Re: DL #: s.16,s.22

I responded to a call yesterday regarding an s.16,s.22 driver and believe that she should be subjected to medical fitness tests if she is to continue to maintain her D/L. My synopsis of the incident is attached below;
Cst BROWN responded to a call from * who reported witnessing an s.16,s.22 driving a s.22, BCL s.16,s.22, south on Lickman Rd and crossing into oncoming traffic then running the red light at Luckakuck Way. The R/O was identified as s.16,s.22. Cst BROWN conducted patrols of the area but did not locate s.16,s.22 or her car. Cst BROWN then attended s.16,s.22 address in order to conduct a Check Wellbeing. s.16,s.22

Cst BROWN conducted a cursory exam of s.16,s.22 car and noted no damage or any issues of concern. Cst BROWN advised s.16,s.22 that an update would be provided to ICBC regarding the incident. s.16,s.22
Should you have any questions, please contact me via this email address.
In advance, many thanks.

Hi,

I am interested in submitting a request for a female's driver's licence to be reviewed, as I believe she is unsuitable as a driver. I have been told by colleagues that such a form exists but I haven't been able to locate it.

Could you possibly forward it to me, or direct me to the right person who could do so?

Subject: Police Retention Period on OSMV Forms

Hello,

I was wondering if you could put me in contact with someone who can advise the required police retention period for all OSMV forms. This is inclusive of forms such as the IRP roadside prohibition, notice of driving prohibition, vehicle impoundment, etc.

We are currently scanning copies of these forms to the electronic police file, as well as storing the hardcopy. I'm interested in learning how long the hardcopy must be retained, if at all, once submitted to OSMV.

Thank you,
