Hi Don,

Hope you are well. This email is a follow up to invitations sent out for the Premiere and yourself to attend a launch event for the International Year of the Salmon. Salmon Beyond Borders, Watershed Watch and Skeenawild Conservation Trust will host this event at the Fortune Gallery, and we would very much like for you to attend.

Please find, attached, an invitation for this event on March 5th.

This is an invitation-only event: attendees for this event will include various British Columbia legislators, members of the Victoria municipality, and salmon-related organizations and representatives throughout the province, who will all be in Victoria for session and annual meetings at this time.

In addition, the following morning, the gallery will be open for a public, informal, information session at 10 am. Coffee and tea will be provided.

Please let me know if you have any questions,

Hi Don,

Hope you're doing well.

I have heard through the grapevine that you are looking to do an announcement on this in mid-March with the Premier, Min. Popham and Min. Wilkinson.

s.13;s.16

Not sure if you are the right person for this question, but could you also clarify the process for treasury board on your end? I am not entirely clear as to when this will be through all of the checks on your side required to announce.

Thanks!

Okay with this as a proposed response? Brent Jang just called to say he's filing another story today, so he's looking for this in a hurry.

Proposed statement from Ministry of Indigenous Relations and Reconciliation:

Wet'suwet'en governance structure is an internal matter for the Nation to speak to. It is not for government to speak for the Nation. It is up to each Nation themselves to decide who speaks for their Nation, and how those decisions are made internally. Our government remains committed to moving forward with reconciliation with the Wet'suwet'en.

Thanks
Sarah.

Deadline Today

Request

What are the B.C. NDP government's plans, if any, to meet with the Wet'suwet'en Matrilineal Coalition?

I am wondering whether Scott Fraser and/or John Horgan have any plans to meet with WMC?

Gloria George, Theresa Tait-Day and Darlene Glaim are the original WMC directors, and they told me that the Office of the Wet'suwet'en and hereditary chiefs have shunned them for supporting Coastal GasLink (the three Wet'suwet'en women have been stripped of their hereditary titles, according to Unist'ot'en supporters).

WMC wrote a letter to the Premier dated Sept. 17, 2018, to introduce the group, and asked for a meeting with the Premier in the spirit of collaboration.

What is the status of that?

Can we pull up the response to that letter?

The previous BC Liberal government recognized the three women as genuine Wet'suwet'en Nation hereditary leaders, but I am wondering whether the BC NDP government also sees them as legitimate hereditary leaders or not?

Can the B.C. government comment on the latest filings by Michael Lee Ross, who includes an affidavit by Warner Naziel and I have a copy of that affidavit. Mr. Naziel seeks to discredit the Wet'suwet'en Matrilineal Coalition (WMC), and I am wondering whether the B.C. NDP government recognizes WMC as a legitimate group? The previous BC Liberal government and John Rustad recognized WMC as legitimate.

Warner Naziel and others seeking to discredit WMC note that it received $30,000 each from CGL and the previous BC Liberal government.

What funding did the B.C. government (current and previous) and CGL provide to the Office of the Wet'suwet'en and Dark House?

Hi again – just got off the phone with David. We can consider this response approved by both ministries. Don or Liam, can one of you send it on up the chain to whoever else should review before we consider it final?

Proposed Response:

- We can confirm the previous government provided $30,000 to support for the Wet'suwet'en Matrilineal Coalition (WMC).
- The coalition still exists today. They are incorporated federally and the details are available online here.
- We recommend you connect with the WMC directly to confirm current membership.

Thanks,

queries

Hi David and FYI Sarah,

What is the current status of the Wet'suwet'en
Matrilineal Coalition, which received $30,000
in funding from each of the previous BC Liberal government and
Coastal GasLink?

I am told that Gloria
George, Theresa Tait-
Day and Darlene Glaim
are still directors (Darlene temporarily stepped down in 2017).

They told me that the coalition still exists and has not been dismantled. Could you confirm?

Also, who are the other directors? (At one point, there were two others, including Herb Naziel, if I recall).

I have finished a draft of my upcoming story. It is now scheduled to be posted online on Sunday and published in Monday's Globe print edition (though that could change if there is breaking news that bumps my story).

For now, I would need your response by noon PT on Saturday, though this afternoon would be better.

I could insert your details tomorrow, but I will be filing my story for editing late this afternoon to get the ball rolling on the editing process.

I see that the BC NDP government's Indigenous Relations Minister Scott Fraser met in May, 2018, with Wet'suwet'en hereditary chiefs, but those meetings did not include the three women that I noted above due to a rift within the hereditary clans.

The previous BC Liberal government recognized
Gloria, Theresa and Darlene in their hereditary roles as recently as the spring of 2017.

Yes, we should proceed with scheduling FNLC and CCR as quickly as possible.

Correct, we did not meet with Takla in PG. PJH expressed disappointment and is willing to meet with them at a future date.

Yes, we should explore going to Sts'ailes. We can bundle it with meetings with Sto:lo Tribal Council or a visit to the Mission Friendship Centre?

If it is not too late, please add me as the PO contact for the Modern Treaty Alliance.

I seen a comprehensive letter of response from Citizen Services to the Ahousaht. I am attaching it for your ease of reference.

Hi Don,

I sent you an email over the holidays about FNLG follow up's, but I should have saved up all my questions! I've got them all below, please let me know the answers so I can finalize these letters. Kate, Amber and Mira, there may be answers you may also be able to fill in so please feel free if you can.

- Ahousaht - there was an action for you to follow up on their concerns with cell service in the community. In the letter do you want me to name you as the person following up? Or Citizen Services.
- Modern Treaty Alliance – PJH committed to having a contact in the PO for them. PJH advised potentially you but that we would get back to them. Is this you? If not, who should I say in the letter? They have also written in a follow up letter (attached) – so the quicker we can get this one out the better.
- BCAFN – PJH committed to a meeting with FNLC & CCR. I think there are some differing opinions on this. Do you want me to include it in the follow up letter as one of the commitments?
- Takla – PJH committed to meeting them at the PG forum. Do you know if he did?
- PJH committed to going to Sts'ailes. I'll put it in the follow up letter but this is something for you guys to keep on your radar.

Thanks,

Subject: Budget speech invites

Hey Kelly,

Thanks so much for reaching out. Call me if you have questions on the below. I'm copying Mira Oreck here, is there is some considerable overlap with First Nation political organization invites. Mira will have all the contact info for these folks.

First, there is the list of who MIRR strongly recommends be on the floor of the Leg :

- 1) Grand Chief Ed John from the First Nations Summit
- 2) Grand Chief Stewart Phillip from the Union of BC Indian Chiefs
- 3) Regional Chief Terry Teegee from the BC AFN

Then there is the remaining 5 from the executives:

- 1) Summit: Cheryl Casimer; Robert Phillips
- 2) UBCIC: Chief Bob Chamberlin; Kupki7 Judy Wilson

Next, there are the Gaming Commissioners that need invites. Their contact information for the below are in the document attached:

- 1) Judith Sayers
- 2) Kathryn Teneese
- 3) Nolan Charles
- 4) Thomas Konek

Finally, there are four staff from the First Nations Gaming Commission we also hope can be added (contact info attached)

- 1) Lorraine Johnson
- 2) Bob Johnson
- 3) Pauline Terbasket
- 4) Charlotte Armstrong

If possible, can you let all these people know that our Communications Director, Sarah Plank, will be in touch with further information about further plans for the day?

Hi Maureen,

Due to the minority position of this government, when the Legislature is in session (Mon-Thurs) leave is generally not granted. Especially when travel outside of Victoria/Vancouver is required. Fridays are constituency days.

The best way to get him to an assembly or meeting is to send the invitation as early as possible. Follow up with a call from RCTT personally inviting him and offering flexibility of time.

I checked the calendar and March 8 is International Women's Day. It looks like he is speaking at an event.

I will check tomorrow with the Office and you will receive a formal response from the Office soon.

Hi Don,

I hope you are well – it was a pleasure to meet you recently in Prince George. You should be hearing from our CAO, Heather Avison regarding the meetings suggested by Premier Horgan.

On another note, Mr. Weaver has made some bold comments at two events now, most recently the Round Up Conference in Vancouver – he suggests that a Tesla plant makes sense for Terrace. Our Council has picked up on this statement and would not have thought much about it, but he has indeed said it publicly again. I'd like to ask whether there may be an opportunity to pose the question to Mr. Weaver's staff whether or not he has had any discussions with Tesla about our 2400 acre Skeena Industrial Park and whether he thinks an introduction to the company should be made to our City staff?

An odd question to pose, but we would appreciate any assistance the Premier's Office can provide in this matter.
