PJH has asked the answer to the party list question be on paper for him. Bob's proposed answer is this:

Every MLA will be elected by voters. Political parties will not appoint MLAs to the legislature.

There will be a list of candidates for voters to choose from. Some of those candidates on that list will be from political parties. Like we have no candidates will need to be formally nominated with 200 (whatever the number is) signatures from registered voters in the region that are contesting.

Can this (or a reiteration) be added to his issues scan and his PR binder?

Hi Jen,

The Early Edition would like to invite Premier John Horgan to be a part of our Food Bank Day show on December 7th. It'll be at our downtown Vancouver studio at 700 Hamilton Street.

Last year, we raised a record-breaking $802,000 for food banks across B.C. It's a great cause and a fun time (compelling guests, live musical performances, live audience).

This year, our theme is "In the Midst of Plenty," and we're really hoping the Premier can join us for a 3-4-minute interview with our host Stephen Quinn, likely sometime between 7 a.m. and 8:30 a.m. (I'll confirm the exact time at a later day)

We always encourage our guests to offer an incentive gift--usually a unique experience or good that can be "auctioned" off for a given price, to encourage people to give. We aim for gifts/experiences that people usually can't buy, so in past years, we've had guests give away an enticing experience (eg. tickets to something), or cooking classes, hand-made luxury goods, a year's supply of beer/wine, etc. Last year, NDP MLA Melanie Mark canvassed the businesses in her riding, and came up with two gift baskets--one went for $900, the other for $245.

Please let me know if the Premier can be available December 7th.

I'm at 604-662-6114.

Dear Premier Horgan, I left a voice message explaining the following:
The Richmond Sentinel is a not-for-profit community newspaper in the city of Richmond BC.

The Referendum is the topic of conversation these days with everyone.
We are a multi-culture community. Most Voters do not understand the options and many want to know if they will get into trouble if they don't fill out the Referendum form and mail it back.

So we have decided to offer you or your representative (preferably you) the opportunity to explain the Referendum and what it will mean to the NDP Party and to British Columbia.

Date - Tuesday, November 13, 2018

Time - 1:00 p.m. to 2:00 p.m.

Location - Richmond, BC

- Meeting Room to be confirmed

The Format:

- We will film the ``fireside chat`` to air on The Richmond Sentinel`s Website and Youtube Channel and cover it in our Newspaper.
- We can Link the interview to the NDP Party`s Website (if you choose).
- This is not a public forum. We are offering the same opportunity to the Leaders of the Green Party & Liberal Party.
- Each Party Leader will be interviewed in a separate meeting allowing equal opportunity to share their views.
- The Interviewer is a TV professional who has interviewed VIPs all over the world.
- The production company are professionals that film & stream worldwide.
- If you have questions that you want to provide the Interviewer with, we`d be agreeable to review.

We hope that you will be available to accept our invitation so we can finalize the meeting.

Regards

Florence Gordon, Sr. Advisor

Subject: Horgan interview

Hi all,

I've been brainstorming about stories we could do on PR in the coming days/weeks that actually clarifies and elevates our debate above the total nonsense that is out there.

One idea is expanding on the premier's comments the other day that he doesn't support the closed-list MMP. That is, in a lot of people's minds, a real drawback of MMP. It's the most commonly used system and it has had a lot of success, but tell people that one option is to have parties appoint lists you can't vote upon stacked full of people who win without getting votes, and the public starts to write the whole thing off.

So, I'm putting it out there that if the premier wants to do an interview and expand on if and how he could take closed list MMP off the table should PR pass, I'm receptive to that and there'd be a lot of interest in the paper to publish it.

It would be our privilege if we could receive from you again this year some year-end thoughts.

Ideally these pieces would run about 600 words and identify some important themes, elements, and trends in the province that you believe matter most to those here. Some prescriptions are also welcomed as part of the expression of your insights.

I'd like to get these from you by Dec. 10, and as per usual, there is a mystery prize for early submissions.

Please let me know this week if you are interested in contributing, and many thanks in advance for your assistance.

Hi Sheena,

I'm reaching out on behalf of the CKNW Kids' Fund to invite the Premier to join us as a guest for the 41st Annual CKNW Kids' Fund Pledge Day.

On Tuesday December 4th, CKNW radio will broadcast live from the rooftop room of the Fairmont Hotel Vancouver from 5:30 am to 7:00 pm. The goal of the day is to raise funds for the CKNW Kids' Fund – a children's charity that provides grants to improve the lives of BC children living with special needs. Pledge Day is our single biggest fundraiser of the year, allowing the Kids' Fund to help thousands of families throughout the following year.

The broadcast itself will feature families the Kids' Fund has helped, and will host a broader conversation about the importance of philanthropy and why giving back should be part of an organization's culture. Each year some of the most influential philanthropists in Vancouver appear as guests on the day in hopes to inspire listeners to give generously and get involved in their community. Over 150 guests will attend, including Vancouver's highest profile CEOs, philanthropists, community leaders and individuals striving to make a positive difference.

Let me know if the Premier is able to join us – happy to discuss further if you have any questions.

Warmest regards,
Alan.

Good day Premier Horgan

Normally I would go through media relations but I could not find a contact number for your office and the person on the main media line was unable to take my call and suggested I send a text message.

I am a reporter with the Salmon Arm Observer and am doing a story with the Shuswap Children's Association, which I am hoping to post tonight or early tomorrow - the issue has just this afternoon come to my attention.

The association is currently holding a hopefully lucrative fundraising event because they simply do not have enough funds.

In the past six years, the association has received only a 14 per cent increase in funding from the Ministry of Children and Family with which to provide a large array of programs.

In that same time, 34 per cent more children are getting service and they are finding more children are arriving at their doorstep with complex needs - i.e. need more than one service - the delivery of multiple services has gone up by 46 per cent.

The province funds only 15 hours a week each for a physical and an occupational therapist – for children under six years of age in the entire Shuswap region.

One of the therapists is providing service to 43 children and the other has 47 children. And they each have 15 to 18 children waiting for service.

These funds must be directed to salaries, but heat, light and rent continue to climb so operational costs are soaring as well.

Salmon Arm has recently become a welcome recipient of $3 million to build 71 affordable housing units and I am simply wondering if your government has plans to increase funding to places like the Children's Association as research apparently indicates every one dollar spent on children before they hit school age, saves $10 later on.

thank you

Barb Brouwer

Hey guys!

The year-end interview requests are starting to trickle in so I thought it would be good if we connected on the schedule for it.

I have the following held in PJHs calendar:

Vancouver: Dec 4th – 10:00 to 1:00

Victoria: Dec 12th – 1:00 to 4:00

Victoria: Dec 13th – 12:30 to 4:00

The only interview that has been fully booked is with Ding Guo for Omni at 10:00 on the 4th.

Richard Zussman would like to do a colour piece (fun backdrop but still interview questions) on the 12th. We thought it may be fun for the two of them to be making Christmas cookies during the interview. This one we could probably bring our own camera to as well.

Here is the list of Year-end interviews I've brainstormed. I am hoping for some ideas on the Vancouver side:

Good day Premier Horgan

Normally I would go through media relations but I could not find a contact number for your office and the person on the main media line was unable to take my call and suggested I send a text message.

I am a reporter with the Salmon Arm Observer and am doing a story with the Shuswap Children's Association, which I am hoping to post tonight or early tomorrow - the issue has just this afternoon come to my attention.

The association is currently holding a hopefully lucrative fundraising event because they simply do not have enough funds.

In the past six years, the association has received only a 14 per cent increase in funding from the Ministry of Children and Family with which to provide a large array of programs.

In that same time, 34 per cent more children are getting service and they are finding more children are arriving at their doorstep with complex needs - i.e. need more than one service - the delivery of multiple services has gone up by 46 per cent.

The province funds only 15 hours a week each for a physical and an occupational therapist – for children under six years of age in the entire Shuswap region.

One of the therapists is providing service to 43 children and the other has 47 children. And they each have 15 to 18 children waiting for service.

These funds must be directed to salaries, but heat, light and rent continue to climb so operational costs are soaring as well.

Salmon Arm has recently become a welcome recipient of $3 million to build 71 affordable housing units and I am simply wondering if your government has plans to increase funding to places like the Children's Association as research apparently indicates every one dollar spent on children before they hit school age, saves $10 later on.

thank you

Barb Brouwer

Hey guys,

I spoke with Richard late last week and here are the two options:

- 1) Facebook live with questions from viewers. Would be shared on all Global platforms
- 2) Focus BC which Global is trying to revamp as their political show. That week will be hosted by Richard with only questions from him (not viewers). It would be for 8-16 minutes in their new office studio. Would be shared on same platforms as Facebook live.

Im leaning towards Focus BC only because its shorter, will look better for sharing, and it is questions from Richard. Do you agree or would you rather Facebook live. Let me know as we need to book soon!

Michael D'Alimonte here from CTV's Power Play.

As we approach the end of 2018, our host, Don Martin, has named Premier Horgan the “Power Player of the Year.”

With that, we would love to have the Premier on the show to discuss his year-long efforts for British Columbia and Canada.

The segment could occur any day from Dec. 17 to Dec. 20, live on the show or a pre-tape interview.

If there is a date that works best for Premier Horgan, let me know and we can coordinate from there.

Thanks and talk soon.

Hello all,

Since the session and the year is quickly drawing to a close, I would like to start some groundwork on the Premier's visit to SA media outlets in December/January as previously discussed.

I would like him to visit the following stations and newspaper offices

1. RJ 1200 Shushma Dutts' afternoon show. They are friendly media and Shushma Dutt personally made this request to the Premier at a gala in Surrey recently. Their annual raise your hands against racism begins in mid January and the Premier could coordinate his visit with the kicking off of this campaign.
2. RED FM – A visit with the station's owners and an appearance on Harjinder Thind show.
3. Meeting with Rattan Mall- Indo Canadian Voice. The Premier promised over a year ago that he will visit the offices of Indo-Canadian Voice.
4. An in studio interview with Omni Punjabi.
5. And if possible, a round table with the print media.

Subject: URGENT: CBC Early Edition interview request

Hi Jen and Sheena,

Could the premier join us on The Early Edition tomorrow at 7:10 a.m. to discuss the situation at the BC legislature? It would be in the public's interest to hear from him on our show.

My deadline is 3 p.m. today. You can reach me at 604-662-6463.

Thanks,

Claudia

Everyone deserves a safe, affordable place to call home.

After years of inaction, the housing crisis in B.C. has left too many people unable to find an affordable home to rent or buy. And some can't find a home at all. It comes up daily in my conversations with people.

It is hurting owners and renters. It is hurting businesses who need workers. It is forcing people out of communities. It affects new parents, students, people in the workforce and seniors on pensions.

It's a problem that was ignored for years by the previous government, and allowed to fester. It's a crisis that never should have started in the first place.

For people who are going through difficult times in their lives – like struggling to find employment or dealing with an illness – the housing crisis is even more challenging, and too often results in homelessness. And no one should ever experience homelessness.

Earlier this year, I visited Haisla Territory, near Kitimat. If a child gets lost in the woods there, people mobilize instantly. Phone trees are called, search parties are formed and the community comes together with speed and selflessness to help their most vulnerable.

I believe this is how our government should react to helping B.C.'s most vulnerable – and we are doing just that.

Our first budget as government included the largest investment in housing in B.C. history – with more than $7 billion going into communities over 10 years. Our 30-point plan to take action on the housing crisis will give people a break from skyrocketing housing costs around B.C. and help those without a home at all.

Shortly after forming government, Selina Robinson, the Minister for Municipal Affairs and Housing, launched the 'Rapid Response to Homelessness' program and started securing sites for supportive modular housing across B.C.

In just 12 months, we are set to open more than 4,500 supportive homes throughout the province, with round the clock support for residents. Housing, access to education and mental health and addictions services are all part of the solution to the housing crisis. When people have a roof over their heads and real services offered to them, they are able to shift their focus from surviving day to day, to actually thriving. Every person deserves the chance to rebuild their life.

Last week, we announced 4,900 new, affordable mixed-income rental homes in 42 communities across the province. This new housing is the first to be delivered through the Building BC: Community Housing Fund, which will deliver 14,000 affordable rental homes for seniors, families and low- and middle-income earners in B.C.

Our Housing Hub has already approved hundreds of affordable market rentals, which are being built in partnerships with private businesses, faith groups, non-profits and municipal governments. And, as part of our goal to increase the affordable rental supply, we gave municipalities the power to zone for rental housing.

We've also created 12 new transition housing projects that will provide 280 safe new homes for women and children fleeing violence and abuse. Everyone should feel safe in their own home, and given the opportunity to survive, thrive and get ahead. We are committed to supporting vulnerable women get the help they need. Always.

And for the first time in Canadian history, a province has taken steps, together with Indigenous leaders, to directly address the housing needs of Indigenous peoples, both on and off reserve.

Years of inaction on the B.C. housing crisis has left too many people unable to find affordable housing, and often no housing at all. Our government is taking care of our most vulnerable, while also taking action to tackle supply, curb demand and make sure everyone has a safe place to call home.

When we take care of people, we are taking care of our communities, we are taking care of our families and we are building a better province for everyone.

Today, on National Housing Day, I commit to continuing to deliver safe, secure and affordable housing for everyone in B.C.

Hi Kate,

Yes, it will be great if the Premier calls in to the radiothon. The best times for him to make this call would be between 8:00 AM-11:00 am (Mr. Thind on the helm then) or 4pm-6:00 pm (Prime Time). But if he can't make it, then calling in at any time would be wonderful as well. RED FM tells me that because of the volume of the calls, it might not be possible to get through, so the best would be for them to call at a predetermined time on a number provided. I will be happy to coordinate if you let me know what time he would be available to make this call.

He could congratulate the community on the occasion of the birth anniversary of Guru Nanak, founder of Sikh religion. This year is the 550th birth anniversary of Guru Nanak. He could also congratulate Red FM for their annual radiothon, which funds for Surrey Memorial Hospital Foundation, and other causes (Alberta wildfires, Haiti earthquake etc). Till date Red has raised over $8 million, and majority of these funds have benefited Surrey Memorial Hospital. Funds raised from this year's radiothon will go towards the coronary care centre at SMH.

Hello all,

RED FM is organizing its annual radiothon on the occasion of Gurpurab (Guru Nanak- Sikhism's first Guru and founder of the faith's birthday) on Friday Nov 23. All donations will go towards the coronary care centre at Surrey Memorial Hospital . In the past years a number of our MLAs and the Premier have called in to support this radiothon and the hospital. Calling in and supporting this radiothon which has raised over $8 million for the hospital in in the last 12 years is supporting Surrey and therefore MLAs and the Premier (if possible) should call in this year as well.

Hi Geoff and Amber –

Don, Kate and I spoke this morning about FNLG staffing. Based on the lessons from the last FNLG, our recommendations take into consider the learnings from our last gathering. Our hope is that both Geoff and Amber aren't tied up in meetings the entire time, so they can manage any issues coming out of Minister meetings. Amber, for now, we have you as being able to be more flexible.

Our recommendation is the following:

- s.13

We also suggest scribes in all meetings from the Ministry so notes are guaranteed.

All feedback most welcome/appreciated.

Subject: First Ministers Meeting - Dec 6+7

Hi All,

I've learned that the First Minister Meeting will go much longer than originally confirmed. Here's the schedule as I currently have it:

December 6th – 5:30pm

The Prime Minister will invite Premiers to a private dinner the evening of Thursday, December 6 – beginning at 5:30pm. Additional details on this event will be provided as soon as they are available.

December 7th – 8am -5pm

On Friday, December 7, 2018, the Prime Minister will first meet with the leaders of the National Indigenous Organizations for a discussion on economic growth for Indigenous Peoples.

The Prime Minister will then invite premiers to join him and the leaders of the National Indigenous Organizations for a discussion on the participation of Indigenous Peoples in the economy.

Once these meetings have concluded, the First Ministers' Meeting will begin.

The FMM will run from 10am – 4pm, Followed by a press conference.

All events will conclude at about 5pm.

Flight options:

There is a 6:30pm Air Canada flight leaving that day. (Which may be really tight)

AC 309H 07DEC F Montreal to Vancouver 630P 900P

AC8081H 07DEC F Vancouver to Victoria 955P 1025P

Or a 8pm Air Canada to Vancouver.

Or a 7:20am next day straight to Victoria.

Please let me know what is preferred and I'll ask for changes to our existing flights and accommodations.

Hi All,

Attached are three images of the gathering room, which will be used for the childcare announcement at 12:15pm.

For this, we will be able to put the childcare branding on the tv's there and will have a choir of 20 8/9 year olds joining the Ministers, so it will do a lot to take away from the old boys' club feel of the space. If it is just the Premier standing alone, that would not be the case as much. We could definitely still use it though, very easily. There is also the lobby of the library, shown in the fourth photo, with the book tree. When I inquired about the Childcare event, the library said we could not use the lobby because the tree was there. If it is just the Premier standing there, it could be possible, but of course the media would overwhelm the entire lobby area. I can ask them if that is what we want to do. Let me know.

And there is always the press theatre.

I wouldn't mind at least getting a few screens designed and seeing how they look in a tight shot in the gathering room.

Thanks
Rick

Hello Jen,

I was wondering if the premier would be available any time this or next week to do an interview with Al Ferraby.

There have been several announcements this week that we would be interested in talking to him about, including the ride-hailing legislation, and the plan to have all vehicles sold in B.C. to be 100 per cent electric by 2040.

If he's available, the times we do interviews are at 6:50, 7:20, 8:20, or 8:50.

All would be for a 6-7 minute interview, with no open lines. He would just be chatting with the host.

Please let me know if the premier has any availability in his schedule.

Thanks,

Hi again,

Could premier Horgan join us on The Early Edition tomorrow (Tuesday, November 27th) for a 6 to 8 minute live radio interview with Stephen Quinn at 7:40 a.m.?

We'd like to discuss the situation at the BC legislature.

My deadline is 2:30 p.m. today.

You can reach me at 604-662-6463.

Thanks,

Claudia

Subject: CKNW Kids' Fund Pledge Day

Hi Sheena,
I'm reaching out on behalf of the CKNW Kids' Fund to invite the Premier to join us as a guest for the 41st Annual CKNW Kids' Fund Pledge Day.

On Tuesday December 4th, CKNW radio will broadcast live from the rooftop room of the Fairmont Hotel Vancouver from 5:30 am to 7:00 pm. The goal of the day is to raise funds for the CKNW Kids' Fund – a children's charity that provides grants to improve the lives of BC children living with special needs. Pledge Day is our single biggest fundraiser of the year, allowing the Kids' Fund to help thousands of families throughout the following year.

The broadcast itself will feature families the Kids' Fund has helped, and will host a broader conversation about the importance of philanthropy and why giving back should be part of an organization's culture. Each year some of the most influential philanthropists in Vancouver appear as guests on the day in hopes to inspire listeners to give generously and get involved in their community. Over 150 guests will attend, including Vancouver's highest profile CEOs, philanthropists, community leaders and individuals striving to make a positive difference.

Let me know if the Premier is able to join us – happy to discuss further if you have any questions.

Warmest regards,
Alan.

Hi Sheena,

Michael here from Power Play following up.

As I outlined in my original email, we would love to have Premier Horgan on one day between Dec 17-20 to be profiled on our "Power Player of the Year" segment.

Basically, this is a lookback at the accomplishments of prominent Canadian political figures.

Don Martin, our host, specifically asked for Premier Horgan to be featured.

The interview can be live or pre-taped one day that week. We can gladly book the nearest CTV studio depending on the Premier's location.

Let me know when would work best and feel free to call me <sup>s.22</sup> with any other questions.

Thanks!

Hi Sheena,

Is there any way John Horgan could make it to our CBC Victoria studio for the interview?

Let me know.

Thanks,

Hi Claudine,

Tomorrow will not work for the Premier, also noting there is not much the Premier can say on this investigation.

However I am setting up year end interviews with radio for this Friday, and have time available between 7:30 and 8:00 for one segment with Stephen. Will that work?

Hi again,

Could premier Horgan join us on The Early Edition tomorrow (Tuesday, November 27th) for a 6 to 8 minute live radio interview with Stephen Quinn at 7:40 a.m.?

We'd like to discuss the situation at the BC legislature.

My deadline is 2:30 p.m. today.

You can reach me at 604-662-6463.

Thanks,

Claudia

Good Evening Sheena,
As part of a Government-wide UPGRADE, your computer is scheduled to receive the new Office 2016 (O365) suite of applications which has many new features.

NO email or calendar or mailbox information will be affected by this.

- The upgrade takes some time to do and IF POSSIBLE need the computer on the government network overnight to download the install files
- A team member from PREMTECH will assist you once the update is complete at a convenient time. This would most likely take no more than ½ an hour
- We would like to schedule a convenient times in the next 2 weeks to do this (starting after November 28th)
- Please advise if there is an evening where the PC can be left online overnight in the office, and a time the next day PREMTECH can come assist with any settings and configuration at a time that works for you.

To advise on a few dates & times that work for you (after November 28th) OR any questions or concerns please contact us @: prem.tech@gov.bc.ca

Hi Jen,
Dan Fonda from CPAC here. We were wondering if the Premier might be interested in speaking with us next week at the Premiers' Conference in Montreal following the closing news conference . Looking for no more than 5 minutes. One-on-one with our host Peter Van Dusen
We will be setup for double-enders at the conference.
Interested? Available?
Could you let us know?
