Good afternoon – here is the correspondence report of the weekly top items from the past week:

Topic	Explanatory Note	Total received
Bill 44 Rentals/ Changes in Stratas	Correspondence expressing opposition to the legislation and the changes allowing stratas to have rentals and concern about age restrictions being lifted. Most express they understand the need for housing but are concerned about how changes will impact current living situations and creating issues for strata councils. NOTE – we have received a large volume of emails on this issue (800+) since the original announcement.	12
Victoria Cannabis Buyer Club and Community Safety Unit	Correspondence in response to recent enforcement actions taken by the Community Safety Unit at the Victoria Cannabis Buyers Club. Incomings express opposition and disappointment.	13
RCMP's Community Industry Response Group (C-IRG) Raid on Wet'suwet'en Territory	Correspondence from the public in response to 5 arrests that took place recently in the Wet'suwet'en. Majority of the incomings request immediate release and express opposition of the RCMP's actions.	20

Note: we often receive form letters on these topics as well, which are not included in these numbers.

Thank you,
