For context, re: China mission:

Saw on last night's CBC The National that a federal delegation is (still) going to China this coming Saturday: 4 MPs, 2 Senators – mix of Liberals and Conservatives, as part of the Canada-China Legislative Association. Visit was planned long ago; still going ahead despite other cancellations recently (ie: Melanie Joly). "No dispute that this issue [detainees] will overshadow the trip."

Hi Okenge,

Happy holidays to you too!

We will action that. We are also currently preparing two briefing notes for the Premier's meetings with the Mayor of Vancouver and the Mayor of Surrey respectively. And as well we just provided a BN to MJD to support a discussion with the Minister of Health Canada s.22 All that to say I think we have lots of material to draw on and there certainly are requests that can be made of the federal government.

Good Morning and Happy New Year:

Our Ministry has again been asked to coordinate a schedule of potential international travel across government. As such, we would request that Ministries submit any anticipated plans for Minister and Deputy Minister international travel for the 2019-20 fiscal year.

We would appreciate if you would identify a contact that will lead coordination of your ministry's response by January 18. As well, that you ensure that your ministry's submission includes all potential overseas and USA travel, and outlines how the travel will advance your Ministry's mandate letter directives and strategic program priorities. Please include Crown Agencies under your purview in your submission.

Grateful if your team could submit your Ministry's travel plans using the attached template and provide this information to Maureen Yelovatz, Director, Missions and Events at Maureen.Yelovatz@gov.bc.ca by Friday, January 18, 2019. If you do not anticipate any international travel during the 2019-20 fiscal year, please respond by indicating "No International Travel Planned".

Information will be treated as confidential and will be included in the government-wide annual mission plan that will be submitted to Minister Bruce Ralston.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me or Maureen Yelovatz. Thank you for your support of this initiative.

Best,

Fazil Mihlar
Deputy Minister

I have asked Sandra to set up a time for Randy Seitz to come by today and adjust your calendar and email properties.

The pre-brief with DMs to discuss the SoC briefing with Minister Darcy and call with WA, OR and CA is set for this Friday.

I heard back from Minister Darcy's office on Friday re time frames for the briefing with Minister Darcy. s.22
s.22 Her office has also provided some times January 22-24 for the call with the US. Nicole and Sandra will work to book these.

I booked your AC flights for January 25. Please check the itinerary to see if you are fine with the schedule. The Chinese Spring Festival Reception begins at 6:30pm.

Chris: thanks for this and apologies for the delayed reply. I am now fully up-to-date on this issue. You are correct about the potential call between Clerks next week.

We are also eager to collaborate with a view to understanding and addressing potential negative impacts on the forestry industry.

To that end it would be crucial that relevant federal DM(s) work hand in glove with BC counterparts including during direct engagement with affected communities/companies/workers on the ground.

Additionally, financial support for affected companies will likely be required, as will be a comprehensive approach to support affected workers.

I understand Stephen and al will be in BC next week to meet with Mark Zacharias and al.

Hope this helps,

Nicole, MDD's office is asking for a backgrounder.

Kelly, can you ensure OYM attends. MDD's office is scheduling a pre-brief at 9:45am which he probably should attend as well.

To: BCPSA Agency Corporate Executive
Subject: Annual Review of the Standards of Conduct and Oath of Employment

Dear Colleagues,

Building on our ongoing efforts to foster an ethical culture in the BC Public Service, we are introducing a new corporate requirement for all employees to annually review the Standards of Conduct and Oath of Employment.

To support this effort, a new Annual Review of the Standards of Conduct and Oath of Employment e-module will be launching effective July 1, 2018. The new e-module will ensure public service employees are refreshed on the Oath of Employment and the Standards of Conduct annually, while also ensuring a consistent approach is experienced by all employees regardless of their location or ministry. It is expected that all employees complete the annual review e-module initially by May 31, 2019, and then annually going forward. In consideration of operational demands being different throughout the year, ministries can determine the best time to complete the annual reviews.

(Exception: New employees hired after June 1, 2018, will not complete the annual review in the current 2018-19 cycle, but will do so in subsequent years. They will go through the standard onboarding process of signing the Standards of Conduct Acknowledgement and swearing/affirming the Oath of Employment.)

The e-module includes a short 10-question quiz testing employees on their familiarity with the Oath of Employment and Standards of Conduct, and will track employee completion rates. The e-module may take 30 to 60 minutes, including time required to review key documents and to take the quiz. Employees who receive 80 per cent or higher will achieve a passing grade, and the successful completion will be documented in their learning record. Those who get a lower mark will have an opportunity to review the e-module and take the quiz again until successful completion. Supervisors will receive alerts through Manager Self Service, a new modification to the onboarding process, so they can remind their team members to complete the e-module in a timely manner. Supervisors will also be able to see which employees have successfully completed the training. Note, deputy ministers and associate deputy ministers will not be receiving alerts. A different process is currently being developed for them where Executive Talent Management and ministry ethics advisors will monitor and follow-up as required.

It's important to note the launch of the new e-module will first be shared with supervisors on Tuesday, June 26, before subsequently being announced to all employees Wednesday, June 27. In early July, I will send you another email inviting you to take part in the new e-module.

For your convenience, please find attached relevant key messages related to the new Annual Review of the Standards of Conduct and Oath of Employment e-module. These key messages are intended to support your communications as leaders of ethics and integrity within your respective ministries. In preparation for the e-module launch, I encourage you to work with your ministry ethics advisor to develop an approach to communicate and champion this important training throughout the 2018-19 cycle.

It's my hope that the Annual Review of the Standards of Conduct and Oath of Employment e-module will support employees in fulfilling their ethical responsibilities as BC Public Service employees. As always, if you have any questions please feel free to contact me.

Thank you,

Lori Halls, Deputy Minister

Subject: Protests

Dear Corporate Executive:

In the context of the protest events this week, the Public Service Agency has received requests for some messaging to support supervisors and executive in reminding employees of their obligations under the Standards of Conduct. I'm providing the following to use as you deem appropriate to address any questions you may receive from employees or supervisors.

As always with regard to any public policy issue, all of us as citizens have the right to our own opinions and perspectives on an issue, and we may comment on public issues. Being a public service employee doesn't change that.

However, as outlined in the Standards of Conduct, we must not jeopardize the perception of impartiality in the performance of our duties as public service employees by making public comments or entering into public debate regarding government policies.

In particular, we must not engage in any activity or speak publicly where this could be perceived as an official act or representation, unless authorized to do so.

This applies in public events, on social media or in any other venue where our personal opinions may be perceived as conflicting with our professional responsibilities.

We also must not express our personal opinions on policy issues using government equipment or during paid work hours. If an employee wishes to request leave to participate in a public rally or event, they must get approval for that leave from their supervisor in advance just like they would any other planned leave.

We all made a commitment as public service employees to uphold a duty of loyalty to government as our employer, which requires us to serve government to the best of our ability, placing the interest of the employer ahead of our own private interests. I encourage you to regularly engage with employees in discussions about how we apply that commitment in our day-to-day work and to remind them that their ministry ethics advisors, supervisors and executive are always available to answer any questions they have about how we all uphold the trust placed in us as public servants by the citizens of BC and their government.

She was travelling as an MLA representing her constituency, because Esquimalt is where the base is, so this is not under Parliamentary Secretary travel. But she was traveling on government business, correct?

Hi Sukumar,

We'll have a small delegation (DM, ED, two Directors and a Manager) attending the conference and exhibition. DM and ED would be attending the conference with others staffing a booth in the exhibition (along with various Canadian LNG projects).

Subject: Executive Leadership Innovation Sessions – a few seats left!

Colleagues:

Thank you to those who have already registered for an Executive Leadership Innovation Session later this month. To help you prepare for your session, I've attached:

- Bios for the facilitators from our partner States of Change.
- A pre-session reading package.

If you haven't already signed up, there are still a few seats available for this opportunity to explore some of the themes highlighted in the new Leadership Expectations. Register today for a tailored session with practical ideas and approaches to foster an innovative culture in your organization as an executive leader.

REGISTER NOW

- When: Choose one of the three options below. Space is limited to 25 seats per session.
  - Thursday, January 24, 9:00-12:00
  - Thursday, January 24, 1:00-4:00
  - Friday, January 25, 1:00-4:00
- Where: Parkside Hotel - Urban Ballroom, 810 Humboldt St., Victoria

Looking forward to seeing you there!

Sincerely,

Lori Halls
Deputy Minister, BC Public Service Agency

Hi Okenge – following on your question regarding Poland's role in NATO, you are right to note their leading role. Poland is one of the few NATO members that puts 2% of GDP toward defense (a key US demand). Poland also hosts NATO's Joint Force Training Centre where officers and contractors are trained in achieving joint tactical interoperability. One of NATO's multinational divisions (coordinating forward presence battlegroups) is also based in Poland.

Subject: Call for Records OOP-2018-87053 Records Due November 9, 2018

Hello,

Please see details below regarding this formal request made under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FOIPPA):

Scanned images of all pages in all notebooks used by Okenge Yuma Morisho (Date Range for Record Search: From 09/01/2018 To 09/30/2018) Date Format is MM/DD/YYYY

Applicant Type: Political Party
Records Due: November 9, 2018
Legislated Due Date: December 7, 2018
IAO Contact: Noralee Kirton

Please complete and return the attached Call for Records form to IAOCentralTeam@gov.bc.ca.

Fee estimate instructions: (see CFR form for fee calculation information and due date)

If search and retrieval time is anticipated to exceed 3 hours and/or the total volume of records exceeds 200 pages, complete only Sections 1 & 2 of the Call for Records Form as we may be in a position to issue a fee estimate. Then, return the form to the IAO by the Fee Estimate Due date noted above. Please await further instruction from IAO as the records will not be required until the fee estimate process has been completed. Once fees have been paid or waived, IAO will contact you to continue the call for records process. IAO will advise you if the request is abandoned and closed.

Send records via email in PDF format. If email is not possible, please send the records in electronic format via house mail with the completed form.

You should be aware that FOIPPA obligates us to assist the applicant and to respond without delay, openly, accurately, and completely. In the event that the ministry must defend the adequacy of its search to the Information and Privacy Commissioner at Inquiry, those involved in searching for records may be required to sign affidavits confirming they have conducted an adequate search for relevant records.

Please do not hesitate to contact IAO to discuss:

- whether the records may be routinely releasable;
- whether the information is being prepared for public release or is already publicly available;
- any other questions or concerns relating to this request.

Thank you for your assistance,

Noralee Kirton, FOI Analyst

Should you be part of the TMX DMs Update meeting still? And I had been told when asked to reschedule this that Don was no longer mandatory.

Hi Kelly

I am back in the office now and will be the point of contact moving forth.

Mark has advised that this meeting needs to be moved as it must be an in person meeting with the following mandatory attendees;

Mark
Geoff
Don Wright
James H or Richard F

Please advise what would work and we can go back to the drawing board to reschedule.

I note though, Mark did not Okenge as a mandatory attendee, if you would ask Okenge if he still wants to attend and if not then maybe I best try to schedule this with Don's office – Kiera.

Thank you

Coleen

New Directive on Civil Litigation involving Indigenous Peoples

Dear colleagues:

Last Friday, the Minister of Justice and Attorney General of Canada, the Honourable Jody Wilson-Raybould, released the Attorney General of Canada's Directive on Civil Litigation Involving Indigenous Peoples.

Your individual legal services units are aware of the directive, and, as you know, the directive formalizes the way in which we have already been working. This document will continue to guide counsel in their daily work of providing your departments with legal services and advice.

This Directive is a concrete expression of the Principles Respecting the Government of Canada's Relationship with Indigenous Peoples, in which the Government stated its commitment to change Canada's relationship with Indigenous peoples in a fundamental way, and fulfill the promise of section 35 of the Constitution Act, 1982. It is also the result of a lot of hard work by many people within our own Department, and across Government.

Additionally, the Directive promotes an approach to conflict resolution that is consistent with the goal of advancing reconciliation with Indigenous peoples. It emphasizes the importance of resolving conflicts in the courts expeditiously and collaboratively, and reducing the use of litigation where possible. This is a significant move away from the status quo approach of letting the courts decide on major issues in the Crown-Indigenous relationship.

Thank you for your ongoing collaboration. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Regards,

Deputy Minister of Justice and Deputy Attorney General of Canada

Nouvelle directive sur les litiges civils mettant en cause les peuples autochtones

Collègues,

Vendredi dernier, la ministre de la Justice et procureur général du Canada, l'honorable Jody Wilson-Raybould, a annoncé la publication de la Directive du procureur général du Canada sur les litiges civils mettant en cause les peuples autochtones.

Vos équipes de Services juridiques ministériels ont été informées de cette directive et, comme vous le savez, cette directive ne fait que formaliser l'approche couramment utilisée. Ce document va continuer à les inspirer dans leur travail quotidien qui consiste à fournir des services et des conseils juridiques.

Cette directive est une manifestation concrète des Principes régissant la relation du gouvernement du Canada avec les peuples autochtones, dans lesquels le gouvernement s'est engagé à modifier la relation du Canada avec les peuples autochtones d'une manière fondamentale et à respecter la promesse de l'article 35 de la Loi constitutionnelle de 1982. Cette directive est aussi le résultat de beaucoup de travail effectué par plusieurs personnes de notre Ministère, ainsi qu'à travers le gouvernement.

De plus, la directive favorise un mode de résolution des conflits qui est conforme à l'objectif de réconciliation avec les peuples autochtones. Elle met l'accent sur l'importance de la résolution des conflits dans les tribunaux de façon prompte et collaborative, et de la réduction du recours aux litiges. Il s'agit d'une dérogation marquée à l'approche statu quo qui consiste à laisser les tribunaux trancher les grandes questions dans la relation entre la Couronne et les Autochtones.

Merci de votre collaboration continue. Veuillez me contacter si vous avez des questions.

Cordialement,

Sous-ministre de la Justice et sous-procureure générale du Canada

Subject: Emergency Kits

Hi all

Somewhere in your office, ideally under your desk, ought to be two emergency kits. One, in a plastic bag, contains gloves, a whistle, a light stick, and some other items. The second, in a black bag, has your food and water supply plus other items.

Please check under your desk, in your desk drawers, file cabinets, etc. to find your kits. If you are missing one or both kits, please let me know.

Thanks

Glenda

I have no concerns with this redline – it's a list of document titles (BN, IN, advice)

*Applicant will likely look over list and make future request for any note of interest to them – serves as reminder to ensure only finals are saved down vs. drafts.

Hello,

The Ministry of Agriculture received this FOI request from a Business:

Regarding the June 27, 2018 Letter of Understanding between the Province and certain First Nations (the "LOU"): we request copies of all records that relate to the Province of British Columbia's consent-based process with respect to aquaculture tenures and with respect to fisheries, discussed in the LOU, including all correspondence among staff of the Ministries and all other documents in the Ministries' possession relating to the LOU. The date range for this request is January 1, 2013 to the date of this letter. (Date Range for Record Search: From 01/01/2013 To 08/31/2018)

They identified the attached document as responsive records and wish to get your views. Could you please review the below pages and please let me know if you have any concerns with the disclosure of the emails you authored?

Christine – pages 1 and 8
Okenge – pages 3-4
Don – page 10

Thank you so much!

Good Morning Okenge,

We haven't formally had a chance to meet but your team speaks very highly of you and your support for them and PECSF. First and foremost, thank you for all the support and leadership you provided to the Office of the Premier staff in Campaign 2018, you all are amazing!

As you may be aware, the BC Public Service has been supporting employees to give to charitable organizations through PECSF, since 1965. Empowering employees to make a positive contribution to the quality of life of the citizens we serve. For us, PECSF is a vital part of the BC Public Service culture of social responsibility and giving. In more recent history, volunteering with PECSF has become one of the more identifiable employee development programs available. Employees are put in the driver's seat as they craft Ministry-specific Campaigns, developing valuable leadership, accounting, and coaching skills along the way. The recent workforce engagement survey backs this approach up, as the results demonstrated that a majority of our employees put a high value on giving and volunteer programs. And a more engaged workforce and higher levels of workplace satisfaction are directly linkable to programs like PECSF.

PECSF Campaign 2018 saw a record increase in dollars raised and in employees volunteering. But executive support is an integral part, and I'm so glad to hear that as a senior leader in government, you understand and support your team. In 2019 as we work our way through the next few months leading to Campaign 2019 we are collecting stories to promote and share. I'm wondering whether you would be interested in drafting up a blog to be shared out to BC Public Servants across the province.

Some suggested content would be to:

- share a bit about yourself;
- why you think supporting charitable organizations is important, and
- why you encourage and support your staff to get involved.

Happy to discuss more if you're interested. Thanks again for all your support and leadership in Campaign 2018!

Gillian

Subject: Executive Message from Lori Halls for Managers and Supervisors: New HR Investigations & Discipline Course

New HR Investigations & Discipline Course

As a supervisor or manager you play an important part of our ongoing efforts to strengthen a culture of ethics and integrity in the BC Public Service. To further support you in that role, we are introducing a new training course intended to help you respond effectively to allegations of workplace misconduct and understand the steps involved in disciplinary decision-making.

As a supervisor or manager, there may come a time in your public service career when you receive an allegation of misconduct against an employee and you need to determine whether they engaged in misconduct. In such instances, it's very important that you understand your role, your ministry's role and the role of the BC Public Service Agency.

Why is this important?

It is essential that representatives of the employer respond promptly and appropriately to allegations of misconduct. This will ensure an employee's rights are protected and they are treated fairly throughout the investigation and decision-making processes.

What's happening?

A new learning course – HR Investigations & Discipline – is now available for all supervisors and managers to help you better understand the investigation and discipline processes. The course is available online through the Learning Centre and takes approximately 30-60 minutes to complete.

The new course provides clarity on roles and responsibilities, the investigation process and the steps taken during the disciplinary decision-making phase that follows the completion of an investigation.

More information

There is also a wealth of information on MyHR on this topic. To learn more about the steps to follow when you receive allegations of misconduct, including the process for conducting human resource investigations, and disciplinary decision-making, visit the MyHR website. Please also contact MyHR if you have questions about the course or related information.

I encourage all of you to take the new course and review the available information on MyHR.

Thank you,

Lori Halls
Deputy Minister
BC Public Service Agency

Good Afternoon,

I am pleased to announce that Jason Butler, CPA, CGA, will be joining our Ministry on February 4, 2019 as our new Executive Director and Chief Financial Officer, Corporate Financial and Facilities Services Branch within the Corporate Services Division.

Jason comes to us from the Finance and Corporate Services Division with the Ministry of Health where he serves as Executive Director and Chief Financial Officer, Finance and Decision Support Branch. Since joining the BC Public Service in 2007, Jason has had the opportunity to work in a number of ministries and immediately prior to his time at Health he worked in Government Communications and Public Engagement as the Executive Director, Financial Corporate Services and as an Analyst with Treasury Board Staff.

This is really a homecoming for Jason, that he is excited about, having worked in the Corporate Financial and Facilities Services Branch as a Budget Analyst more than 10 years ago.

Please take a few moments to drop by and introduce yourself to Jason and welcome him back to the Ministry.

I would also like to extend a big thank you to Dawn Ngo and the CFFS team for their support over the past few months

Hello All

We are hopping to start the 3rd phase wall this Saturday. This would involve loading and storage of some materials starting Thursday or Friday then framing and boarding on the Saturday followed by a taper coming in throughout the week (during off hours if required).
Painting ASAP after wall completion.

Your thoughts?

I conveyed to Amber N. your view regarding her suggestion that both the NWT and YK Premiers join PJH at a luncheon on Jan 28.

She came back to me after talking to Geoff (who supports the idea) and asked whether we could work this out with both jurisdictions.

I believe you have a call tomorrow morning with your counterpart in the Yukon. Could you raise it with her on that call. Thanks

Amber also gave me the specifics:

Luncheon:
Monday, January 28th – 12:15 – 1:30pm
BOTANIST: Fairmont Pacific Rim, 1038 Canada Place

Hi Okenge,

Happy holidays to you too!

We will action that. We are also currently preparing two briefing notes for the Premier's meetings with the Mayor of Vancouver and the Mayor of Surrey respectively. And as well we just provided a BN to MJD to support a discussion with the Minister of Health Canada <sup>s.22</sup> All that to say I think we have lots of material to draw on and there certainly are requests that can be made of the federal government.

Good Afternoon,

Thank you for this invitation, Minister Ralston seems very interested in attending.

From my understanding, Minister Ralston and Consul General, Tong Xiaoling talked at an event this weekend and Tong had asked Minister Ralston to speak at this upcoming event on Friday, January 25. Minister Ralston has another event that he is attending and speaking at this evening as well, so I am looking to see what the agenda and outline for the event looks like right now and what time Minister Ralston would be speaking at and for how long.

if possible, closing remarks would be much appreciated.

Thank you very much,

Subject: FOR ACTION: 2019-20 International Travel Plan
Importance: High

Good Morning and Happy New Year:

Our Ministry has again been asked to coordinate a schedule of potential international travel across government. As such, we would request that Ministries submit any anticipated plans for Minister and Deputy Minister international travel for the 2019-20 fiscal year.

We would appreciate if you would identify a contact that will lead coordination of your ministry's response by January 18. As well, that you ensure that your ministry's submission includes all potential overseas and USA travel, and outlines how the travel will advance your Ministry's mandate letter directives and strategic program priorities. Please include Crown Agencies under your purview in your submission.

Grateful if your team could submit your Ministry's travel plans using the attached template and provide this information to Maureen Yelovatz, Director, Missions and Events at Maureen.Yelovatz@gov.bc.ca by Friday, January 18, 2019. If you do not anticipate any international travel during the 2019-20 fiscal year, please respond by indicating "No International Travel Planned".

Information will be treated as confidential and will be included in the government-wide annual mission plan that will be submitted to Minister Bruce Ralston.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me or Maureen Yelovatz. Thank you for your support of this initiative.

Best,

Fazil Mihar
Deputy Minister

Subject: Diversity and Inclusion Survey

Dear colleagues -

As you're aware, in addition to the Work Environment Survey, the BC Public Service Agency periodically conducts in-depth, focused employee research to help better understand priority topics. This year's survey topic is diversity and inclusion, in support of the Diversity and Inclusion Action Plan and commitments made in the Where Ideas Work corporate plan.

A Diversity and Inclusion survey, developed in consultation with key stakeholder groups and conducted by BC Stats, will be sent to all employees the week of January 31. It runs for three weeks and takes 25-30 minutes to complete. The data gathered from the survey will drive action plans and priorities for the future, so it is important we get as much feedback as possible.

Reflecting the importance government has put on enhancing diversity and inclusion in the BC Public Service, please actively encourage your employees to complete the survey. To assist with your ministry communications and encourage participation, template emails are attached for deputy ministers to personalize and send to your supervisors and employees. These templates are also shared with your ministry communications lead(s).

We appreciate that this survey may touch on some issues of great sensitivity for some employees. Please note, by law, we are unable to investigate any specific bullying, harassment or inclusion issues employees identify via their survey responses. Employees can access the Respectful Workplace resources on MyHR or launch a formal complaint. This information will be provided in the message to employees, as well as in the survey itself.

We expect to share the survey's corporate-level results in April 2019. You will get access to ministry-specific results via a web-based portal in May.

Thank you for your support.

Lori Halls
Deputy Minister
BC Public Service Agency

Subject: FOR ACTION: Diversity and Inclusion Survey

Dear Team:

This week, all BC Public Service employees will receive an invitation to complete the 2019 Diversity and Inclusion survey. BC Stats will conduct this survey on behalf of the BC Public Service Agency. The survey closes on February 22 and takes approximately 25 to 30 minutes to complete.

Survey responses will inform future policies, programs and strategies, including the Diversity and Inclusion strategy for the BC Public Service. Corporate results will be available in April 2019, and ministry-specific results in May.

Your role

The survey invitation and reminders will come from BC Stats.

But as a supervisor, it's important to encourage your team members to participate in this initiative. The more people take part, the more accurate the feedback will be.

Consider:

- Mentioning the survey at your regular check-ins.
- Adding a note about the survey to your team's shared calendar or sharing a calendar invite.
- Sending out a periodic email or Lync/Skype reminders to complete the survey.

Confidentiality

Employees might come to you with concerns about confidentiality. Let them know their survey responses are completely confidential. By law, this information cannot link back to them in any way.

This also means we cannot investigate any problematic behaviours they disclose in their survey response. These behaviours will not be reported to MyHR or their employer. The survey states employees are to discuss any issues with their supervisor or MyHR if they have experienced problematic behaviour.

Supervisor Supports

Employees may come to you with respectful workplace complaints because of the survey. There are resources available to support you if this happens.

Visit MyHR for:

- Promoting Respect in the Workplace
- Facilitating the Conversation About Respectful Workplaces

There is also a full list of resources for supporting respectful workplaces on @Work.

Questions

If employees come to you with questions about the survey, please direct them to:

- @Work
- MyHR
- BC Stats

For technical questions, consult the BC Stats Technical Guide. If you don't find an answer, email BC Stats or call 1.888.447.4427.

Thank you for your ongoing commitment to making our organization more diverse and inclusive.

It is with mixed emotions that I am writing to advise that I will be leaving the BC Public Service Agency to become the Deputy Minister, Emergency Management BC. This change takes effect immediately and is part of a larger set of changes among Deputy Minister portfolios. For more details on those, please see the attached note from Don Wright, Deputy Minister to the Premier, Head of the BC Public Service, and Cabinet Secretary.

Okenge Yuma Morisho will become the Deputy Minister for the BC Public Service Agency. As a colleague, I have thoroughly enjoyed working alongside of Okenge these past few years. His passion for the public service, his integrity and his commitment to developing talent make him ideally suited for this role. I know he's excited to join the Agency. You'll have a chance to meet him first hand at tomorrow's All Agency Live Meeting – where he will have a chance to tell you more about himself as part of our "Inside the Executive Studio" segment.

It probably comes as no surprise to many of you that I am "excitedly apprehensive" about my new role. With each transition comes the opportunity to learn and with this particular transition an opportunity to make a direct difference in the lives of British Columbians. As someone whose family members have been impacted by the recent wildfire seasons, it will be a privilege to serve in this capacity.

These past 3.5 years at the Agency have absolutely flown by. I am incredibly proud of the accomplishments the Agency has achieved and while I will miss the work, most importantly I will miss the people. I could not ask for a better executive team and truly appreciate the day to day support I've received from the Deputy Minister's Office staff. I am going to miss the enthusiasm and energy staff from across the Agency bring to their portfolios. The priorities of government cannot be achieved without the capacity, capability and commitment within the BC Public Service, and the Agency plays a key role in helping Ministries to build a healthy, thriving workforce. I know you will keep up the great work and please know that I will continue to be the Agency's biggest champion. Thank you so much for the laughs, the lessons and the support. I wish you all the best.

Lori

BC PUBLIC SERVICE AGENCY | EXECUTIVE UPDATE

To: All BC Public Service Agency Employees
From: Lori Halls, Deputy Minister
Subject: Executive Changes
Date: Tuesday, January 29, 2019

It is with mixed emotions that I am writing to advise that I will be leaving the BC Public Service Agency to become the Deputy Minister, Emergency Management BC. This change takes effect immediately and is part of a larger set of changes among Deputy Minister portfolios. For more details on those, please see the attached note from Don Wright, Deputy Minister to the Premier, Head of the BC Public Service, and Cabinet Secretary.

Okenge Yuma Morisho will become the Deputy Minister for the BC Public Service Agency. As a colleague, I have thoroughly enjoyed working alongside of Okenge these past few years. His passion for the public service, his integrity and his commitment to developing talent make him ideally suited for this role. I know he's excited to join the Agency. You'll have a chance to meet him first hand at tomorrow's All Agency Live Meeting – where he will have a chance to tell you more about himself as part of our "Inside the Executive Studio" segment.

It probably comes as no surprise to many of you that I am "excitedly apprehensive" about my new role. With each transition comes the opportunity to learn and with this particular transition an opportunity to make a direct difference in the lives of British Columbians. As someone whose family members have been impacted by the recent wildfire seasons, it will be a privilege to serve in this capacity.

These past 3.5 years at the Agency have absolutely flown by. I am incredibly proud of the accomplishments the Agency has achieved and while I will miss the work, most importantly I will miss the people. I could not ask for a better executive team and truly appreciate the day to day support I've received from the Deputy Minister's Office staff. I am going to miss the enthusiasm and energy staff from across the Agency bring to their portfolios. The priorities of government cannot be achieved without the capacity, capability and commitment within the BC Public Service, and the Agency plays a key role in helping ministries to build a healthy, thriving workforce. I know you will keep up the great work and please know that I will continue to be the Agency's biggest champion. Thank you so much for the laughs, the lessons and the support. I wish you all the best.

Lori

Subject: Executive Changes

Hi All,

I am writing to let you know that, effective today, there will be a number of executive changes in the Public Service.

Lori Halls will become the Deputy Minister of Emergency Management BC filling the vacancy created with Becky Denlinger's retirement. As the last two years have demonstrated, we need to build out our capacity to deal with substantial major emergencies as almost the regular course of business. Lori's previous operational experience and her tenure as Deputy Minister of the Public Service Agency have provided her with the right experience for this task.

Okenge Yuma Morisho will become the Deputy Minister of the Public Service Agency, where I expect his strong personal commitment to growing employees' capabilities and careers will become an asset for the entire Public Service.

Bobbi Plecas will become the Deputy Minister of Intergovernmental Relations. Bobbi and her team did a stellar job working with Dave, Fazil and others in pulling together the Clean BC Plan. As that Plan moves into the implementation phase, I want to use Bobbi's talents on other important files. Climate change initiatives will require significant support from the federal government, so Bobbi will remain connected to Clean BC implementation. She will also continue to lead the province's strategic discussions with BCBC in relation to the Low-Carbon Economy MOU that we signed with them in November.

Mark Zacharias will assume Deputy Minister responsibility for the climate change portfolio going forward, with Jeremy Hewitt appointed as Assistant Deputy Minister to lead our implementation efforts.

As part of our ongoing succession efforts, I am pleased to announce that Shauna Brouwer will become Deputy Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture. Shauna led our recent engagement with the film sector and brings a finance background that will be important to projects like the Royal BC Museum and other key TAC priorities.

Joining the BC Public Service on March 4, 2019 as Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing will be Kaye Krishna. Kaye comes to us most recently from her role as General Manager, City of Vancouver, Development, Buildings and Licensing where she has played a key role in Vancouver's housing strategy, and has had regulatory oversight for development, short term rentals, ride-share and legalization of cannabis.

Tara Faganello will be acting Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing until Kaye joins us.

Changes at the Deputy Minister level are never made lightly, and I recognize the impact these decisions can have on an organization. These decisions weigh even heavier when they result in executives leaving the organization. With that in mind, it is with mixed emotions that I advise that Jacquie Dawes and Sandra Carroll will be leaving the Public Service. With more than 27 and 31 years of public service respectively, both Jacquie and Sandra have made significant contributions to enhance the lives of British Columbians. They have been valuable members of our corporate executive team, taking seriously their responsibility to develop future leaders in the organization. While Jacquie and Sandra are leaving the Public Service, I encourage those who know them and value them as mentors, colleagues and friends, to continue those important relationships. We sincerely wish both Jacquie and Sandra well in their future endeavours.

Please join me in thanking Sandra and Jacquie for their contributions to the citizens of BC as they leave government service. Please also join me in congratulating Lori, Okenge, Bobbi, Shauna and Jeremy on their new assignments and in welcoming Kaye to the BC Public Service.

Don

Hi, Okenge. I was just this week thinking I should reach out to connect with you and IGRS about LNG Canada. Instead I am happy to pass along my sincere congratulations with your new deputy position!

I enjoy thinking and talking about public service and leadership, and have worked in a number of ministries and three different sectors, so please don't hesitate to reach out if you need anything or want to bounce something off.

All the best in your new role.

Subject: Executive Changes

Hi All,

I am writing to let you know that, effective today, there will be a number of executive changes in the Public Service.

Lori Halls will become the Deputy Minister of Emergency Management BC filling the vacancy created with Becky Denlinger's retirement. As the last two years have demonstrated, we need to build out our capacity to deal with substantial major emergencies as almost the regular course of business. Lori's previous operational experience and her tenure as Deputy Minister of the Public Service Agency have provided her with the right experience for this task.

Okenge Yuma Morisho will become the Deputy Minister of the Public Service Agency, where I expect his strong personal commitment to growing employees' capabilities and careers will become an asset for the entire Public Service.

Bobbi Plecas will become the Deputy Minister of Intergovernmental Relations. Bobbi and her team did a stellar job working with Dave, Fazil and others in pulling together the Clean BC Plan. As that Plan moves into the implementation phase, I want to use Bobbi's talents on other important files. Climate change initiatives will require significant support from the federal government, so Bobbi will remain connected to Clean BC implementation. She will also continue to lead the province's strategic discussions with BCBC in relation to the Low-Carbon Economy MOU that we signed with them in November.

Mark Zacharias will assume Deputy Minister responsibility for the climate change portfolio going forward, with Jeremy Hewitt appointed as Assistant Deputy Minister to lead our implementation efforts.

As part of our ongoing succession efforts, I am pleased to announce that Shauna Brouwer will become Deputy Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture. Shauna led our recent engagement with the film sector and brings a finance background that will be important to projects like the Royal BC Museum and other key TAC priorities.

Joining the BC Public Service on March 4, 2019 as Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing will be Kaye Krishna. Kaye comes to us most recently from her role as General Manager, City of Vancouver, Development, Buildings and Licensing where she has played a key role in Vancouver's housing strategy, and has had regulatory oversight for development, short term rentals, ride-share and legalization of cannabis.

Tara Faganello will be acting Deputy Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing until Kaye joins us.

Changes at the Deputy Minister level are never made lightly, and I recognize the impact these decisions can have on an organization. These decisions weigh even heavier when they result in executives leaving the organization. With that in mind, it is with mixed emotions that I advise that Jacquie Dawes and Sandra Carroll will be leaving the Public Service. With more than 27 and 31 years of public service respectively, both Jacquie and Sandra have made significant contributions to enhance the lives of British Columbians. They have been valuable members of our corporate executive team, taking seriously their responsibility to develop future leaders in the organization. While Jacquie and Sandra are leaving the Public Service, I encourage those who know them and value them as mentors, colleagues and friends, to continue those important relationships. We sincerely wish both Jacquie and Sandra well in their future endeavours.

Please join me in thanking Sandra and Jacquie for their contributions to the citizens of BC as they leave government service. Please also join me in congratulating Lori, Okenge, Bobbi, Shauna and Jeremy on their new assignments and in welcoming Kaye to the BC Public Service.

Don

Dear Colleagues,

Today, the Deputy Minister to the Premier and head of the B.C. Public Service announced some executive changes effective immediately. I am writing to let you know I have been appointed Deputy Minister of the B.C. Public Service Agency.

Ms. Bobbi Plecas is the new Deputy Minister for Intergovernmental Relations. Bobbi is an experienced, and widely respected public servant who has most recently served as Deputy Minister for Climate Change in the B.C. Ministry of Environment and Climate Change Strategies. She has previously served as an Associate Deputy Minister in the Office of the Premier, in the Ministry of Advanced Education and the Ministry of Citizens' Services.

It has been my honour to work closely with you over the past 18 months. Although my new functions are not likely to call for a high degree of intergovernmental interactions, I do hope our paths will cross again in the future.

Bobbi will soon be in contact with you as she assumes her new responsibilities.

Yours sincerely,

Okenge Yuma Morisho

Hi Okenge,

It has been a while! I just wanted to express a "congratulations!!" for taking on the Deputy Minister role with the BC Public Service Agency.

Having co-led a review of an Integrated Talent Management system on behalf of the BC PSA, and a separate review exploring issues of succession as well as knowledge management for the BC Policing and Security Branch, I have some appreciation for the scope along with critical importance of your new mandate. 😊

Cheers,

Dear Colleagues:

Today, the Deputy Minister to the Premier and head of the B.C. Public Service announced some executive changes effective immediately. I am writing to let you know I have been appointed Deputy Minister of the B.C. Public Service Agency.

Ms. Bobbi Plecas is the new Deputy Minister for Intergovernmental Relations. Bobbi is an experienced, and widely respected public servant who has most recently served as Deputy Minister for Climate Change in the B.C. Ministry of Environment and Climate Change Strategies. She has previously served as an Associate Deputy Minister in the Office of the Premier, in the Ministry of Advanced Education and the Ministry of Citizens' Services.

It has been my honour to work closely with you over the past 18 months. Although my new functions are not likely to call for a high degree of intergovernmental interactions, I do hope our paths will cross again in the future.

Bobbi will soon be in contact with you as she assumes her new responsibilities.
