Hi Jen,

Not sure if you're working on another Massey story, but one thing I noticed was that no one has really asked the question about tolling. The previous government's plan for the 10-lane bridge was to toll it. The minister hasn't really been asked much about toll options for the future Massey crossing. If you're interested in this angle, I'm sure I can get you something from the minister.

Let me know. Cheers!

It would be a year-end interview about the big stories in BC politics this year, with a particular focus on local issues in Greater Victoria, and his riding in particular.

Hi Mia,
I've had to push things back in the schedule a little bit. I hope 5:15pm works for you.

At this point we've just got you setting up in the Premier's Office for the interview, but if you're looking for something a bit more visually on topic, we could into that as well.

Cheers,

Dear Premier Horgan,

I hope this email finds you and your office well.

My name is Mia Gordon and I am the videographer and reporter in B.C. for the Weather Network.

The reason for this email is we are working on a story about the province's plan to phase out none electric cars and the announcement regarding Clean BC.

We would love to get the word out and remind BC residents that we can work together to help the planet.

We are hoping to complete the interview before the holiday's if there is time, however if that doesn't allow in your schedule, we are also open to the New Year, we just feel this is a great time for BC and want to spread the word.

I look forward to speaking with you further,

Thank you,

Sincerely,

Mia

Jen,

With the year wrapping up, I'm reaching out to arrange a year end interview with Premier John Horgan. I'm trying to find a date to do multiple interviews with various political leaders around the region.

Could you please send me a couple dates that work for the Premier? Right now I have multiple interviews on the morning of Friday Dec. 14 and would have everything ready for him when he arrives.

Ideally we'd like to have him come down to our City TV television studio (180 W 2nd Ave, Vancouver) for a pre-taped on-camera interview. It would include a look over the last year, and hopes for 2019.

Thank you.

Hello Ms. Holmwood,

I'm a Producer with CBC News Network in Toronto. We're following the lead up to the first ministers meeting tomorrow and will be watching any developments closely. We're wondering if Premier Horgan would be available to join us on our national TV news program this Saturday (Dec. 8) to chat about the meeting?

Our host would be in Toronto, and we could connect through one of our CBC studios or over Skype/FaceTime. The chat would last around 6-7 minutes. The timing is very flexible.

Feel free to call me on my cell at 647-544-7195.

Thanks, and hope to talk soon.

Hello,

I hope you are doing well.

My name is Herrmann Kaur and I'm writing from Toronto on behalf of the CBC's (Canadian Broadcasting Corporation) 24-hour television news channel, CBC News Network. I specifically work for our morning newscast, which airs between 6 am ET and 10 am ET, hosted by Heather Hiscox.

We are hoping Premier John Horgan may be able to join us for a live television interview on December 6 (Thursday) any time between 6 am ET and 10 am ET in regards to the first ministers meeting.

In terms of the format, this live television interview can be in our CBC Studio (depending on Premier John Horgan's location), via Skype or FaceTime and will be approximately 5-7 minutes in length.

I would like to discuss this with you further.

I can be reached at (+1) 416 205 6389 or via email.

Please REPLY-ALL to this email as my colleague, Sonya Velez, will be assisting me.

Hi Michael,

To answer your questions:

- The technical briefing for media will go over specifics of the climate plan. It will be conducted by senior ministry officials. They will answer media questions not for attribution.
- The announcement will be the official launch of the plan to media and guests by the premier, Andrew Weaver and the ministers.
- The Q/A after is where the premier and ministers will take media questions for attribution. You will need to stay through the announcement to ask questions.
- They all take place in the same building, in rooms next to each other.

Cheers,
Jen

Hello Jen,

My name is Michael Ruffolo and I am a reporter with National Observer.

I will be attending the technical briefing tomorrow where Premier Horgan will announce the province's low-carbon and climate plan.

I just wanted some clarification on the times of everything and what I should be attending.

At 11am the technical briefing occurs, this is for media and is embargoed.

At noon is the official announcement. Is this just a repeat of what was said at 11am? Or will something different occur here?

Then afterwards there is a Q&A? This Q&A will take place at the same location as the official announcement? Will there be no Q&A after the technical briefing? Will I have to stay until the end of the official announcement in order to participate in the Q&A?

Thank you for clearing all this up!

Sincerely,
Michael Ruffolo

Hey,
Sorry to ask for this, but do you have access to the audio from the Horgan scrum in the legislature library at the end of session?
I recorded it on my new podcast recorder and... it did not turn out well.
I wanted to pull a couple clips from it for this week's podcast, but I'd need clean audio. Something from the microphone feed.
The good quality stuff (if it's too large someone could WeTransfer it to me or send me a google or dropbox link).
Thanks,

Hello,

I wanted to pass on the details for an important announcement the British Columbia Government is making tomorrow on our Climate Strategy. I will also forward the news release and materials following the event. It may be possible to arrange an interview with Premier Horgan and Green Party Leader Andrew Weaver if you are interested as well.

Regards,

Jen Holmwood, Deputy Communications Director

Hey,
Sorry to ask for this, but do you have access to the audio from the Horgan scrum in the legislature library at the end of session?
I recorded it on my new podcast recorder and... it did not turn out well.
I wanted to pull a couple clips from it for this week's podcast, but I'd need clean audio. Something from the microphone feed.
The good quality stuff (if it's too large someone could WeTransfer it to me or send me a google or dropbox link).
Thanks,
Rob

Hi Katya,
The tech briefing and announcement are tomorrow. There is no dial-in for that portion of the day. Media are welcome to attend in person in Vancouver or Victoria.
Cheers,
Jen

Hi Jen – do you know if there will be a dial in for the tech briefing portion of today’s presser with Premier Horgan, Andrew Weaver and Ministers Heyman + Mungall?

Thanks
