Good morning, Manjit,
Hello again. I'm sending you this email to seek your kind assistance in setting up meetings between Consul General Tong and Deputy Premier, Minister of Finance, Hon. Carole James, and Lucy.

Consul General Tong will be in Victoria on May 15 for an event in the evening. I'm wondering if Hon. James and/or Lucy will be available in late morning or afternoon on that day?

As you know, CG has not yet met with Hon. James officially since she took office as the Consul General because of the busy schedule of both sides. It would be great if the meeting can happen this time. The meeting with Lucy would be to exchange ideas about some upcoming events held by our office.

Thank you for your kind assistance.

Madam Xiaoling Tong
Consul General of China

Dear Consul General:

The Office of Protocol of British Columbia (B.C.) is pleased to inform B.C. based heads of career consular posts, about planning currently underway in cooperation with Global Affairs Canada for the Heads of Mission economic mission, which will take place from Sunday, September 29 to Wednesday, October 2, 2019. We invite heads of B.C. career consular posts to participate in the economic mission and save the dates.

The aim of this economic mission is to provide participants with an in-depth understanding of how B.C. contributes to Canada's economic well-being as well as what it has on offer to other countries. The three-day visit will provide an occasion for participants to tour parts of Southern Vancouver Island and the Lower Mainland, including stops in Victoria and Vancouver, and explore opportunities across multiple sectors, including clean technology and energy, aerospace, forest products, sustainable seafood and digital technology.

It will also include an evening reception hosted by the Honourable Janet Austin, the Lieutenant Governor of B.C., and the Honourable John Horgan, Premier. The B.C. Minister of Jobs, Trade and Technology, the Honourable Bruce Ralston, will also be involved in various components of the mission as well as business and community leaders.

In cooperation with Global Affairs Canada, a detailed program will be prepared and shared with you in due course.

In addition to saving the date, we would be grateful if you would please signal to us your interest in participating in this year's mission, by FRIDAY, JULY 5.

For your information, these details regarding the Economic Mission have been sent out to Heads of Mission by Global Affairs Canada.

Thank you,

Good afternoon Xintao,

Thank you for the update regarding the upcoming Chinese National Day events. I can reach out to the Lieutenant Governor's Office regarding the viability of September 20th in Vancouver. In regards to the Premier for September 24th, it is unlikely that he will be in Victoria to attend as the Union Of BC Municipalities convention is taking place in Vancouver that week and his presence will most likely be required there.

Although I cannot confirm the availability of either at this point, it may be more feasible to invite the Premier to the Sept. 20th event and the LG for Sept. 24th.

Good afternoon, Manjit,

Hope you are doing well.

We are preparing for events to celebrate the 70th anniversary of the founding the People's Republic of China. As CG mentioned during her last meeting with Lucy, CG will hold two big functions, eg. Dinner Reception in Vancouver at Westin Bayshore Hotel on Sept. 20 and a reception in Victoria at the Fairmont Empress Hotel on the evening of Sept. 24.

We would like to invite the Honourable Janet Austin, Lieutenant Governor and His Honourable Ashley Chester to the Dinner reception on Sept. 20 and invite Hon. Premier John Horgan as the Guest of honors to the reception on Sept. 24.

We would like to seek kind advice from your office about the arrangements. Looking forward to hearing from you soon.
