We live in the community of s.22

We have been trying to obtain a date s.22 to obtain his "Enhanced Road Assessment" drivers test. I have spent numerous hours on the phone trying to contact the license department than once getting through , having to wait for an answer.

The answers have been no openings and they are only now booking into July or later. They also tell us we can get an appointment earlier by going to Cranbrook or Trail, both over s.22 Why is there not more openings in s.22

I understand, the "Second Commitment " given to you in a letter from Premier John Horgan, dated July 18th, 2017 was " that our senior citizens are able to live their final years with dignity."

I'm sorry, we don't find dignity having to wait for months to arrange an appointment when we need our transportation now. Why does a community the size of s.22 B.C. have so few appointment dates available to its tax payers and " seniors'?

We look forward to your e-mail as to how this problem will be corrected for us and other seniors in our community.

Thank You

Good afternoon,

Thank you for your response. Unfortunately, despite the intention that street checks “not ... be applied arbitrarily” and instead be used to “respon[d] to suspicious activity occurrences,” a review of 11 years of Victoria and Esquimalt street checks shows that they are frequently used to make arbitrary stops. Street checks do not serve policing in the ways you have been led to believe. While I have raised the matter with the Victoria and Esquimalt Police Board, as minister you are uniquely suited to ban the practice entirely. I would ask that you do so, and I have documented additional research below to demonstrate how street checks are being used in Victoria.

Street check utility

Of VicPD’s nearly 26,000 street checks since 2007, over 30% of those reports were for “Problem Oriented Policing” and “Other.” Those categories included detentions and questioning for reasons such as “camping,” “curfew,” “panhandling” and “wake ups,” as well as checks based on location, a type of stop that is now prohibited in Ontario.

“Suspicious Activity” represented 13% of street checks, and included questioning people who were “camping in [a] park,” “loitering,” “bottle picker[s],” “panhandler[s]” and someone who had “multiple shopping carts.” “Suspected Criminal” stops made up 23% of street checks, a category that also included street checks for curfew, loitering, and similar stops.

Chief Manak told the Victoria and Esquimalt Police Board that street checks are “a major part of keeping our community safe.” On the contrary, VicPD’s street checks subject individuals that officers have no grounds to detain to arbitrary questioning. Additionally, VicPD officers’ “remarks” on their street check reports show that they frequently street check poor and homeless individuals, who are made to answer questions based on officers’ perception that they are poor or homeless.

Street checks are racist

- A report by VIPIRG (2012) found that 20 per cent of respondents said they had been treated unequally or unfairly by VicPD based on their race or ancestry.
- A report by SOLID (2015) found that 45 per cent of respondents “disagreed” or “completely disagreed” with the assertion that VicPD “respond[s] in a fair way when dealing with racial, religious and ethnic communities of this area.”
- Michael Regis’s report (2017), presented at the March 2018 Police Board meeting, identified numerous examples of discrimination by Greater Victoria and VicPD officers, including: street checking Black people (p. 37-9); the use of a racial slur (p. 46); and an officer simulating sex with an Indigenous wheelchair user (p. 33). “Most [Indigenous] participants did not feel they had any positive experiences to share of the [Greater Victoria Police]” (p. 35).

Indigenous people have consistently reported discrimination by VicPD. Regis’s report also includes multiple stories about Black people being targeted by police, and Muslim, Indigenous, and Black participants all reported “profiling and over-surveillance.”

Chief Manak said the Victoria Police Department “[does] not have the same issues or challenges alleged” by my research. Those stories should be more than enough to show that his comments do not reflect people’s experiences with VicPD or policing in British Columbia.

My research only confirms what people have been saying. For example, VicPD’s own street check reports show that officers disproportionately street check Indigenous people. Statistics Canada reports that 5.31% of Victoria and Esquimalt’s population is Indigenous. However, during July 2017:

- 12.41% of all individuals street checked by VicPD were Indigenous;
- 17.35% of street check reports with complete “ethnicity” information included an Indigenous person; and
- 34% of VicPD street checks for “curfew” were for Indigenous people.

Every jurisdiction where street check data has been reviewed in Canada has found that officers disproportionately street check Indigenous and/or Black people. VicPD's street check reports confirm what people have been saying about the department for many, many years. Discretionary street check policies allow internalized and systemic racism to play out through arbitrary stops.

Street checks are arbitrary and illegal

In February, Chief Manak told the Victoria and Esquimalt Police Board that street checks are "not done randomly," and VicPD says they stop individuals "at the officer's discretion" whom they "suspect ... [have] been involved in suspicious circumstances." These comments do not reflect how street checks are actually used in Victoria. As noted above, individuals are not stopped solely when there are "suspicious circumstances." Additionally, what VicPD does consider "suspicious" covers a broad range of activities that frequently target poor and homeless individuals.

It is precisely these types of broad policies — "at the officer's discretion" — that allow police forces across the country to use street checks as a form of arbitrary detention and information gathering that critics such as Desmond Cole have called out as "illegal and ... wrong." Street checks, writes law Professor Glen Luther, "constitute arbitrary detention contrary to ... the Charter of Rights and Freedoms" and are "arbitrary," "coercive," and "unlawful."

In 2017, B.C.'s Pivot Legal Society posted an article asking officials such as yourself to ban street checks:

"Police have created ... [street checks and carding] to circumvent legal restrictions and carve out more powers to stop and question people who may have done nothing wrong. By banning carding and street checks and firmly restricting when police can conduct an investigative detention, the government can send a clear message to police that they are not allowed to go on fishing expeditions and can only conduct an investigative detention when it is absolutely necessary to investigate a particular crime that has just occurred."

When VicPD officers street check people — homeless people they wake up; people they stop because of the area of town they're walking in; panhandlers; people collecting cigarette butts; or a Black man and a white woman they don't believe own a particular car — it's an arbitrary detention and information gathering exercise.

VicPD believes its street checks are not technically "detentions," because people don't have to answer officers' questions during non-vehicle street checks. However, there are many reasons people don't walk away. These include the fact that officers do not inform people of their right to leave, as well as people's legitimate fear of police violence or arrest if they don't answer questions. The result is that VicPD officers arbitrarily detain over 1,000 people in Victoria and Esquimalt every year and subject them to questioning. During these encounters, people have their information entered into VicPD's database for future use.

In 2015, the former Ontario ombudsman said he "remain[s] unconvinced ... that there is a public interest purpose sufficient to override the infringement of the right to be free from the arbitrary detention that street checks represent."

Conclusion

Street checks in B.C. are a form of discriminatory and arbitrary detention that disproportionately affect Indigenous people, Black people, and the street community. Comments from people who have been stopped by VicPD, as well as review of VicPD's street check reports, indicate that street checks in Victoria and Esquimalt represent an arbitrary and intimidating information gathering exercise.

Vancouver's current street check guidelines note that the B.C. Human Rights Code prohibits discrimination on numerous grounds, including race. The existence of the Human Rights Code, as well as activities such as implicit bias training, have not prevented departments such as VicPD from disproportionately street checking Indigenous people. Or, for that matter, the street community. Or people who are afraid of police officers.

Street checks will continue to be discriminatory and arbitrary for as long as they exist, and for that reason, you should curtail B.C. police forces' arbitrary detention practices. It is unlikely that individual police forces will eliminate street checks of their own accord, and you are positioned to protect British Columbians from these arbitrary stops.

Please take action to stop B.C. police departments from performing street checks, and ensure that street checks do not continue informally off the books.

Thank you for your time and your consideration.

Sincerely,

Dear s.22

Thank you for your January 23 and February 27, 2018 email, regarding the practice of “street checks” by Victoria Police Department (VicPD). I am pleased to respond.

In your letter you present data regarding street checks (also referred to as “carding”) by VicPD, acquired through an information request, and infer particular relevancy to minority populations. It is clear you have gone to considerable lengths to compile this information, and I appreciate that you have taken the time to share it with me.

I am aware that police agencies within British Columbia are attuned to the susceptibility of this practice being interpreted as invasive to individual privacy rights, and that other jurisdictions have adopted a standardization approach with respect to addressing such concerns. It is important to acknowledge that this practice by law enforcement agencies in British Columbia is not intended to be applied arbitrarily. Rather, it is a technique to assist police on an operational basis, such as when they are responding to suspicious activity occurrences.

As VicPD is an independent municipal department, per Section 168 of the Police Act, complaints about the department’s general direction, management, and operation – including the adequacy or appropriateness of its policies, procedures, and resource allocations – are responsibility of the Victoria Police Board. For information on bringing forward a service and policy complaint you may wish to contact the Victoria Police Board directly as follows:

At the moment, my ministry is continuing to implement recommendations from the Missing Women Commission of Inquiry. This includes examining ways to promote equality in the delivery of policing services in the province. A copy of this letter has been provided to the Director of Police Services for his awareness. My investigation into the issue where the Regional District of Bulkley Nechako (RDBN) has requested to meet with the Minister regarding "Emergency Extrication Contribution Bylaws – EMBC will not provide a task number where local government has these bylaws in place" is complete.

Background:

EMBC covers registered, qualified road rescue organizations and Fire Departments for out of jurisdiction road rescue activities under a Task Number where these services have been requested. The RDBN has an existing bylaw in place providing reimbursement for these road rescues in portions of the regional district. They were advised that EMBC cannot reimburse for road rescue in instances where reimbursement, insurance and WorkSafe coverages are provided by another party. Essentially, road rescue services cannot be reimbursed twice for same activity. As indicated in the attachment, Chris Duffy as the Executive Director of Operations, confirmed with the RDBN “that Fire Departments that rescind road rescue related bylaws will again qualify for EMBC task numbers and reimbursement for road rescue services.”

I have confirmed that steps have been taken to rescind the current bylaw by the RDBN and that it has reached third reading. The one issue that may remain unresolved is a request that the RDBN be reimbursed retroactively for all road rescues since January 2018 as indicated in the attachment. It is EMBC position that we can only reimburse for activities forward from the point where the bylaw is no longer in effect. To do otherwise would possibly open the way for similar consideration in all program lines.

RE: Kootenay Lake Ferry Balfour Terminal improvements.

Attachment: Kootenay Lake Ferry Terminal Issues Overview, which I highly endorse.

Dear Mr. Seiben:

I am writing to request a your support for a suspension of the Kootenay Lake Balfour Terminal project as currently intended by the Ministry of Transportation & Infrastructure, Marine Branch. The consultation process carried out by the Ministry, (MoTI) did not adequately address the marine & land safety, projected costs, environmental impacts, local economic or social issues surrounding this project.

Three relocation feasibility studies commissioned by the Ministry have all concluded, for safety, cost,

& environmental reasons, that the relocation onto Crown Land of the west terminal of the Kootenay Lake Ferry to Queens Bay north, site two, is the best choice. (SNC Lavalin 2016; Worley Parsons, 2012; Reid Crowther & Partners, 1990.)

The narrow confines of the waterway at Balfour combined with high civilian boat traffic make the probability of a marine accident very high. Loss of power or maneuverability by the ferry in that channel would compound damage, both environmental & property. A terminal located at Queens Bay north, site 2 would exponentially lessen such risk.

A terminal located in the preferred location of Queens Bay north, site 2, as recommended by every commissioned study, would substantially reduce CO2 pollution; drastically improve marine safety; reduce costs; & relieve congestion. Opportunity for traffic & pedestrian accident, as seen at the current terminal located in Balfour, & in planned improvements of that terminal, remain high. The potential for tragic accident because of highway grades at Kootenay Bay also remain high if the Balfour terminal is not relocated.

The highway leading directly to the east shore terminal at Kootenay Bay holds at sustained 6% to 8% grades for 3 km. The only run away lane for vehicles unable to brake is at a 9% grade. Traffic backed up because of wait times at the terminal make accessing the run away lane dicey at best. The only other alternative for a truck is to careen the few short meters downhill, choosing between ramming parked cars in the terminal parking lot or ramming onto the loading ramp & possibly a fully loaded ferry with vehicles waiting to disembark. The headlines would be exciting. All for lack of a short transit time that would keep the terminal parking area regularly cleared.

Current planning by MoTI involves dredging, & ongoing dredging, of the entrance to the west arm of Kootenay Lake at Balfour to accommodate the ferry at seasonal, low water. No environmental studies have been done to determine the environmental impact that dredging would have on both the West Arm of Kootenay Lake, or on Kootenay Lake itself. The flawed Advisian study 2017, with its laughably faulty sampling of lake bottom at Balfour narrows notes that they cannot reliably state that future dredging would not be required to maintain safe depth of channel for ferries. MoTI itself has written that ongoing dredging will probably be required due to shifting lake bottom. Renegotiation of the Columbia River Treaty & B.C. Hydro's potential need to dredge the Grohman narrows, downstream from Balfour, would in all probability, further impact the effects of dredging at the Balfour narrows. A terminal at Queens Bay north, site 2, would abrogate the necessity of dredging the Balfour narrows.

Currently, & into the long future as planned by MoTI, a round trip for the ferry for the majority of the year is 100 minutes. Relocation of the terminal would lessen a round trip to 60 minutes. In emergency medical situations with heart attacks, strokes, hemorrhaging, severe burns or accident, a shorter transit time to Nelson, Trail, Kelowna or Vancouver hospitals would be a potential life saver. In the event of a forest fire requiring evacuation, a short transit time would avoid a potential catastrophe.

Local & regional transport & service businesses regularly waste vital time because of the turnaround time of the ferry. As the ferry is the only route across this part of the province when avalanche or accident closes the Kootenay Pass, many vehicles divert to the ferry. Time is of the essence for these businesses. Lost time is expensive.

Tourism, as a vital part of the local economy, would be enhanced with the substantially improved transit time a terminal at Queens Bay north, site 2 would allow for. With the assurance of hourly service from a terminal, tourists would be inclined to explore the goods & services offered by local businesses.

Because of the bottleneck that is the ferry, the east shore of Kootenay Lake malingers economically. Our local school, recently built, is in danger of closing because families cannot access the economic stability required in order to situate on the east shore. Hourly ferry service would allow access to jobs on the west shore to provide that stability.

Public consultation, carried out in 2016 by MoTI, was biased in favour of stakeholders & residents of the west side of Kootenay Lake. No consultation meetings, media or mailing notifications were conducted on the east side of Kootenay Lake where stakeholders & residents are more acutely affected by ferry service. The Ministry was asked repeatedly by local, east shore stakeholders to hold meetings on the east side of the lake, but the requests fell on deaf, or indifferent, ears. That is in stark contrast to the many consultation meetings, media & mailing notifications conducted on the west side of Kootenay Lake.

Decisions regarding the west terminal location will have an impact on the area for the next fifty or more years. Please instruct the Ministry to suspend the Kootenay Lake Balfour Terminal Project as currently planned & enter into substantive consultation with the stakeholders & residents who were not consulted during the original round of consultations. Environmental, safety, & cost issues have to also be addressed. Or, the government could save time, money & the environment by instructing MoTI to follow the recommendations of three expensive studies & locate the ferry terminal at Queens Bay North.

Cordially yours,

Hi Rhea,
It has taken some digging today to figure out where this complaint needs to be addressed. I believe that ^{s.22} is referring to an adult probation officer who uses an office in our MCFD office in 100 Mile to meet with adult clients. This needs to go to PSSG as the allegation of breach would be within their staff. Although ^{s.22} the probation officer would be PSSG.
Thanks

Hello Barinder Rasode,

Thank you for your invite to have the Honourable Mike Farnworth speak at your upcoming conference "Cannabis Legalization, Know the Regulations and the Impact in the Community" taking place on May 17, 2018. Unfortunately, due to an abundance of Cabinet Committee meetings, the House sitting and Minister Farnworth's responsibilities as House Leader, he is unavailable to meet at this time.

The Minister has asked me to pass on his sincerest regrets.

Dear Ms. Conroy,

Please take a few minutes to watch the video I've made of what happens when someone like myself, once a single dad, survives attempted murder, a crime committed by someone under the care of the BC Government. The injuries were horrific, traumatic brain injuries, disabled for life, was a single dad, very successful, now alone, have been since this happened. What happened afterwards, was worse, please watch to see how much support I got from the Government, both British Columbia and Canada...

Hi Angella,

I followed up on this one with Tom Steenvoorden and Rob Ferrier. Rob's response was:

Form my assessment the writer's concerns do not pertain directly to police. Rather, they are more "justice system" related in that she raises issues with regard to Crown and the Judiciary. I also note she references that the ADAG has previously reviewed the matter and responded. Therefore, I suggest it be redirected or filed as it is not really a police-related response.

I'm sorry but I don't know who else I could refer this to... do you have any suggestions? Or should we file it as the ADAG previously responded?

I see that Talea has directed that a response be drafted. Can you please check with Angella on what the regular protocols are? This is simply a thank you card for a meeting the Minister had with the organization. Since then, the Minister had lunch with them in the legislative dining room on April 16 and introduced the executive of the BCCA board in the House prior to Question Period that same day.

I suggest that no response is necessary for this one but we of course if someone thinks it's necessary.

Thanks Agnes

I see that Talea has directed that a response be drafted. Can you please check with Angella on what the regular protocols are? This is simply a thank you card for a meeting the Minister had with the organization. Since then, the Minister had lunch with them in the legislative dining room on April 16 and introduced the executive of the BCCA board in the House prior to Question Period that same day.

I suggest that no response is necessary for this one but we of course if someone thinks it's necessary.

Thanks Agnes

Good afternoon,

Thank you for your response. Unfortunately, despite the intention that street checks “not ... be applied arbitrarily” and instead be used to “respon[d] to suspicious activity occurrences,” a review of 11 years of Victoria and Esquimalt street checks shows that they are frequently used to make arbitrary stops. Street checks do not serve policing in the ways you have been led to believe. While I have raised the matter with the Victoria and Esquimalt Police Board, as minister you are uniquely suited to ban the practice entirely. I would ask that you do so, and I have documented additional research below to demonstrate how street checks are being used in Victoria.

Street check utility

Of VicPD’s nearly 26,000 street checks since 2007, over 30% of those reports were for “Problem Oriented Policing” and “Other.” Those categories included detentions and questioning for reasons such as “camping,” “curfew,” “panhandling” and “wake ups,” as well as checks based on location, a type of stop that is now prohibited in Ontario.

“Suspicious Activity” represented 13% of street checks, and included questioning people who were “camping in [a] park,” “loitering,” “bottle picker[s],” “panhandler[s]” and someone who had “multiple shopping carts.” “Suspected Criminal” stops made up 23% of street checks, a category that also included street checks for curfew, loitering, and similar stops.

Chief Manak told the Victoria and Esquimalt Police Board that street checks are “a major part of keeping our community safe.” On the contrary, VicPD’s street checks subject individuals that officers have no grounds to detain to arbitrary questioning. Additionally, VicPD officers’ “remarks” on their street check reports show that they frequently street check poor and homeless individuals, who are made to answer questions based on officers’ perception that they are poor or homeless.

Street checks are racist

- A report by VIPIRG (2012) found that 20 per cent of respondents said they had been treated unequally or unfairly by VicPD based on their race or ancestry.
- A report by SOLID (2015) found that 45 per cent of respondents “disagreed” or “completely disagreed” with the assertion that VicPD “respond[s] in a fair way when dealing with racial, religious and ethnic communities of this area.”
- Michael Regis’s report (2017), presented at the March 2018 Police Board meeting, identified numerous examples of discrimination by Greater Victoria and VicPD officers, including: street checking Black people (p. 37-9); the use of a racial slur (p. 46); and an officer simulating sex with an Indigenous wheelchair user (p. 33). “Most [Indigenous] participants did not feel they had any positive experiences to share of the [Greater Victoria Police]” (p. 35).

Indigenous people have consistently reported discrimination by VicPD. Regis’s report also includes multiple stories about Black people being targeted by police, and Muslim, Indigenous, and Black participants all reported “profiling and over-surveillance.”

Chief Manak said the Victoria Police Department “[does] not have the same issues or challenges alleged” by my research. Those stories should be more than enough to show that his comments do not reflect people’s experiences with VicPD or policing in British Columbia.

My research only confirms what people have been saying. For example, VicPD’s own street check reports show that officers disproportionately street check Indigenous people. Statistics Canada reports that 5.31% of Victoria and Esquimalt’s population is Indigenous. However, during July 2017:

- 12.41% of all individuals street checked by VicPD were Indigenous;
- 17.35% of street check reports with complete “ethnicity” information included an Indigenous person; and
- 34% of VicPD street checks for “curfew” were for Indigenous people.

Every jurisdiction where street check data has been reviewed in Canada has found that officers disproportionately street check Indigenous and/or Black people. VicPD's street check reports confirm what people have been saying about the department for many, many years. Discretionary street check policies allow internalized and systemic racism to play out through arbitrary stops.

Street checks are arbitrary and illegal

In February, Chief Manak told the Victoria and Esquimalt Police Board that street checks are "not done randomly," and VicPD says they stop individuals "at the officer's discretion" whom they "suspect ... [have] been involved in suspicious circumstances." These comments do not reflect how street checks are actually used in Victoria. As noted above, individuals are not stopped solely when there are "suspicious circumstances." Additionally, what VicPD does consider "suspicious" covers a broad range of activities that frequently target poor and homeless individuals.

It is precisely these types of broad policies — "at the officer's discretion" — that allow police forces across the country to use street checks as a form of arbitrary detention and information gathering that critics such as Desmond Cole have called out as "illegal and ... wrong." Street checks, writes law Professor Glen Luther, "constitute arbitrary detention contrary to ... the Charter of Rights and Freedoms" and are "arbitrary," "coercive," and "unlawful."

In 2017, B.C.'s Pivot Legal Society posted an article asking officials such as yourself to ban street checks:

"Police have created ... [street checks and carding] to circumvent legal restrictions and carve out more powers to stop and question people who may have done nothing wrong. By banning carding and street checks and firmly restricting when police can conduct an investigative detention, the government can send a clear message to police that they are not allowed to go on fishing expeditions and can only conduct an investigative detention when it is absolutely necessary to investigate a particular crime that has just occurred."

When VicPD officers street check people — homeless people they wake up; people they stop because of the area of town they're walking in; panhandlers; people collecting cigarette butts; or a Black man and a white woman they don't believe own a particular car — it's an arbitrary detention and information gathering exercise.

VicPD believes its street checks are not technically "detentions," because people don't have to answer officers' questions during non-vehicle street checks. However, there are many reasons people don't walk away. These include the fact that officers do not inform people of their right to leave, as well as people's legitimate fear of police violence or arrest if they don't answer questions. The result is that VicPD officers arbitrarily detain over 1,000 people in Victoria and Esquimalt every year and subject them to questioning. During these encounters, people have their information entered into VicPD's database for future use.

In 2015, the former Ontario ombudsman said he "remain[s] unconvinced ... that there is a public interest purpose sufficient to override the infringement of the right to be free from the arbitrary detention that street checks represent."

Conclusion

Street checks in B.C. are a form of discriminatory and arbitrary detention that disproportionately affect Indigenous people, Black people, and the street community. Comments from people who have been stopped by VicPD, as well as review of VicPD's street check reports, indicate that street checks in Victoria and Esquimalt represent an arbitrary and intimidating information gathering exercise.

Vancouver's current street check guidelines note that the B.C. Human Rights Code prohibits discrimination on numerous grounds, including race. The existence of the Human Rights Code, as well as activities such as implicit bias training, have not prevented departments such as VicPD from disproportionately street checking Indigenous people. Or, for that matter, the street community. Or people who are afraid of police officers.

Street checks will continue to be discriminatory and arbitrary for as long as they exist, and for that reason, you should curtail B.C. police forces' arbitrary detention practices. It is unlikely that individual police forces will eliminate street checks of their own accord, and you are positioned to protect British Columbians from these arbitrary stops.

Please take action to stop B.C. police departments from performing street checks, and ensure that street checks do not continue informally off the books.

Thank you for your time and your consideration.

Sincerely,

Dear

Thank you for your January 23 and February 27, 2018 email, regarding the practice of “street checks” by Victoria Police Department (VicPD). I am pleased to respond.

In your letter you present data regarding street checks (also referred to as “carding”) by VicPD, acquired through an information request, and infer particular relevancy to minority populations. It is clear you have gone to considerable lengths to compile this information, and I appreciate that you have taken the time to share it with me.

I am aware that police agencies within British Columbia are attuned to the susceptibility of this practice being interpreted as invasive to individual privacy rights, and that other jurisdictions have adopted a standardization approach with respect to addressing such concerns. It is important to acknowledge that this practice by law enforcement agencies in British Columbia is not intended to be applied arbitrarily. Rather, it is a technique to assist police on an operational basis, such as when they are responding to suspicious activity occurrences.

As VicPD is an independent municipal department, per Section 168 of the Police Act, complaints about the department’s general direction, management, and operation – including the adequacy or appropriateness of its policies, procedures, and resource allocations – are responsibility of the Victoria Police Board. For information on bringing forward a service and policy complaint you may wish to contact the Victoria Police Board directly as follows:

At the moment, my ministry is continuing to implement recommendations from the Missing Women Commission of Inquiry. This includes examining ways to promote equality in the delivery of policing services in the province. A copy of this letter has been provided to the Director of Police Services for his awareness. I thank you for your attention to this important matter.

Subject: Please do not prosecute those who have opposed Kinder Morgan through civil disobedience

Hon. David Eby
B.C. Attorney General

Dear Minister Eby,

On Saturday, I traveled from my home on ^{s.22} _____ to Burnaby to participate in the First Nations-led demonstration at the Kinder Morgan gates. Kinder Morgan decided not to harm themselves by having the RCMP arrest Grand Chief Stewart Phillip, other leaders, and citizens.

Several of my friends were arrested at earlier demonstrations and were originally charged with civil contempt. According to press reports there is now the possibility that they may be charged with and tried for criminal contempt. This would be wrong and I urge you not to allow that.

While at the demonstration on Saturday, I had the opportunity to talk with several of the RCMP officers present, including the senior officer responsible for RCMP policies regarding the Kinder Morgan Issue. It was clear that the RCMP does not wish to see an escalation of the conflict.

I have worked previously as a volunteer with RCMP community policing, in the criminal justice system as a restorative justice volunteer, and as a consultant with the National Crime Prevention Centre. I respect the RCMP and the justice system. It is the failures of our political and regulatory systems that have led to civil disobedience.

One of the RCMP officers I spoke with referred me to the BC Prosecution Service guidelines regarding civil disobedience, contempt of court orders, and charge assessment.

It is clear that even if a court invites the Attorney General to assume conduct of the prosecution of a contempt charge, the Crown has the discretion to not follow this suggestion. In my view, the actions of those who have been arrested for civil disobedience at the Kinder Morgan gates do not warrant prosecution for criminal contempt.

The Prosecution Service guidelines on civil disobedience and contempt of court state:

“Where the court is concerned that a breach is criminal in nature and invites the Attorney General to assume conduct of the prosecution of the contempt or otherwise participate, Crown Counsel should indicate that the court will be advised as soon as possible whether Crown Counsel will assume conduct of the prosecution.

Crown Counsel may intervene and assume conduct of the prosecution where the allegations meet the charge assessment standard under the policy on Charge Assessment Guidelines (CHA 1). The Assistant Deputy Attorney General should be consulted before the court is advised of a decision not to assume conduct of the prosecution.”

I do not believe the allegations against those charged meet the charge assessment standard set out in the Charge Assessment Guidelines. As stated in those guidelines:

“Justice does not require that every provable offence must be prosecuted. The resources of the criminal justice system are not unlimited. If reasonable alternatives are available, they should be pursued. Prosecution should be reserved for cases requiring the full force of the criminal justice system, with all its available sanctions.”

There is ample scope within the Charge Assessment Guidelines to decide that prosecution for criminal contempt is not in the public interest. I urge you not to prosecute non-violent demonstrators for criminal contempt - despite the judge's invitation to do so.

I do not believe that those who temporarily obstructed access to the Kinder Morgan site were motivated by contempt for the justice system. Rather they were protesting the failure of our political and regulatory systems to prevent this dangerous expansion of pipeline capacity and tanker traffic.

I believe it is sufficient that the RCMP remove demonstrators who may obstruct the Kinder Morgan gates - without charging them with criminal contempt.

I also urge you to move forward as soon as possible with anti-SLAPP suit legislation.

Thank you,

c.c. Richard Fyfe, Deputy Attorney General (via Correspondence Coordinator Kim King)

The Honourable Mike Farnworth

PO Box 9010 Stn Prov Govt
Victoria BC V8W 9E2

Dear Minister Farnworth:

On behalf of the Executive Board of the British Columbia Association of Police Boards

(BCAPB) I am writing to advise you that the BCAPB membership held their AGM on April 7, 2018 and as a result of that meeting has elected a new Executive Committee.

I am honoured to have been elected to serve as President of the BC Association of Police Boards and to continue to serve as a member of the Saanich Police Board. Mr. John Rizzuti of the Central Saanich Police Board was elected to serve as the Vice-President.

We would like to introduce ourselves to you; therefore, I am writing to request a meeting with you on a date and time that is convenient to all of us. The next BCAPB Executive meeting is scheduled for mid-June so it would be of benefit if we could meet, preferably in Victoria, as both John and I are based here at a time that is mutually convenient prior to the Executive meeting. I believe it is through developing shared understandings and engaging in joint efforts that we can effectively enhance civilian oversight of police organizations in British Columbia.

Please contact me directly to confirm a meeting date either via email at s.22 or via telephone at s.22

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Mary Collins
President
BC Association of Police Boards

Subject: Call for Records PSS-2018-82551 Due April 18, 2018

Hello,

Please find attached a Call for Records form that is electronic, fillable and saveable. The form has active links and pull-down menus. Please send your records in one PDF document, to the Justice/Social mailbox at justice.social.foi@gov.bc.ca. Thank-you.

Your Ministry has received a formal request made under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FOIPPA). The request is for:

Communications/records between Corrections BC and the Public Safety and Solicitor General's office related to the practice of dropping released inmates off at the Prince George Bus station and anything else about ensuring released inmates can return to their northern communities. (Date Range for Record Search: From 02/01/2016 To 03/13/2018).

Please contact the analyst assigned to this request if you have any questions – Nicola Lutte (250) 387-2877.

What Do You Need to Do?

Please complete the attached Call for Records form.

- If search and retrieval time is anticipated to exceed 3 hours and/or the total volume of records exceeds 200 pages, complete only Sections 1 & 2 of the Call for Records Form as we may be in a position to issue a fee estimate. Then, return the form to the Justice/Social FOI Mailbox at justice.social.foi@gov.bc.ca by April 12, 2018. Please await further instruction from IAO as the records will not be required until the fee estimate process has been completed. Once fees have been paid or waived, you will be contacted to continue the call for records process. You will also be advised you if the request is abandoned and/or closed.
- If no fees apply then proceed with the call for records process. Please complete the attached Call for Records Form and return it to the Justice/Social FOI Mailbox at justice.social.foi@gov.bc.ca by April 18, 2018. Send records via email in PDF format. One PDF document is preferable. If email is not possible, please send the records in electronic format (CD, memory stick) via house mail with a copy of this note.

Reminder

You should be aware that FOIPPA obligates us to assist the applicant and to respond without delay, openly, accurately, and completely. In the event that the ministry must defend the adequacy of its search to the Information and Privacy Commissioner at Inquiry, those involved in searching for records may be required to sign affidavits confirming they have conducted an adequate search for relevant records.

Questions and Concerns

Please do not hesitate to contact your analyst noted on the attached Call for Records form to discuss:

- whether the records may be routinely releasable;
- whether the information is being prepared for public release or is already publicly available;

- ways in which an applicant may want to narrow/focus their request to reduce potential fees;
- and/or any other questions or concerns relating to this request.

Tell the Provincial and Federal Governments to Change Child Support Enforcement

To: Justin Trudeau (Justin.Trudeau@parl.gc.ca) Christy Clark (premier@gov.bc.ca) Rachel Notley (premier@gov.ab.ca) Kathleen Teresa Ganley (ministryofjustice@gov.ab.ca) Suzanne Anton (JAG.Minister@gov.bc.ca) Jody Wilson-Raybould (Jody.Wilson-Raybould@parl.gc.ca) The Right Honourable Beverley McLachlin (reception@scc-csc.ca) Anne.Cools (anne.cools@sen.parl.gc.ca)

Changes to Child Support Enforcement are desperately needed on both the Federal and Provincial levels in BC, Alberta, and elsewhere.

No one denies the importance of child support and all but a tiny minority would argue against it.

The problem is Maintenance Enforcement Programs are ruining many lives and destroying families financially and most definitely emotionally.

The financial burden it places on second families, attempting to eke out a living, and the blind eye of unfairness towards the children that come after, essentially forsakes them.

All too commonly Maintenance Enforcement Programs actively and regularly "bully" the unemployed, disabled and working poor - this contributes to Child Poverty, serious emotional distress and often suicides. Indeed, this is well documented in the media.

The practices of "enforcement" that range from monetary penalties, credit reporting, passport revocation, driver's license suspensions, bank account seizures, wage garnishment and the threat of jail time further increase stress on individuals and their families and attach a stigma to an individual decreasing their chances of being desirable to employers.

In all too many cases people are terminated from their jobs because of MEP action, despite the fact the law is to protect them.

Few jobs do not stipulate reliable transportation and the associated necessity of a drivers license. Most employers will not write a letter to MEP due to the "red flags" this raises, and they move on to the next candidate who is far less trouble.

And while "Enforcement Officers" do not always have discretion, many are often unwilling to show any leniency in unemployed, disabled or working poor cases, even when they have the ability to do so, or when the Payor/Debtor has a good payment record.

Legal resources to combat these actions are limited in quality or unavailable due to funding cuts leaving the layperson to face the intimidating and confusing legal quagmire.

In cases of alienation, no enforcement action whatsoever is ever imposed upon the other party, unlike the State of Utah.

Increasingly many are struggling to pay for adults, who are not living at home or in full time school. MEP accepts little to no concrete proof, or false information, to substantiate the claim and continue Enforcement.

Politically many of you do not want to acknowledge these issues and either do not respond to these facts or reply with form letters of little substance and even less action.

We implore you to form a special Federal/Provincial task-force with both members of government and the public to study and work towards reform.

I appreciate your attention to this extremely important matter and look forward to your response.

Sincerely,

Hi Rhea,

It has taken some digging today to figure out where this complaint needs to be addressed. I believe that^{s.22} is referring to an adult probation officer who uses an office in our MCFD office in 100 Mile to meet with adult clients. This needs to go to PSSG as the allegation of breach would be within their staff. Although^{s.22} the probation officer would be PSSG.

Thanks

Good morning Nimmi. I'm following up on the request below. I'm not sure if I received the correct PDF of records, as there seem to be a lot of emails in there that were not 'sent' by Charlotte (these might have been prepared for another file).

Can you please send me a revised set of records for Charlotte, for the following request wording:

All emails, text messages, blackberry message, slack message, WhatsApp messages – excluding attachments – sent from the Minister's Administrative Assistant(s), where such a position exists and was staffed. (Date Range for Record Search: From 02/01/2018 To 02/28/2018).

Thank you, have a great day.

Hi Nimmi. Thank you for the records, however, it appears that some of them are not responsive. The request is for records sent from the AA. At a quick glance, there are records that weren't sent from Charlotte.

Can you please have the search done again, and send me the revised records as soon as possible.

Thank you,
Samara

Hi Samara,

Here is the second set of records for other AA Charlotte Hunt. Again if you could limit sharing these records with either Charlotte directly or myself or Liam in the office. Please don't share these records with anyone else in our office as there are HR privacy concerns.

Thanks very much again for your help!

Subject: Call for Records PSS-2018-82544 Due April 17, 2018

Please note this is a cross-government request.

Please find attached a Call for Records form that is electronic, fillable and saveable. The form has active links and pull-down menus. Please send your records in one PDF document, to the Justice/Social mailbox at justice.social.foi@gov.bc.ca. Thank-you.

Your Ministry has received a formal request made under the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (FOIPPA). The request is for:

All emails, text messages, blackberry message, slack message, WhatsApp messages – excluding attachments – sent from the Minister's Administrative Assistant(s), where such a position exists and was staffed. (Date Range for Record Search: From 02/01/2018 To 02/28/2018).

Please contact the analyst assigned to this request if you have any questions – Samara Fisher 250 953-3622 (not to be confused with me, Sandra L. Fisher, Junior Analyst).

What Do You Need to Do?

Please complete the attached Call for Records form.

- If search and retrieval time is anticipated to exceed 3 hours and/or the total volume of records exceeds 200 pages, complete only Sections 1 & 2 of the Call for Records Form as we may be in a position to issue a fee estimate. Then, return the form to the Justice/Social FOI Mailbox at justice.social.foi@gov.bc.ca by April 11, 2018. Please await further instruction from IAO as the records will not be required until the fee estimate process has been completed. Once fees have been paid or waived, you will be contacted to continue the call for records process. You will also be advised you if the request is abandoned and/or closed.

- If no fees apply then proceed with the call for records process. Please complete the attached Call for Records Form and return it to the Justice/Social FOI Mailbox at justice.social.foi@gov.bc.ca by April 17, 2018. Send records via email in PDF format. One PDF document is preferable. If email is not possible, please send the records in electronic format (CD, memory stick) via house mail with a copy of this note.

Reminder

You should be aware that FOIPPA obligates us to assist the applicant and to respond without delay, openly, accurately, and completely. In the event that the ministry must defend the adequacy of its search to the Information and Privacy Commissioner at Inquiry, those involved in searching for records may be required to sign affidavits confirming they have conducted an adequate search for relevant records.

Questions and Concerns

Please do not hesitate to contact your analyst noted on the attached Call for Records form to discuss:

- whether the records may be routinely releasable;
- whether the information is being prepared for public release or is already publicly available;
- ways in which an applicant may want to narrow/focus their request to reduce potential fees;
- and/or any other questions or concerns relating to this request.

Thank you for your assistance,

As requested, here is a package with all final materials.

FYI – given that we only have a few RSVP's so far, I am going to respond to Marlene that we should keep the event on the main floor as planned.... If space becomes an issue we can ask PSSG staff to stand to the side/periphery, and prioritize space for media, MLA's and other guests. Hope will be on hand to assist with that.

Also see note below from DIVERSECITY:

Our CEO, Neelam Sahota, is requesting a reciprocal communication "quote" from the Hon. Mike Farnworth to include in our own press release which we will send out immediately following his announcement at DIVERSECITY tomorrow.

Does MO have any issues with including his approved quote in their news release? I would ask for a copy in advance so we can see his quote in context.

Let me know if MO has other thoughts on the event set up and quote request

Thanks,
Jason

Hi all this looks good.

A couple thoughts- should we be mentioning something about prevention of violence against women's week in the NR? Can the Q&As also include government's fulfilled commitment of increasing funding for violence against women?

Please note MLA Singh has confirmed her attendance and that she is willing to emcee.

Few beaches outside Mexico and the Caribbean compare with our kilometres of near perfect sandy beaches at Parksville Bay and Rath Trevor Beach Provincial Park. With long sunny days, water temperatures may be as high as 20°C in the shallows and the flat beaches are safe for everyone in the family, even at high tide.

Beach access points are provided for the benefit of residents and the City's many visitors. The most prominent is from the Community Park, a beachfront park of 15.7 hectares (39 acres). Other official access points are located at the ends of Doehle Street, Sutherland Crescent, McMillan Street and Rushton Avenue.

Hi Angella,

Here are some bullets and advice for the minister on taking this meeting:

Background on Vancouver Island Restorative Justice Association:

- Formed in 2009, the Vancouver Island Restorative Justice Association is a group of 18 RJ programs that operate on Vancouver Island, the Sunshine Coast and the Gulf Islands.

- All 18 member programs are non-profit, community-based organizations that deliver RJ programming free of charge.
 - o Of the 18 programs, 14 are long standing Community Accountability Programs (CAPs) that are funded by PSSG.
 - o Two of the programs (Ahousaht First Nation RJ and Alert Bay Community Justice Program) are Indigenous Justice Programs.

Hi Tanera

MDE agreed to attending this meeting yesterday when we met with this group. Are you able to check with his calendar and follow up with these folks for details? Minister Wilson Raybould will be in attendance as well.

Might be good to double check w MDE again in case there are any scheduling conflicts.

Thanks,

Hi Charlotte,

Thank you for the update. I have been receiving a lot of emails about the Kinder Morgan criminal charges issue as well, and I understand that the DAG will be presenting a template response that Criminal Justice Branch has drafted to the Minister today. We currently have an anti-SLAPP batch in progress. You can send all of the emails to me and I'll review and batch log them.

Hi Kim,

I've spoken with Legal Counsel to the ADAG Alisia Adams and Communications Counsel Dan McLaughlin, and they both agree that this would be better addressed by PSSG. Sentencing is determined by the sentencing judge. PSSG may want to address the issue of facilities and capacity.

Let me know if the MO agrees, or if there are any questions.

Hi Arora,

Any comments on messaging for this message from a constituent?

I am writing to let you know of my frustration in the slow progress and what appears to be neglect on the part of the province in terms of cycling and the changes to the motor vehicle act.

I am equally frustrated with the premiers priority on dealing with Ride Sharing and Uber when cyclists have been lobbying for changes to the MVA long before Ride Sharing was a concept.. Why they have jumped the queue is suspicious.

Please speak for me to your colleagues and champion the cause for a more inclusive MVA.

Mr Eby

At what point will the province make changes which will actually deter or penalize novice drivers for a blatant disregard for safety. These spoiled kids don't care about public safety, it's quite obvious. Either keep their cars and auction them or take their driving "privilege" away for a minimum of a year. They must understand that driving is a privilege. Novice drivers are inexperienced in most cases. Why wouldn't driving 100km/h over the legal limit be an automatic forfeiture of privilege.

<https://www.vancouverisawesome.com/2018/04/11/novice-driver-101km-over-limit/>

A fine and one week impound is no deterrent to these people. The money is spare change and the lost time, a minor inconvenience. Give your head a shake if you think it's a fair penalty. The safety of the public is your responsibility. Let's not have an innocent family hurt because one of these guys slams into their sedan. This is your watch. Change us your responsibility.

Good afternoon –

On behalf of Mark Collison, director, government relations and health promotion in BC at Heart & Stroke, I am writing to request a 30-minute meeting with Minister Farnworth and Parliamentary Secretary for Emergency Preparedness Jennifer Rice.

Minister Judy Darcy suggested that we meet with Minister Farnworth and PS Rice to discuss measures to protect automated external defibrillators (AEDs) in BC.

With Mark, will be Dr. Jim Christenson, head of emergency medicine at UBC. Since Dr. Christenson is only here on April 12, we were wondering if the minister and PS Rice might be available in the morning before our AED Awareness Day event at the Legislature at noon that day.

If Minister Farnworth is not available, would it be possible to meet with Liam Lawson or Nimmi Takkar?

Many thanks and enjoy your Easter long weekend.

Kind regards,
Mary

Hi s.22 This is in response to your enquiry regarding the carrying of students and equipment on school buses.

Students and equipment may be carried in the same bus. Luggage must be secured as set out in s. 35.09 of B.C. Reg. 25/58, Motor Vehicle Act Regulation. I have included a link to the regulation.

http://www.bclaws.ca/civix/document/id/complete/statreg/26_58_11#division_d2e32033

The regulation reads:

Carrying luggage in bus passenger compartments

- 35.09 (1)A person must not drive or operate on a highway a bus or school bus that is transporting passengers and carrying luggage or other equipment in the passenger compartment unless the luggage and other equipment
- (a)do not block or intrude on any aisle or exit,
 - (b)are carried in overhead racks which
 - (i)are designed and adequately constructed for the purpose of carrying luggage and equipment,
 - (ii)are equipped with
 - (A)elastic rope or cord,
 - (B)doors which secure in the closed position by a positive latching mechanism, or

- (C) a rigid vertical edge or side of a height equal to 1/2 of the remaining opening,
 - (iii) extend from the side of the bus to no further than the centreline of the aisle row of forward facing seats, and
 - (iv) are free of any projections,
 - (c) are stowed under a seat against a barrier that is constructed and placed so that it prevents the luggage and other equipment from sliding forward in the event of an emergency stop,
 - (d) are carried on a passenger's lap, or
 - (e) are carried in a luggage compartment enclosed on all sides.
- (2) For the purpose of subsection (1) (b) (iii), the centreline of the aisle row of seats on a school bus is 20 cm outboard from the inboard edge of each bench seat.
- (3) A person must not load a vehicle so as to
- (a) obscure the driver's view ahead or to the right or left side,
 - (b) interfere with the free movement of the driver's arms or legs,
 - (c) obstruct access to emergency equipment, or
 - (d) interfere with the safe operation of the vehicle in any other manner.

You can contact me if you require further information.

Hi Angella,

Rob Ferrier, Program Manager, has asked if this could be changed to a reply direct response. I'm assuming we were asked for an SG response because Minister Farnworth was contacted as an MLA, but this is really an issue that needs to be resolved within the strata and our response would be so short that Rob feels it wouldn't look good coming from the Minister.

Thanks,

Crime information request

Greetings
s.22

Today There are too many criminals driving around and shooting guns.

I am addressing the issue of information request from law enforcement agencies.
However I found that townhouse bylaws are counter productive and oppose my efforts to help police.

The bylaws are outdated due conservative attitudes. No cameras allowed.

I have the desire to assist the police with adoption of my proposals but I want you to give me an opinion if the proposals are feasible.

For example ...

Training Block Watch members on how to use ! digital video surveillance devices.

Available Financial incentive to purchase dv recorder kits

Special permits to Block Watch captains in condos and townhouses from Strata council and approval from law enforcement.

s.22

. But The situation has worsened.

Hi Leah,

I do not think that a response is required to this incoming. The writer has received responses from all three Ministers, and in fact she appears to be pleased with MPSSG response. And she expresses her hope for changes in slowing down traffic.

There is not anything different or extra that we can add to what has been already said.

I suggest to file this incoming.

Anna

I see that Talea has directed that a response be drafted. Can you please check with Angella on what the regular protocols are? This is simply a thank you card for a meeting the Minister had with the organization. Since then, the Minister had lunch with them in the legislative dining room on April 16 and introduced the executive of the BCCA board in the House prior to Question Period that same day.

I suggest that no response is necessary for this one but we of course if someone thinks it's necessary.

Thanks Agnes

Subject: Update to: EventChain - Solution to Combating Ticket Scalping, Ticket Bots and Other Key Event Industry Issues

Dear Mr. Farnworth, Honourable Minister of Public Safety & Solicitor General - Port Coquitlam

I am touching base again as you may not have received my earlier email of March 19, since I sent it prior to your two week session break.

Ticket scalping, ticket bots and other key security problems inherent in the event industry are the focus of our software solution which uses Blockchain and Smart Contract technology to combat these issues.

Since my last email, Ashton Addison CEO EventChain International, was the opening keynote speaker at this year's TechLaw conference in Singapore. The closing keynote speaker was Brad Smith, President and Chief Legal Officer, MICROSOFT. : <https://techlawfest.com/>

Since EventChain development commenced in July 2017, we have met all of our development milestones and are on target for full production release on August 31, this year.

Would you be interested in a brief call to explore how or whether our project could be used to help accelerate your initiative for addressing these issues?

We are but one; but much like Robin Hood, no matter the odds; we are committed and relentless in our pursuit to fight for the right of everyday people to support professionals and industries by attending their events, without being fleeced and to raise meaningful barriers to criminal activities that typically plague the industry.

Who are we? We are Click4Time, an 8 year established software developer and global online service provider in the service sector for scheduling and business management optimization. Our solution is EventChain SmartTickets at EventChain.io

Ashton Addison has been published as one of the top thirteen experts and influencers in Blockchain technology and the community worldwide. EventChain International SmartTickets is based in Vancouver B.C.

My name is Geoffrey Spooner, partner, director and owner of Click4Time and VP Sales & Marketing EventChain

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Subject: Update to: EventChain - Solution to Combating Ticket Scalping, Ticket Bots and Other Key Event Industry Issues

Dear Mr. Farnworth, Honourable Minister of Public Safety & Solicitor General - Port Coquitlam

I am touching base again as you may not have received my earlier email of March 19, since I sent it prior to your two week session break.

Ticket scalping, ticket bots and other key security problems inherent in the event industry are the focus of our software solution which uses Blockchain and Smart Contract technology to combat these issues.

Since my last email, Ashton Addison CEO EventChain International, was the opening keynote speaker at this year's TechLaw conference in Singapore. The closing keynote speaker was Brad Smith, President and Chief Legal Officer, MICROSOFT. : <https://techlawfest.com/>

Since EventChain development commenced in July 2017, we have met all of our development milestones and are on target for full production release on August 31, this year.

Would you be interested in a brief call to explore how or whether our project could be used to help accelerate your initiative for addressing these issues?

We are but one; but much like Robin Hood, no matter the odds; we are committed and relentless in our pursuit to fight for the right of everyday people to support professionals and industries by attending their events, without being fleeced and to raise meaningful barriers to criminal activities that typically plague the industry.

Who are we? We are Click4Time, an 8 year established software developer and global online service provider in the service sector for scheduling and business management optimization. Our solution is EventChain SmartTickets at EventChain.io

Ashton Addison has been published as one of the top thirteen experts and influencers in Blockchain technology and the community worldwide. EventChain International SmartTickets is based in Vancouver B.C.

My name is Geoffrey Spooner, partner, director and owner of Click4Time and VP Sales & Marketing EventChain

My direct line is 604-649-1978.

If interested, please call at your convenience.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully,

Geoffrey Spooner

Subject: FW: Updated TNG products as copies

Good afternoon,

- News Release
- Event Plan
- Agreement Frame mock up

I would like to point out the following adjustments that have been made – certainly we can discuss further:

News Release – we noticed that the NR used “Tripartite Agreement on Emergency Management” rather than the official MOU title “Emergency Management Agreement” - to keep consistent with the MOU, we have made the change.

We have also added British Columbia in front of BC Minister’s title, added Media Contacts section for TNG and BC as highlighted sections.

We will await for the outstanding quotes from BC and TNG

Event Plan – updated MC and provincial speakers as per your email last night. We also included in the timeline the presence of all TNG Chiefs at the easel to unveil the Agreement with speakers.

We also added a descriptor to the Traditional Territory and Language section to clarify that the traditional territory on which the event is being held is different from the language of the Indigenous guests involved with the event. And more photo options to include partners as we will share photos.

Q&A – Title of the document and content updated to reflect formal title of Agreement

Mock up – updated margins and plate. I will need a decision today to go out and purchase the frame– Catherine is fine with it.

We just had a call from s.22

She would like to know if the Province has a regulation around transporting Students & School Equipment together, in the bus. Or do they have to be transported separately?

She has looked at the Motor Vehicle Act online & could not find anything & she has contacted the Transportation Board & Minister of Transportation.

Is this something that you can help her with?
