier only has availability on April 25th and it is at the same time as Treasury Board (Min James, Min Dix and Min Ralston sit on both committees).

The best option would be for PA to meet from 2:00-3:00 pm on April 26th and have the Cabinet FN session run from 3:00-6:00pm (this would still leave Cabinet with three hours plus the additional four hours on May 17th for the FN educational session).

Alternatively, we could attempt to see if there is a slot on the break week. Please let me know how to proceed.

Thank you
Michelle

Hi Suzanne,

Thank you for the quick reply.

As for a prep session, I actually have a meeting scheduled for tomorrow from 11:30 AM – 12:30 PM with Doug, our exec, and a few key senior staff (who will likely be involved in the Cabinet session, to some extent). Are you available to call in to that meeting? Note, however, that I may have to move it to later in the week, should MIRR end up in estimates tomorrow.

Excellent questions. I just finished talking to your Deputy about the first session, so he can add to this discussion.

For the session on April 26, I am not imagining that there will be very many documents. I will let Cab Ops know that timing is uncertain, and in fact they may be walk in's.

The first session is currently set for April 26th, 2-5.

The strategy and communications item is for the second session, so we can think about it later. :)

After talking to Doug, I'm hoping it will be possible for me and the people staffing the session to sit down together and talk about how it can go, what materials might work, what the objectives of each section are etc. Doug was going to contact a couple of people, and hopefully we can put that session together after he does that.

Hope this helps

Hi Suzanne,

We're working on materials and confirming who from MIRR will attend (beyond our executive/minister) the Apr 26 Cabinet session. We should know our confirmed attendees by mid week.

I have a few questions:

- (1.) Will the PO require copies of our presentation materials? If so, when is the deadline for materials?
- (2.) Do you know if the exact time has been set for the Cabinet session?
- (3.) One of the presentation topics ("strategy and communication – common language") pertains to GCPE. Do you know if the GCPE headquarters is aware of our Cabinet session and this topic requested?

We're about to begin schedule the next ministers/TNG leadership table meeting, which will likely occur in May. The ministers involved will be Ministers Fraser, Donaldson, Mungall, Heyman, and Eby (pending schedules). Also, Doug has often joined the meeting but I believe ADM Jessica Wood will now be involved, as well.

Subject: This week's Cabinet meeting

Before the week leaves us, I wanted to take a minute and thank everyone at MIRR who helped pull together the plans, material and people for the Cabinet session on Thursday.

I'm not sure there's ever a "slow time" to do these types of things, but you managed to pull this together while doing all your regular work and attending to the demands of the estimates process.

A number of people, including Don Wright, remarked that they thought the session went very well, and was a valuable first step for all who attended.

I know I've left some people off this email due to late Friday name-blindness. Please share with them, and s.22
