CANADIAN ALLIANCE OF CHINESE ASSOCIATIONS

About CACA

Canadian Alliance of Chinese Associations (CACA) was established in 2008 to help raise funds to support Wenchuan Earthquake Relief in Sichuan China. It has now become an alliance of over 130 Chinese associations. Its mandates are: unity, mutual assistance, dedication, and prosperous. It is now one of the most active Chinese Alliance organizations, its member associations are composed of mostly new immigrants from mainland China. In recent years, CACA has organized lots of influential events in promoting multicultural, encouraging mutual communications and interactions between Canada and China in economic and cultural aspects.

Over the past 11 years, CACA has raised funds for local charities, e.g. Barkerville Historic Town and Park Chinese cemetery repair project. It has supported both national and international major disaster relief events, e.g. Nepal Earthquake Relief, Japan earthquake tsunami, etc. In the McMurray fire relief, CACA successfully collected more than $270,000 donations. For 2017 BC fire relief again collected more than 130 thousand dollars. In July 2019, CACA has organized a charity golf tournament, raised around $40,000CAD for Burnaby Hospital Foundation.

CACA also played an important role to encourage Chinese communities to involve in political affairs and elections. Encourage Chinese communities to voice out for their opinions and suggestions, to promote voting turnout in all three level government elections.

Looking forward, CACA will continue to support local community development and promote multicultural, continue to help new immigrants and response to worldwide emergency events. CACA will further encourage unity and harmony between brother associations and will accept more associations to join the Alliance.

Hi Stephanie and Naveen,

Great minds think alike as I was also planning to drop a follow up note today on the question of the next CCCAC meeting. After you two have had a chat, I can follow up with the co-chairs and then to the committee to set this up. I guess we need to contemplate whether we have a CCCAC meeting leading into the call with the Premier on May 15 – or have the PJH call separately with a full CCCAC at a separate time?

I'll stand by to hear what is decided.

Thanks

Paul

Hi everyone,

This is something I've discussed in PO for the Premier to do, as well. This can be a follow up to the Premier's call last month and perhaps include the MAC membership, too.

Stephanie, are you free for a chat this afternoon?

Thinking of landing it on March 15th but we're flexible on date.

Hi Paul and Naveen,

I hope you are both keeping well. I apologize for the late reply, and thank you Paul for taking the initiative to reach out to the co-chairs.

Minister Chow and I had some thoughts for the next CCCAC meeting. Given the rise in racially-motivated crimes targeted at members in the Chinese community, Minister Chow feels strongly that we should call a meeting with the advisory committee to provide space for government to listen and solicit advice on how to address this concerning issue. He'd like to have this meeting during the week of May 18th, via videoconferencing, with Minister Kang and PS Kahlon.

Can we schedule a planning meeting with Minister Chow this week to discuss the details? I can reach out to PS Kahlon and Minister Kang to canvass their availability.

Best,

Stephanie

Hi Naveen and Stephanie,

Hope you are both doing well. I see that the appointment letter for Ms Shumei Liu has been signed by the Premier today. In the near future, I was planning to coordinate with co-chairs Bill Yee and Winnie Lee to touch base with Ms Liu for a bit of an orientation to the Committee's work to date, etc. I just want to confirm this course of action with you – and to check if you wish to be involved.

I'm presently working to obtain signed indemnity forms from all of the committee members – and will send them out an update on COVID-19 support services, particularly where available in Chinese.

Finally – any thought on the next CCCAC meeting? Perhaps a virtual meeting?

Best regards,

Paul
