Hi Leah,

Thanks for checking. I don't forward JAG web mails to the MO for action, unless it is addressed to the Minister. s.22
s. 22 is a frequent writer for JAG regarding s. 22 concerns - Justice Services Branch has filed their copy. If your branch can respond to this new issue, I will note JAG's copy as a redirection to PSSG in AG CLIFF, and refer to you for draft web mail response.

Thanks in advance for your advice,
Kim

Hi Kim,

This came into our PSB generic mailbox, and I see that it also went to the JAG Webfeedback address. Do you know if the MO will be requesting an action on this? If not, I will fwd to someone in our branch to see if a response is necessary.

Thank you,
Leah

To all that are too cowardly to uphold the law.

The following has 2 explanations.

Its still operating because the rcmp have full knowledge and is getting a cut.. or.. information sharing is a closed door.. the start of a closed border to corruption.

If you have a third I'll be more than happy to consider it before I publish.

Vancouver-based firm PacNet accused of transnational crime

The United States Treasury Department says the PacNet Group has been laundering cash raised through "fraudulent solicitation schemes" for 20 years

Throwing one of your own under the bus.. not good enough.. the no fly is still in play.

To save face the force could voluntarily disband. . Ill drop the issue with no comment.

Fair warning my patience wearing thin. The way things are progressing..I'm ahead of schedule.
.I'm considering adding a clause.

No member of the force is to be employed in any occupation concocted to law enforcement..including mall cops.

Have a nice retirement.. well at least as nice as any child abuser can.
