

FOI Request PSS-2022-21018

Notes about the record:

- Each CVAP file may have multiple crime types recorded.
- CVAP records domestic violence under the broader category of assault in the information management system.
- There can be multiple applicants (victim and immediate family member) related to the same criminal incident
- A new program case management system was launched in January 2022 and does not currently have customized reports that can be identified where there are multiple offences
