Roseanne, I'm writing this all down because I feel you are likely in a meeting at the moment. Let's talk before you dive in.

Here is the first round of bills for caucus:

s.12

JTT - BC Innovation Council Act: CASA Commitment <15 minutes

HLTH - Community Care and Assisted Living Act – please hold off, trying to determine Premier's wishes

s.12

s.12

Ministers should be able to verbally brief caucus on these, based on the material they now have. You should feel free to schedule as time allows asap. Call the Minister's office and say:

- The bill has passed LRC, and is likely to be scheduled at any time, based on the House Leader's needs. Caucus briefing is the next step
- They should come prepared to tell their colleagues what the bill is about, engagement that has happened prior to this point, potential reactions of any key stakeholder groups, and what the communications plans are for the announcement, including any materials that will be available for caucus.
- (If they ask) Their DM is aware that introduction may happen soon, and should be preparing speaking notes and associated material for that purpose.

Hey everyone,

With estimates slated to get underway I wanted to give a brief run through of how it works and what is scheduled so far.

How it works:

For those that are unfamiliar with it, estimates is the main way in which opposition gets to ask questions about Government finances. Estimates occurs in "Committee B" (also called the big house) which takes place in the main chamber, and in "Committee A" (also called the little house) which takes place in the Douglas Fir Room. The opposition gets to nominate three ministry estimates to take place in the big house and all others occur in the little house. During estimates, your minister will answer questions from the opposition on almost anything that refers to the ministry.

Your Minister must be present for the duration of their estimates and you should coordinate with your DM's office to ensure your Minister is appropriately briefed ahead of time and that the required ministry staff are present during estimates. On that note, if you have specific concerns about the order/timing of individual topics, crown corporations, etc, please reach out to your opposition critic to coordinate.

The schedule:

The little house will begin estimates this Thursday and continue until all estimates are complete. Below is the order in which ministries will do estimates, the approximate time the opposition thinks they will take, and a tentative schedule for next week. Also attached is how long each Ministry took last year for you to have a rough idea of how long to expect.

No election of speaker at 10am, otherwise is a good summary to the best of my knowledge

This is the bullets I have of how things will roll out:

10am

Two committee membership change motions

LG arrives and relieves MLAs of duties

House is prorogued

2pm

Prayers by Elder

LG enters house and gives Throne speech

LG retires

Bill 1 introduced and read for first time (AG)

Motion to appoint Deputy Speaker (Moved by GHL, seconded by OHL)

Motion to appoint Assistant Deputy Speaker (Moved by OHL, seconded by GHL)

Motion to appoint Deputy Chair of the Committee of the Whole (Moved by GHL, seconded by OHL)

Motion that print Votes and Proceedings (AG)

Motion to appoint committees and selection committee (Premier)

GHL moves to adjourn

Hi. He will have two presentations – one on house business and one on Cannabis. I have him scheduled from 10:45 – 12 on Feb. 5. On the House piece we will include some brief reports from some of the Legislative committee chairs. Hope that assists. Thx.

Thanks,

Hi. I would really like to get together Friday to go over the house stuff. I am pretty open that day so let me know if something can work. Thx.

Hi there. I did a bit of editing on the PPT I put together for the House Leader at our August caucus meeting in advance of session and have included it here for you. Let's connect next week. As we discussed, we will want to do some talking about a house management structure in advance of the February 5 caucus meeting. Thanks and look forward to working with you on this. R.
