About the International Student Program Compliance Regime

The compliance reporting process is the first step to the compliance regime, which allows IRCC to identify study permit holders who may be in potential non-compliance with their study permit conditions by obtaining their current enrollment status through their post-secondary DLIs.

Compliance reporting does not confirm non-compliance for individual cases. IRCC must conduct investigations on cases that are identified as potentially non-compliant to rule out certain scenarios that are not captured through DLI reports, such as:

- The student has changed DLI and not informed IRCC. In this case, they may have appeared on the wrong DLI's report
- The student has left Canada or changed their status
- The DLI has reported in error/inaccurately on the student
- Other exceptional circumstances or administrative errors

The following study permit holders are subject to compliance reporting by their DLI:

- are currently studying in Canada at the post-secondary level at a designated learning institution,
- have applied for a study permit as of June 1, 2014,
- are enrolled in a program of study of at least six months in duration.

The following study permit holders are excluded from the scope of the compliance regime:

- All students at the primary and secondary level
- Post-secondary students in Quebec
- Study permit holders that are exempted from both the requirement to enroll and remain enrolled at a designated learning institution until they complete their studies, and to actively pursue their course or program of study under R220.1\(1\)

Reporting on the enrollment status of study permit holders is part of the designation criteria and/or requirements for Canadian institutions, established through Memoranda of Understanding (MOU) between IRCC and provinces and territories, excluding Québec. IRCC coordinates the designation process of Canadian institutions. Provinces and territories have the authority to designate or de-designate an institution. Compliance reporting participation may contribute to determining whether a DLI should be designated to host international students.

Glossary of enrolment statuses and definitions

*As of February 2019

Academic break (regularly scheduled break)

The student is on a regularly scheduled break between academic sessions (such as summer holidays) as determined by your institution.

Academic suspension

The student is suspended from your institution due to poor academic performance or violation of the institution's policies. The student is allowed to return after the period of suspension.

Authorized leave

The student has formally requested and been approved to be temporarily absent from your institution, for reasons including:

- medical or maternity leave
- family emergency
- death of a friend or family member
- change of study program within the same institution
- any other type of leave where your institution has formally authorized it for the student.

Deferred enrolment

The student is registered at your institution, but isn't currently studying, because their program start date has been postponed. The delayed start date must have been:

- set by your institution or
- requested by the student and approved by your institution.

Full-time studies

The student is registered at your institution and enrolled in a program of study. Each institution determines the minimum course load required for a student to be considered as having full-time status. This minimum can include a CO-OP work placement.

No longer registered/enrolled

Your institution sent the student a letter of admission, but they're no longer registered or enrolled because they have:

- been dismissed
- withdrawn voluntarily
- transferred to another institution

This status should not be used for students who are academically suspended.

No show

Your institution sent the student a letter of acceptance, and they should be enrolled, but they:

- never confirmed acceptance
- registered, but never attended class
- registered, presented themselves to class, but stopped attending without notifying the school

Not started

The student is registered at your institution and is enrolled in a program of study that begins the following semester. They haven't yet started their studies.

This status shouldn't be used for students whose start dates have been deferred. See deferred enrolment.

Part-time studies

The student is registered at your institution and is enrolled in a program of study. Each institution determines the minimum course load required for a student to be considered as having part-time status. This minimum can include a CO-OP work placement.

Program/degree completed

Your institution sent a formal confirmation to the student that they completed their study program and will receive their degree, diploma or certificate.

The student has completed the study program and is waiting for formal confirmation that they completed their degree, diploma or certificate.

Unknown/no record

Your institution doesn't have a record of a letter of acceptance issued to this person, or any record of this person being enrolled in your institution.

Remarques:

- Les données sont des estimations préliminaires et sont donc sujettes à changement.
- Les données sont uniquement approuvées aux fins d'usage interne de votre gouvernement.
- Un étudiant dont le permis d'études est expiré ne fera pas l'objet d'un compte rendu.

À propos du régime de conformité du Programme des étudiants étrangers

Le processus de production des rapports de conformité constitue la première étape du régime de conformité, qui permet à IRCC de détecter les titulaires de permis d'études qui pourraient potentiellement ne pas respecter les conditions de leur permis d'études, et ce, en obtenant leur statut d'inscription actuel auprès de leur EED de niveau postsecondaire.

Les rapports de conformité ne permettent pas de confirmer la non-conformité d'un cas donné.

IRCC doit mener une enquête à l'égard des cas qui pourraient être non conformes afin d'exclure certains scénarios qui ne sont pas pris en compte dans les rapports des EED, dont les suivants :

- l'étudiant a changé d'EED et n'en a pas informé IRCC. Dans ce cas, il est possible que son nom figure dans le mauvais rapport d'EED;
- l'étudiant a quitté le Canada ou a changé son statut;
- le rapport de l'EED est erroné ou inexact par rapport à l'étudiant;
- il s'agit d'autres circonstances exceptionnelles ou d'erreurs administratives.

Les titulaires de permis d'études suivants sont visés par les rapports de conformité de leur EED :

- les personnes qui étudient actuellement au Canada dans un établissement d'enseignement désigné de niveau postsecondaire;
- les personnes qui ont présenté une demande de permis d'études le 1^{er} juin 2014 ou après cette date;
- les étudiants qui sont inscrits dans un programme d'études d'une durée d'au moins six (6) mois.

Les titulaires de permis d'études suivants sont exclus de la portée du régime de conformité :

- tous les élèves du primaire et du secondaire;
- les étudiants de niveau postsecondaire au Québec;
- les titulaires de permis d'études qui sont dispensés de l'obligation d'être inscrits dans un établissement d'enseignement désigné et de demeurer inscrits jusqu'à ce qu'ils terminent leurs études, et de l'obligation de suivre activement leur cours ou leur programme d'études aux termes du R220.1\(1\).

La production de rapports sur le statut d'inscription des titulaires de permis d'études fait partie des critères de désignation et des exigences pour les établissements canadiens, selon les modalités établies dans le cadre du protocole d'entente (PE) entre IRCC et les provinces et territoires, exception faite du Québec. IRCC coordonne le processus de désignation des établissements canadiens. Les provinces et les territoires peuvent désigner un établissement ou révoquer sa désignation. La participation à la production de rapports de conformité peut contribuer à déterminer si un EED devrait être désigné aux fins d'accueil d'étudiants étrangers.

Glossaire des statuts d'inscription

*À partir de février 2019

Congé autorisé

L'étudiant a officiellement demandé et obtenu l'approbation de s'absenter temporairement de votre établissement, pour des raisons qui comprennent les suivantes :

- congé de maladie ou de maternité;
- urgence familiale;
- décès d'un ami ou d'un membre de la famille;
- changement de programme d'études au sein du même établissement d'enseignement;
- tout autre type de congé autorisé officiellement par votre établissement pour l'étudiant.

Congé scolaire (congé régulier prévu)

L'étudiant est en congé régulier prévu entre deux sessions (p. ex. vacances d'été), tel que déterminé par votre établissement.

Défaut de se présenter

Votre établissement a envoyé une lettre d'acceptation à l'étudiant, et il devrait être inscrit, mais il :

- N'a jamais confirmé qu'il acceptait;
- Est inscrit, mais n'a jamais assisté à ses cours;
- Est inscrit, s'est présenté en classe, mais a cessé d'assister aux cours sans en aviser l'école.

Études à temps partiel

L'étudiant est inscrit dans votre établissement et à un programme d'études. Chaque établissement détermine le nombre minimum d'heures de cours exigées pour qu'un étudiant soit considéré comme ayant un statut à temps partiel. Ce minimum peut inclure un stage coopératif en milieu de travail.

Études à temps plein

L'étudiant est inscrit dans votre établissement et à un programme d'études. Chaque établissement détermine le nombre minimum d'heures de cours exigées pour qu'un étudiant soit considéré comme ayant un statut à temps plein. Ce minimum peut inclure un stage coopératif en milieu de travail.

Inconnu/aucun dossier

Votre établissement n'a pas de dossier indiquant qu'une lettre d'acceptation aurait été délivrée à cette personne ou que cette personne est inscrite dans votre établissement.

Ce statut ne devrait pas être utilisé pour les étudiants qui ont reçu une lettre d'acceptation mais n'ont pas confirmé ou répondu à l'offre.

Inscription différée

L'étudiant est inscrit dans votre établissement, mais n'étudie pas actuellement parce que la date de début de son programme a été différée. La date de début différée doit avoir été :

- Fixée par votre établissement; ou
- Demandée par l'étudiant et approuvée par votre établissement.

Non commencé

L'étudiant est inscrit dans votre établissement et il est inscrit à un programme d'études qui débute le semestre prochain. Il n'a pas encore commencé ses études.

Ce statut ne devrait pas être utilisé pour les étudiants dont la date de début a été différée.

Voir inscription différée.

Plus inscrit

Votre établissement a envoyé une lettre d'admission à l'étudiant, mais il n'est plus inscrit parce qu'il :

- A été renvoyé;
- S'est retiré de lui-même;
- A été transféré dans un autre établissement.
- Ce statut ne devrait pas être utilisé pour les étudiants qui font l'objet d'une suspension académique.

Programme terminé/diplôme obtenu

Votre établissement a formellement confirmé à l'étudiant qu'il a terminé son programme d'études et obtenu son diplôme ou son certificat.

L'étudiant a terminé le programme d'études et attend la confirmation formelle de l'obtention de son diplôme ou de son certificat.

Suspension académique

L'étudiant est suspendu de votre établissement en raison de mauvais résultats scolaires ou d'une infraction aux politiques de l'établissement. L'étudiant est autorisé à revenir après la période de suspension.
