Hi folks,

Tomorrow we will be introducing two bills from finance – Real Estate Services and Landowner Transparency Act. Currently we only have one more bill on our agenda and are very likely to wrap that up tomorrow. House Leader will have more to say on the schedule for tomorrow in the morning caucus meeting. There is a possible motion being called and moved that we will need speakers from our side. More to come, stay tuned.
As always, if you have any questions, please reach out.

Hi folks,

Excellent work today speaking to our legislation and keeping the debate relevant and interesting in the House. We will have continued debate on bill 8 and 7 again tomorrow – see schedule below.

Bill 7 will be the main piece of legislation tomorrow and we are looking for speakers to round off the day and into Thursday.

Couple other items to note:

MLA Mark will be giving a speech to the house in the afternoon

Ministerial Statement from Minister Rankin is set for the afternoon

Following the news today from Tseshaht First Nation regarding the residential school grave discovery at the former Alberni residential school and the Williams Lake First Nation’s recent update in January we will be recognizing these Caretaker Communities as they undertake the solemn responsibilities to locate those who were left behind.
