Sorry to ask this but I was wondering if we can move this meeting to 4pm/ I don't want MLA Olsen to have to wait around and it look likes cabinet will need to run a little longer that day.

Let me know if that's ok.

Hi Chris and Jarrett. FYI Judy Rendek in MLA Weaver's office didn't have Nov 25 @ 3:45 noted in Andrew's calendar. That may have changed since yesterday, but wanted to flag.

Thanks,

Hi Donna,
We are setting up another meeting with the Innovation Commissioner and would like to confirm Andrew Weaver, MLA. The meeting is set for Monday, November 25 at 3:45 pm in the PO. And would MLA Weaver be coming to the pre-brief at 3:30 pm?
How do I confirm with his office and is there anyone else who will attend this meeting? Yourself?
Thanks for letting me know,
Chris

Hi Jarrett,

Unfortunately Andrew is on the mainland on the 9th, but he's around the rest of that week and has a fair bit of flexibility if any other dates might work for the Premier's schedule?

Thanks,

Sarah

Hi Judy,

I was wondering if Dr. Weaver is around on September 9th. Some things may be changing so we may be able to meet that day instead of the 18th.

Thanks so much!

Thank you for adding Adam's name. We ask for the inclusion of the CASA language, or some similar reference to the collaboration between gov and the BC Green Caucus as being part of this process.

Previously agreed upon CASA language:

A commitment to adopting the UN Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples in B.C. is a component of the Confidence and Supply Agreement between the B.C. Green Caucus and the BC NDP government. In 2017, every Cabinet minister in the provincial government was tasked with a mandate to implement the UN Declaration and the Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Calls to Action.

Ministry of Indigenous Relations and Reconciliation
First Nations Leadership Council

Joint statement on Indigenous human rights now provincial law

VICTORIA - Scott Fraser, Minister of Indigenous Relations and Reconciliation; Regional Chief Terry Teegee, BC Assembly of First Nations; Cheryl Casimer, First Nations Summit; and Grand Chief Stewart Phillip, Union of BC Indian Chiefs, Adam Olsen, MLA for Saanich North and the Islands and Member of Tsartlip First Nation, issued the following joint statement:

"Today, we have made history. British Columbia is the first province in Canada to enshrine the human rights of Indigenous peoples in law. Bill 41, the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Act, passed unanimously on November 26, 2019.

"The legislation establishes the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples as the foundational framework for reconciliation in B.C., as called for by the Truth and Reconciliation Commission. The provincial government developed Bill 41 in collaboration with the First Nations Leadership Council, which was acting on the direction of First Nations leaders across the province.

"This legislation advances a path forward to true reconciliation for all of us in B.C. that will uphold Indigenous rights and create stronger communities, stable jobs, and economic growth.

"It is time we recognize and safeguard Indigenous peoples' human rights, so that we may finally move away from conflict, drawn-out court cases, and uncertainty, and move forward with collaboration and respect. Ensuring that Indigenous peoples are part of the policy-making and decision-making processes that affect them, their families, and their territories is how we will create more certainty and opportunity for Indigenous peoples, B.C. businesses, communities and families everywhere.

"Any future changes to bring provincial laws into harmony with the UN Declaration will be done in consultation and collaboration with Indigenous peoples, with opportunities for engagement with local governments and stakeholders such as business and industry. Changes won't happen overnight – this will be a gradual, step-by-step process over time.

"The development of an action plan – in collaboration with Indigenous peoples – with regular reporting to monitor progress will provide a transparent and accountable path forward on reconciliation in B.C.

"Working together, we have made significant progress in the past two years and seen critical advancements with affordable housing, child welfare, language revitalization and revenue sharing. This legislation will help us build upon this progress and make a real, meaningful difference in the lives of Indigenous families and everyone in B.C.”
