Hello,

Could I ask for some rush research assistance?

Saskatchewan recently announced legislative amendments offering 5 days paid leave to victims of domestic and sexual violence who require time off from work. <https://www.theglobeandmail.com/canada/article-saskatchewan-introduces-five-day-paid-leave-for-domestic-violence-2/>

New Brunswick does the same: <https://www.newswire.ca/news-releases/new-brunswick-announces-five-days-paid-domestic-violence-leave-686945201.html>

What are the legislative rules in every province?

If possible, by mid day. If not, let me know and I will cancel request.

Many thanks,

Nice to “meet” you all, apologies for my delayed follow up to Jon’s note.

I would be happy to discuss communications around the TOR/OIC. I understand you will be issuing a News Release, so we were planning to hold on issuing one of our own until later this week when we have the final TOR, and a process has been established. If we could get a copy of yours before it gets issued, that would be great.
