Geoff:

We would welcome the opportunity to provide a short construction tour update during UBCM for the Premier and Ministers who would be interested in reviewing progress on our $66 million investment in on-mountain improvements. I look forward to hearing whether this is of interest and whether there may be a preferred date and time that would be suitable.

I'm pleased to report that Minister James and Minister Eby have agreed to co-ordinate the next steps on money-laundering along the lines proposed in the attached note. I would appreciate the assistance of the deputies and their staff to finalize terms of reference and next steps for each ministry's work in time for an early fall announcement.

Premier John Horgan’s statement on Vancouver Pride

VICTORIA – Premier John Horgan has issued the following statement in celebration of Vancouver Pride:

“Pride is a celebration – and a protest. For 40 years, queer and trans communities have rallied together with allies and marched through the streets of Vancouver to advocate for the rights of LGBTQAI2S+ people.

“During Pride, we celebrate the important gains queer and trans communities have made over the last decade – equal marriage, access to adoption, and legal protections against discrimination. And we celebrate the strength, resilience, and activism of LGBTQAI2S+ communities in B.C. and beyond our borders.

“We also recognize we have more work to do to make our communities and province better for queer and trans people.

“We must recommit to making our province a place where people of all sexual orientations and gender identities can live without fear, violence, or discrimination.

“Let’s march together to show that love is love and hate has no place in our society. Let’s march to make it clear that everyone deserves safety, respect and dignity.

“Together, let’s build a better British Columbia that welcomes everyone, regardless of who they love or how they express themselves.

“To all those taking part in Sunday’s parade and celebrations: Happy Pride!”

Hi Geoff and Amber –

Following from Geoff's direction, Donna's asked that I put in a placeholder in schedules for the week of August 13 for an hour-long meeting regarding the fiscal framework for LNG.

I spoke briefly to Rob Gillezeau today – FIN staff have prepared a note that may support this discussion, but he wasn't sure if it was enough or if something further would be useful.

I'm happy to work out a time with Debbie for this meeting with Geoff, Evan Pivnick, and Donna (Amber is away); please let me know if FIN staff and/or any other participants should be invited.

“Our communities are made great by the talent and ingenuity of the people who live here, and by the values of diversity, inclusion and mutual respect that bring us together.

“As we celebrate B.C., we recognize our shared responsibility to advance reconciliation together with Indigenous peoples who have lived on this land since time immemorial, and to work together to right historical wrongs and build a better future.

“Today, let’s take the time to celebrate what we love about B.C. Visit a local farmers market, community event, go hiking or camping, or spend time with friends and family.

“We’re going to keep investing in people and working to make life better, with more opportunities for every person in every part of the province.

Thanks for taking the time to meet with me last week. Enjoyed our conversation and helpful for me to understand some of the background and where you feel things are heading. Hope we can do it periodically.

I wanted to put an invitation out to you for early this fall. Our next Board meeting will be held on September 25th in Vancouver and I think it would be great if you could come and spend an hour or so with the Directors. Would be pretty informal. An opportunity for you to share a bit about government priorities and direction and have a bit of a discussion. I know you had indicated you will be spending more time in Vancouver so hope this might work into your schedule.

Happy to work with your office on details if you are available.

Thanks again

Hi Caitlin,

As just discussed, I think we should use the LNG framework material tabled earlier as a jumping off point with Evan and his team. WE can chat to Rob G ahead of time, but it's a process conversation, not so much about content, so Rob as a resource person would be great but I don't think he needs to prepare anything. The other topics we should alert them to are fall considerations on money-laundering, Catalyst and any follow-up required if public accounts have come out. If the final court decision on KM has come down, that may need some time as well.

Hi All,

With the very sad news of the sudden passing of Moralea Milne, city councillor in Metchosin and Gala Milne's mom, some of us here in PO wanted to send a donation to the Metchosin Foundation – Moralea was one of its founding members. The Foundation's vision is of maintaining healthy lands, healthy waters and healthy communities through education and stewardship initiatives. In lieu of flowers, her family is asking for donations to be sent to the Foundation.

A link to the Metchosin Foundation is below and we can donate online. I'd be happy to collect money from anyone who would like to donate and then make a donation from all of us here in the Premier's office. I'm away the next few days – but if you'd like to donate, you can leave some money with Kate or send me an e-transfer.

Jen Rice^{s.22} -- it's her parliamentary secretary role. Premier, s.22 but I thought you should know that we may be at a bit of an inflection point on the fire situation.

To date, we have been managing to keep most of the fires “manageable” – the Telegraph Creek situation would be the major exception to this.

s.13 The reason is the number of fires – they are well above the historical averages, and indeed well above the number from last year. The numbers as of Tuesday looked like this:

	This Season (Since April 1 st)	Last Year (2017)	10 Year Average (2007-2016)
Total Fires to Date	1,508	920	1,073
Total Hectares to Date	101,486	578,521	146,797

As you can see, we have been quite successful at keeping the total area burned below historical averages, despite the fact that the number of fires is approximately 50% higher than usual. We have been aggressively using the Rapattack approach. We have pulled in resources from the rest of Canada as well as the rest of the world.

The current weather forecast is for a new front moving in over the next 36 hours which will be cooler, but will bring a significant amount of “dry lightning”. If that does happen there would be another jump in the number of fires, which we are concerned would overwhelm our ability to knock them back before they grow rapidly under the current very dry situation.

As of this morning, there were 476 fires burning, with 39 new fires in the last 24 hours. A line of dry lightning could potentially start hundreds of new fires in a short period of time.

We are going to schedule a conference call of the Ministers' disaster committee tonight, just to make sure they are aware of the risk.

With luck, the next 36 hours will not be as bad as we fear, but thought it was appropriate for you to be given a bit of a heads up on the possibility.

Thanks.

Hi Sheena,

Thanks for taking the time to speak with me yesterday. Here's the breakdown what I'd like to speak with the Mr. Meegs about:

- How Vancouver came to embrace temporary modular housing as a solution to its homelessness and housing challenges, and the role the city council during his tenure played in process.
- How Vancouver came to approve new protocols to fast-track the permitting process for redevelopment projects involving temporary modular housing.

I know Mr. Meegs ^{s.22} but as a person who was on council at the time these changes were being discussed and is now leading the staff that at the province level is overseeing the expansion of modular housing as strategy to combat homelessness, he appears to be in an ideal position to provide insight and context. If he has even just a few minutes to speak with me I'd appreciate it.

Smithers: We have offered three locations for the meeting: Prestige Mountain Resort, Sandman Inn, Aspen Inn. Peter Grant has offered on behalf of the Wet'suwet'en their board room at the office of Wet'suwet'en. Peter and Amber Nash are in touch to make the final arrangements. Hotels and flights have been booked for Don Wright, Geoff Meggs, Don Bain, Evan Brown and of course PJH. Doug Donaldson has been notified of the trip but will not be present.

Federal Cabinet Meeting: Details of the events such as timing should be coming from Amanda Campbell to Amber Hockin, Amber H will then pass that information onto Amber Nash for input in the calendar. Minister James will also be attending the social on the 21st and the cabinet meeting on the 22nd. Rob Gillezeau has also asked to attend. Geoff and Amber H I leave that decision to you.

Briefings: we have preserved the day of August 21st for briefings ahead of the Federal Cabinet meeting. We have also held the 28 and 29th for a series of briefings. Geoff and Amber, please direct Amber N as to the content of the briefing ahead of the federal cabinet meeting.

MLA calls: we have blocked these for Labour Day afternoon after the PNE and on September 7th. Amber Nash is the lead.

LRT and Broadway: We are still waiting to hear from the Feds about what this event will look like but it is confirmed for the 4th of September. Amber Nash and Rick to take lead.

Childcare Benefits Announcement: Planned for September 6th. The Ministry is looking for a location in Coquitlam. Amber Nash and Rick Devereux are the leads.

Education Event: We are planning on the education to occur at the end of the first week back at school (September 7th). The Ministry is working on a location and announcement in Richmond. Amber N and Rick Devereux are the leads.

UBCM: With the Premier's request to not attend all week at UBCM we have asked for and received leave for Minister Robinson's speech on Wednesday as well as the opening reception on Tuesday night.

Lower Post: With the fires in the North the event is postponed indefinitely. Anne-Marie Sam will keep me updated if anything changes.

Thanks, Amber - Yes, we view the BCFL as the central labour body but have had a "Switzerland" policy at times like this so we welcome contacts all 'round. I think it would be good to have a couple of MLAs drop by, certainly Shane, since it is in his riding. Selina and Bowinn have transit responsibilities. As for the Premier, not a priority because a visit to the PNE is complicated logistically -- we did it last year -- so we can decline, keeping in mind Catalyst, transit, etc. BTW, I told CHristine to give up seeking contact with Scott Doherty and just keep Joie informed as required.

Hi Geoff. Folks are seeking direction on how to respond to this from the Premier and MLAs. I would recommend thanking UNIFOR for the invitation and indicating that we have already confirmed our attendance at the B.C. federation of labour event. Then wish them a happy and successful labour day event.

It's quite likely the crowds will mix. We have set up a system where we treat and view the B.C. fed as the central labour body we primarily engage with and I would recommend that we should let that system guide our interaction in this instance. Amber

Hi Vanessa,

I just wanted to send you a note to let you know we are inviting the Premier and any members of cabinet or caucus who are in town to join Unifor on labour day at the PNE.

We will not be part of the BC Fed event but we are bringing 2000 Unifor members and their families to the PNE on Labour Day for free and we have had huge response to our call so far.

We will be handing out gate passes, coffee, water, and t-shirts at Notre Dame Regional Secondary School (2880 Venables Street) from 9:00 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. before heading into the PNE and will have a sound system for any speeches etc.

Please let the appropriate folks know about this event and that it would be great to see any of our NDP friends on labour day at the Notre Dame.

Hope all is going well in the new role.

Thanks!

MDD requesting leave to attend the Canadian council of Forest Ministers meeting September 5 in Halifax.

MBR requesting to leave at 430 pm on October 25 to attend an innovation and economic development meeting.

There was a soft request for MSF to attend the world indigenous forum October 5-12 in Australia but I responded with your three conditions and it was determined to be not essential.

Hi Geoff,

Thanks for taking the time to meet a few weeks ago – we had a productive meeting with Minister James the following Monday.

I'm following, as promised, to see if we might begin to zero in on some potential dates for the Premier & Cabinet Lunch. We look forward to hosting the premier and his cabinet and offering him a platform to talk about "growing the economy".

To refresh, some suggested dates on our end:

- December 12th, 13th and 14th

I'm going to talk to Elizabeth M about confirming Cabinet in Vancouver and holding 8:30am – 11am to allow for prep before the luncheon. Just waiting to confirm this before getting back to Val.

I'll connect with him today though and let him know we are working on making the 12th happen and I'll be able to confirm soon.

I mentioned that I chaired the Canada China Friendship and Goodwill Association. (www.ccfga.ca) Last week, Zhejiang province contacted my counterpart at the Chinese Peoples Association for Friendship with Foreign Countries (CPAFFC www.en.cpaffc.org.cn) with a request for direction in their search for a Canadian partner province in economic development. Because of the size and location of this province, the Zhejiang team proposed Quebec, Ontario or British Columbia as preferred Canadian partners. The CPAFFC asked my opinion on where they should focus. I recommended British Columbia should be explored first. If such an exploration seems appropriate, could you suggest someone in your operation who could connect with this team to determine if this relationship would of interest to you? The Chinese are proposing to make a visit soon to the province is interested in such a relationship.

The Canadian contact is Xuan (Frank) Zhou who can be reached at xuanzhou@sunrise.ca Frank works with our association, is fluently bilingual and can direct people on where to find reliable answers quickly. (Our BC Board member is Glyniss Leyshon, the international opera director, who lives Victoria. Glynis would be happy to meet with anyone interested to provide background about our organization.)

Zhejiang is a prosperous coastal province below Shanghai where President Xi was formerly both Governor and Party Chief. It is very influential economically and politically within the federal government. I thought you should have first look, given the rapid changes occurring in Ontario and the upcoming election in Quebec.

Thanks for pointing this proposal in the right direction.

Duncan

Good evening, Geoff --

You'll find attached a copy of the INSTPP Communications Proposed Scope of Work from Context Research.

In the interest of time, the City of North Vancouver immediately committed $7000 towards this Scope of Work to ensure Context Research could get to work on developing the communications strategy, which was shared with me today in draft form. The District of North Vancouver has assured me they're secured some funding internally as well. I suspect it will be $7000 to match the City. I know that Will Beale of MOTI has also been looking into things on his end and there may be some discussions with TransLink, but everything appears to be up in the air there.

Context emphasizes that the independent website proposed is an important signal to the public of the uniquely collaborative nature of the project and helps to overcome the challenges we may face if every INSTPP partner attempts to manage their own website, especially with municipal elections coming up that can impact their communications departments in unpredictable ways. Since the INSTPP Report recommends the establishment of a long-term structure for ongoing cooperative transportation planning and decision-making, the website would continue to serve a long-term purpose.

Thank you for your help.

Hi Bowinn. Please see the attached proposal. We have split this into 3 work packages, which leaves some flexibility for the partners. This budget gets us started, and we will see how far it goes based on participation by the partners and public/stakeholder response.

We feel strongly about the need for an independent website but appreciate that the partners may have some concerns about the costs. That said, with 6 partners (perhaps 5 since TransLink has paid more than their fair share), this is not a big expense.

Regarding experts for media interviews, my preference is to have the municipalities take this on. We can use the same people we had at the North Shore Congress. They can speak to the results of the modelling, based on what TransLink modelled. Hilary will take the lead on the communications and I hope to be s.22

Voici quelques informations préliminaires.

Our contact in Premier Horgan's office is Amber Nash, Executive Coordinator (amber.nash@gov.bc.ca) and she has received some of this information.

The Premier is scheduled to address Cabinet at 8:30 am on August 22, for about 15 minutes, at the^{s.15}

. The meeting is closed to the media but that there will be media outside the meeting room in a scrum area should the Premier wish to scrum before or after his address.

The Chief of Staff to the Premier can definitely accompany Premier Horgan in the room. Ministers, their chiefs of staff, senior PMO/PCO officials would be in the room during Premier Horgan's remarks.

Subject: Outreach & Meeting Request...

Good Afternoon:

Following up on a chain of correspondence from a colleague (Christina Marciano) who had attempted to arrange a meeting between our team at Opus One Solutions and your shop on occasion of my previous trip to Victoria a few months back. Am presently tracking to be back in BC and on island for 5 / 6 September and wondering about perhaps getting a meeting booked, please?

During our previous trip, we held meetings with members of the public service (Ministry of Energy, Mines and Petroleum Resources) and held a series of meetings with FortisBC and BC Hydro. The purpose of our return visit is because both utilities have invited us back for next round discussions. I will be with the utilities on 4th / 5th September, and happen to have time in Victoria on 6 September. Wondering if you might have time for a huddle so that we can introduce our firm, but also allow me to give you a real-time update about our engagements with those utilities as it pertains to a grid modernization perspective in BC?

Opus One Solutions is a nimble, young, Canadian company based in Toronto and operating software / engineering solutions that help distribution utilities maximize the potential of distributed resources that can help lower overall system costs, engage consumers in the electricity marketplace and support an innovative climate for new technologies (such as EV deployment, and the concomitant charging infrastructure). To that end, I have include a brief deck that further outlines Opus One's work, market potential and undertakings.

While I appreciate that I'm inquiring about a meeting date well into the future, I'm attempting to balance several other potential appointments, and would love to hear back and sort something out, subject to your schedule, of course?

Many thanks, in advance.

Good evening, Geoff --

You'll find attached a copy of the INSTPP Communications Proposed Scope of Work from Context Research.

In the interest of time, the City of North Vancouver immediately committed $7000 towards this Scope of Work to ensure Context Research could get to work on developing the communications strategy, which was shared with me today in draft form. The District of North Vancouver has assured me they're secured some funding internally as well. I suspect it will be $7000 to match the City. I know that Will Beale of MOTI has also been looking into things on his end and there may be some discussions with TransLink, but everything appears to be up in the air there.

Context emphasizes that the independent website proposed is an important signal to the public of the uniquely collaborative nature of the project and helps to overcome the challenges we may face if every INSTPP partner attempts to manage their own website, especially with municipal elections coming up that can impact their communications departments in unpredictable ways. Since the INSTPP Report recommends the establishment of a long-term structure for ongoing cooperative transportation planning and decision-making, the website would continue to serve a long-term purpose.

Thank you for your help.

Hi Bowinn. Please see the attached proposal. We have split this into 3 work packages, which leaves some flexibility for the partners. This budget gets us started, and we will see how far it goes based on participation by the partners and public/stakeholder response.

We feel strongly about the need for an independent website but appreciate that the partners may have some concerns about the costs. That said, with 6 partners (perhaps 5 since TransLink has paid more than their fair share), this is not a big expense.

Regarding experts for media interviews, my preference is to have the municipalities take this on. We can use the same people we had at the North Shore Congress. They can speak to the results of the modelling, based on what TransLink modelled. Hilary will take the lead on the communications and I hope to be ~~s.~~22

Thanks Bowinn.

Dear Orest and Theresa,

To follow up on my earlier message about being awarded a 2018 Momentum for Change winning activity (congratulations again!), I wanted to let you know that we are planning a special event in partnership with The Climate Group to announce the 2018 Momentum for Change winners on 27 September during Climate Week in New York City.

We are aiming to have 3 or 4 of this year's winners speak about their climate solutions at the event. It would be wonderful if you were able to speak at the event. I have attached a draft concept note with more details (an updated version will follow next week or the week after).

Unfortunately, we have a very limited budget for this event so travel costs would need to be borne by your organization. But since you are relatively “close” to NYC, I thought it could be a great opportunity for you to take part and get some well-deserved recognition at a major event on the climate calendar in the lead-up to COP 24.

You can learn more about Climate Week NYC, taking place from September 24-30, and its program of events here: www.climateweeknyc.org/

Please let us know by 31 August if you will be able to join us on 27 September in NYC to speak at this special event to announce the 2018 Momentum for Change winners.

Best regards,

Sarah

Subject: Fw: Communications Proposal

Good evening, Geoff --

You'll find attached a copy of the INSTPP Communications Proposed Scope of Work from Context Research.

In the interest of time, the City of North Vancouver immediately committed $7000 towards this Scope of Work to ensure Context Research could get to work on developing the communications strategy, which was shared with me today in draft form. The District of North Vancouver has assured me they're secured some funding internally as well. I suspect it will be $7000 to match the City. I know that Will Beale of MOTI has also been looking into things on his end and there may be some discussions with TransLink, but everything appears to be up in the air there.

Context emphasizes that the independent website proposed is an important signal to the public of the uniquely collaborative nature of the project and helps to overcome the challenges we may face if every INSTPP partner attempts to manage their own website, especially with municipal elections coming up that can impact their communications departments in unpredictable ways. Since the INSTPP Report recommends the establishment of a long-term structure for ongoing cooperative transportation planning and decision-making, the website would continue to serve a long-term purpose.

Thank you for your help.

Subject: Communications Proposal

Hi Bowinn. Please see the attached proposal. We have split this into 3 work packages, which leaves some flexibility for the partners. This budget gets us started, and we will see how far it goes based on participation by the partners and public/stakeholder response.

We feel strongly about the need for an independent website but appreciate that the partners may have some concerns about the costs. That said, with 6 partners (perhaps 5 since TransLink has paid more than their fair share), this is not a big expense.

Regarding experts for media interviews, my preference is to have the municipalities take this on. We can use the same people we had at the North Shore Congress. They can speak to the results of the modelling, based on what TransLink modelled. Hilary will take the lead on the communications and I hope to be s.22

Thanks Bowinn.

Best regards,

John

Geoff and Don,

Attached is Ricks draft itinerary for PJH for Tuesday. My only recommendations to Rick were that 1) PJH would need to a brief media avail in PG and 2) he would insist on staying out of the way.

I think this accomplishes both of those objectives.

Note that MDD will not able to join him, but Jen Rice would like to meet him in BL. Additionally, Sheena has made tentative arrangements to take Zussman along as well.

I'd appreciate your thought before I give Rick the green light.

Hello

I am reaching out to let you know that Airbnb has activated our Disaster Response Program (<https://www.airbnb.ca/disaster-response>) to help local residents impacted by the wildfires in British Columbia.

In the event of major emergencies like this one, Airbnb's Disaster Response Program connects local residents who have been displaced -- as well as emergency relief workers and volunteers who are coming in to assist -- find temporary accommodations with local Airbnb hosts who are opening their homes free of charge. In this case, the program has been activated in the Okanagan and on Vancouver Island through August 29.

We are hoping to reach as many people affected as possible, as well as spread the word to those in the area who are not impacted, so that if they are interested and willing, they can list their home for free and assist those in need. Given the urgency of the situation and the people in need, we would appreciate it if you would share the link to the program or retweet the following tweet: <https://twitter.com/AirbnbHelp/status/1030492221487759360>

Once the tool is activated, Airbnb automatically contacts hosts in the impacted and surrounding area asking if they have extra space that they would like to share at no cost, with their displaced neighbors. Hosts that choose to participate will have their space listed through our disaster response portal. In addition, guests and hosts in the area have access to Airbnb's 24/7 customer support.

Please don't hesitate to reach out if you have any questions. Airbnb is committed to contributing to the well-being of local communities across British Columbia and to supporting our hosts in giving back to their communities.

Hi Mira,

As discussed, I've flushed out some of my thinking on how to approach the Clean Growth Strategy, especially thinking ahead to selling it (comms) & implementing it (via Cabinet & ministries). See attached.

I've also been working up a framework, as a table of contents, for the Clean Growth Strategy—at Merran and Marcia's request. They'll be looking at it next week, and intend to share with CSCG Council members, Tim Lesiuk, Bobbi, Caelie & Min. Heyman. Also attached.

And for convenience, if useful, s.22

Please feel free to share internally. If you have any Qs I'm happy to discuss any of the attached further—all works in progress—with you, Geoff, and anybody else.

Will plan to circle back with you after I meet with Bobbi on Aug 27.

Have a great weekend.

Cheers

He will likely want to talk about ideas he has for engaging indigenous communities including the importance of shifting from damaging gillnet technology to more sustainable methods like weirs and fishwheels and how creating incentives for the community to truly be the river-watchers would be a win-win for all.

Lastly, he will want to update the Premier on the discussions he has had with different BC Ministers (e.g. Popham) and his desire to bring all the key players together for a "Summit" of sorts in the Fall - although I believe some of that already occurred when Rick and the Premier spoke briefly a few weeks ago.

Hello,

I am emailing to discuss location for September 5th Cabinet. It appears that the location is s.15, however, Minister Robinson has a very important meeting on the 5th in Vancouver that we have had in the planning and has been in the works for months. Its an 1.5 hour event with a large council group 10 minutes away from s.15. It starts at 12:00 and runs until 1:30.

I am requesting her participation for Cabinet to be from s.15 given this circumstance.

Please review and advise if this will be approved at your convenience.

Hi team Horgan,

I hope that your team is traveling safely down island and hasn't been caught in the Malahat traffic--- very sad about that accident and the fatality.

On behalf of our team, I wanted to extend a huge thank-you to you, the Premier and Minister James for coming to Nanaimo. The PM was very happy to have that time with the Premier yesterday to discuss those matters that they both care passionately about, and that they share a clear vision for. I know Minister Wilkinson will be picking up the Salmon discussion with earnest in coming days and weeks, including the meetings on Friday.

Minister Sajjan's team knew how important the trip to Prince George was for the Premier, and we are grateful for the coordination for that visit in showing a united front in the face of that situation. Your Parliamentary Secretary Jennifer Rice will be with the PM briefly tomorrow when he is there also. Minister Qualtrough is chairing the ad hoc Committee and her team will keep you looped into those discussions and tours.

The Cabinet was very happy for the chance to hear the Premier speak- not only in his home province, but also on his and Minister James' home turf on the Island! His remarks were gracious, and I know the Ministers in the room appreciate the tone and insight into the Premier's hopes for our two governments in the next year and a half. There is certainly a lot to be done, and we are happy for our partnership!

The Cabinet Retreat would certainly have been lacking without the Premier there, and I know it was taking him away from some much needed time down. A huge thank you from us, to you. Please enjoy the remainder of summer! I will be in touch as we wrap this trip about Sept 4 and the big announcement

Best,

Amanda Campbell

Good afternoon, Becky,

The Premier has asked me to contact you to ask your assistance to provide a briefing to MLA Shirley Bond and those of her colleagues who wish to join her on the current fire situation. Our office should have ensured she was included in the visit yesterday. I'm also reaching to her myself to express our regrets.

Thanks for your assistance

Don, following are my brief notes of the conversation between PJH and Prime Minister Trudeau yesterday evening. The comments the Premier made this morning were emphasizing some priorities of our government and the questions from cabinet members straightforward, so I don't have much to add on that aspect.

During the meeting with the Prime Minister, which Minister James and Minister Dominic LeBlanc also attended, the following were the key points:

Don, I'd like to make sure we're on the same page on the fire response strategy. If PJH is to include significant elements of a plan in his UBCM speech, we'll need to know what they are at least a week ahead of time, which doesn't leave much time. However,

- we would assume consultation with UBCM and FNLC;
- we would need engagement with Ottawa to tackle some of the issues raised by the FNLC;
- we probably should have a discussion at P and A, given the inter-ministry nature of the project.

I've been reviewing the Abbott/Chapman report and have some ideas. Who are you putting on point for this? I think Jon Robinson and/or Eric Kristianson could assist, but I don't want to duplicate. Can we work out at timeline and team?

Hi Amber,

As discussed, MSR had been booked to do a lunchtime speech to the NEXT Leader's Council (<http://www.nextleaders.ca/next-believes>) at noon on September 5 based on an incorrect understanding that she would be able to attend cabinet from VCO and then get over to the event. As the event details have already gone out, we are requesting leave for her to leave cabinet in Victoria at 10:30 on the 5th – that will allow her to attend the first part of the meeting and then take a helijet over and still give the keynote at their luncheon.

Please let me know if you think this is possible once you've had a chance to discuss with Geoff, or if we should cancel the lunch in order to enable her to stay for the full meeting.

Thanks – happy to discuss further as needed,
Craig

Geoff,

Thanks for your time and that of Don's today. I will follow up specifically on the discussion from this morning shortly which was very helpful.

As mentioned I am forwarding the product of our work upon the return of the Deputies this week and next, that were charged with working with us and delivering on the details of this strategy. This final version needs review and sign off by the Ministers given this being a cabinet directive. We have taken the very helpful initial feedback from the Deputies though Bobbi prior to her departure and I believe captured it in the revised MOU which is attached .

As well we have added in material developments from the last three weeks related to the federal government changes to the backstop policy. Our continued work through July and August has also established nine sector working groups and initiation of technical data and communications workplans that we can jointly lock down and act on asap. We look forward upon sign off to formalizing our coworking committees and workplans that achieves this opportunity for BC to positively address global climate and create the conditions for a competitive economy that supports a unique opportunity for the province.

You and I can discuss the communications and branding pieces as we have done significant work as it sound you have as well on this and as we agreed this needs to be integrated into a single brand and coordinated comms strategy .

Subject: Follow up from Call with Regional Chief re EA Reform

Dear Minister Heyman,

Thank you for the call on Tuesday. Our goal was to discuss your government's commitment to a consent-based EA process, which you propose to legislate this fall. Our technical teams are at an impasse over this central issue. You requested additional time to seek guidance on the definition of consent from the Premier. Respectfully, it is imperative that the Province work with First Nations to develop an understanding of consent. I propose that we work from the following definition:

"consent" means the international standard of free prior and informed consent (FPIC) which must be collaboratively defined and implemented with affected Indigenous nations, in accordance with Indigenous laws and legal orders, through a range of mechanisms that can be used to ensure the authority and autonomy of both governments are respected.

Given the urgent nature of this as a major substantive issue and your proposed timelines to develop a draft bill for fall 2018, I suggest a meeting as soon as practicable in September with the Premier, yourself, Minister Fraser and the FNLC.

To ensure we do not lose precious time I suggest we collectively instruct our teams to develop a consent-based EA process on a without prejudice basis that may assist our political discussion. Our teams are awaiting instructions for potential meetings scheduled for next week.

Finally, I would like to arrange a follow-up call with you again for Monday, August 27th.

I look forward to your prompt response.

Sincerely,

Regional Chief Teegee

Don, following are my brief notes of the conversation between PJH and Prime Minister Trudeau yesterday evening. The comments the Premier made this morning were emphasizing some priorities of our government and the questions from cabinet members straightforward, so I don't have much to add on that aspect.

Good morning Geoff,

For your information, I spoke with MGH this past Tuesday and he asked if I was aware of any work on the definition of consent and/or processes concerning free, informed and prior consent. I replied ADM Wood may be working on FPIC as part of her mandate of reconciliation and offered to reach out to see what work is underway.

This morning I passed on to MGH's MA Caelie the following reponses.

ADM Wood informs me that yes the ADM Working Group and the SDM Working Group have been tasked to review draft Principle 6 FPIC as they work to the October 2018 deadline of how ministries will implement the Draft Principles.

MA George Smith offered the following list [note the language].

ILR lawyers are working on or are aware and given the short time frame it cannot be considered comprehensive:

- Environmental Assessment Revitalization (i.e. development of new EA legislation) reflects a process aimed at building deeper collaboration and consensus is what is being discussed currently. One key aspect of this initiative is the collaborative/consensus-seeking between EAO and Indigenous Nations, which includes engaging Indigenous Nations earlier in the process, more deeply throughout (e.g. collaborative drafting of the assessment report, collaborative development of conditions) and formal and informal alternative dispute resolution mechanisms to resolve disagreements. This builds on some of the more recent EAs that applied collaborative mechanisms, including the example of Kemess Underground Mine Project, where consensus was achieved between the Indigenous Nations and EAO.
- A discussion of EA Revitalization is found here: <https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/environment/natural-resource-stewardship/environmental-assessments/environmental-assessment-revitalization>

- The Discussion Paper describing a number of key components, including discussion of ADR, is linked here: https://www2.gov.bc.ca/assets/gov/environment/natural-resource-stewardship/environmental-assessments/environmental-assessment-revitalization/documents/ea_revitalization_discussion_paper_final.pdf
- MIRR has negotiated several agreements that refer to BC engaging directly with a particular nation or group of nations on processes aimed at securing consent: these include;
 - Nlaka'pamux Nation Tribal Council – BC Political Accord see s. 6 (c) and (d) https://www2.gov.bc.ca/assets/gov/environment/natural-resource-stewardship/consulting-with-first-nations/agreements/nntc_final_27nov2017_accord_bc.pdf

 - The Tahltan Klappan Plan includes a collaborative decision making board structure and recommendations for future consensus based decision making https://www2.gov.bc.ca/assets/gov/environment/natural-resource-stewardship/consulting-with-first-nations/agreements/other-docs/signed_klappantor_20170329.pdf
 - Tahltan and BC Government to Government Red Chris Mine Management Agreement includes collaborative decision making on mining permits https://www2.gov.bc.ca/assets/gov/environment/natural-resource-stewardship/consulting-with-first-nations/agreements/tahtlan_rcma_jan_24_2017.pdf
- MEMPR and FLNRO have engaged in several collaborative decision making processes with the Carrier Sekani First Nations which include seeking consensus in relation to major projects or significant forestry decisions that may adversely affect their interests. The following collaborative processes have been based on negotiated collaboration plans:
 - Prince George Timber Supply Review and now the Apportionment and Proportional Reduction decisions have included a deeply collaborative process with the Nadleh Whut'en, Nak'azdli Whut'en, Saikuz First Nation, Takla Lake First Nation, Tl'az'ten Nation, Ts'il Kaz Koh (Burns Lake Band)
 - Kemess Underground Mine EA and permitting process with Tse Kay Dene, Takla Lake First Nation and Kwadacha
 - Blackwater Gold – Environmental Assessment with Nadleh Whut'en, Saik'uz and Stellat'en First Nations
 - Groundhog/Atrum Coal Notice of Work/Bulk Sample permitting process with Takla Lake First Nation
 - Mt Milligan EA Amendment and permitting process with McLeod Lake First Nation, Takla Lake First Nation and Nakazdli
- On June 27, 2018, the Province entered into a Letter of Understanding (LOU) for a government-to-government consent-based process for recommendations for tenure replacements for finfish aquaculture operations in the Broughton Archipelago area with the Kwikwasutinuxw Haxwa'mis, 'Namgis, and the Mamalilikulla First Nations (the First Nations). section 4 of the LOU, the Parties agreed, using the standard of free, prior and informed consent, to make consensus recommendations to their respective decision makers in relation to 17 provincial tenures held by aquaculture operations in the Broughton Archipelago area. The LOU established a collaborative structure to allow the Parties to reach consensus recommendations including formation of a Steering Committee, comprised of an equal number of representatives from the First Nations and Province

- In addition to the above, there are other (older) strategic engagement agreements that include consensus seeking processes that result in recommendations to decision makers, including the Gitanyow Recognition and Reconciliation Agreement, and the Taku River Tlingit Shared Decision Making Agreement. Even the 2009 agreement with the Haida Nation Kunst'aa Guu – Kunst'aayah Reconciliation Protocol (2009) and Implementation Plan reflect a number of mechanisms which further this goal.

Hello,

With summer winding down, we have a new essay in Policy Magazine's clean energy/tech edition:

Clean Growth is More Than a Goal—It's a Reality

Just as social media upended communications, the transition to clean energy is rapidly undoing century-old expectations around electricity, transportation, and oil—and it's happening in market-shifting, sometimes surprising ways. We conclude that Canada should look to where the world is headed and not only keep up—we should be near the front. In key areas, our country has room to grow and innovate. At the same time, there are Canadian companies that are thriving and showing us the way forward.

If you have any questions or wish to discuss anything in this essay, or how we think governments and businesses can best mitigate the risks and capitalize upon the opportunities of the clean energy transition, please don't hesitate to follow-up with Merran and myself.

Cheers

Subject: New essay in Policy Magazine: Clean Growth is More Than a Goal—It's a Reality

Hello,

With summer winding down, we have a new essay in Policy Magazine's clean energy/tech edition:

Clean Growth is More Than a Goal—It's a Reality

Just as social media upended communications, the transition to clean energy is rapidly undoing century-old expectations around electricity, transportation, and oil—and it's happening in market-shifting, sometimes surprising ways. We conclude that Canada should look to where the world is headed and not only keep up—we should be near the front. In key areas, our country has room to grow and innovate. At the same time, there are Canadian companies that are thriving and showing us the way forward.

If you have any questions or wish to discuss anything in this essay, or how we think governments and businesses can best mitigate the risks and capitalize upon the opportunities of the clean energy transition, please don't hesitate to follow-up with Merran and myself.

Cheers

Dan

Geoff, the $40B is not a precise number and the breakdown is fluid. In fact LNGC now expects the numbers to be even larger over time. That said, the answer to your question from LNGC is:

Of a total CAD40bln spend, we estimate CAD24bln of that to be spent in BC. (60%) This number covers (a portion) of upstream development, the liquefaction plant and the pipeline.

Dave, the Green Party is again asking for a breakdown of how much of a $40 billion project would be spent in B.C., knowing that modules and tankers, for example, will be sourced overseas. Do you have that handy?

Hi – this event was conceived without Minister Trevena originally. Our Fed:Prov representative numbers are even without her – Trudeau:Horgan; Champagne:Robinson. MOTI will build Broadway while TransLink builds the Surrey LRT system. The day begins in Vancouver with a photo op but the speaking portion ends in Surrey. My inclination is to let this proceed without Minister Trevena but I wanted to check in with you to see if you had any strong feelings to the contrary.

Minister Trevena's office is wondering if she needs to plan to be at the announcement on September 4th – she apparently has a conflict she would need to rearrange, so is not angling to participate, and there is already quite a premier on space given the PM and Mayors participating.

Let us know what you think.

Hi all,

Please find attached an updated briefing note to Ronna-Rae Leonard. We have a meeting confirmed with her for tomorrow morning at 9:30 am. Looking forward to seeing you all there.

By way of background, we have had some communication with Geoff Meggs (staff at the Premiers Offices) who has agreed to support Ronna-Rae in her work to identify Provincial funding for the project. He provided some guidance to us as to what should be highlighted in this briefing note to really focus in on key details that are of significance to the decision-makers at this time.

Therefore, I have updated this Briefing Note with an Executive Summary that hits these specific points. I have also updated various other changes that have transpired since we last updated her in February.

I am also working on creating a PowerPoint deck that illustrates the main content of this briefing note with some further details, maps and images. This will not be ready in time for Friday, but should be complete by next week.

Bill, can you please forward this to Ronna-Rae's office on our behalf?

Thanks,

Tim
