Hi Kelly,

Ah, I dug into it a bit. It was the start of the response to the budget. Yes, we will work in some of the messaging to ensure that we are consistent.

I have attached the outline for your review. This may help Stepan when he discusses the key vision and themes with the minister. Give me a call if you have any questions or if it doesn't make sense.

Quick question – how am I connecting with PS Kahlon for our meeting tomorrow? Should I come to you and we can call him or is he back in Victoria?

Let me know,

Thanks!

At one point there was a document called Response to the Speech from the Throne that came through. It was very similar to the budget speech, and it was modified to read more like a budget speech.

Either way, I look forward to seeing the outline, for now, you can just send it to James and I. Also, I will send you key visions/themes when I get them from the Minister via Stepan.

Thanks Shannon!

Are you meaning the response to the budget? If so, yes there will be elements that I will include.

Let me put some finishing touches on the outline of the speech and I will send it through to Stepan and cc both you and James, if that works for you?

Yes, I will come over on Monday to review.

Hi Shannon,

Just wondering.....at this point are you working from the Response to the Speech from the Throne that was sent previously?

I have been in contact with Stepan about this who is over at UBCM with her right now. He is going to try and get some general themes/vision from her and then I will get back to you tomorrow. If you could use that to work with, then send a draft before the weekend, that would be great. Then we could meet on Monday morning to review and provide feedback.

Are you available Monday morning @ 11am for a quick meeting to look it over?

Thanks!

Hi Kelly and James,

I am preparing the response to the throne for the minister and would like to be able to have a quick conversation, if possible with the minister to go over the skeleton speech. I have a few items where I would like to include some personal notes and her vision for the key areas within the ministry.

I am thinking a quick conversation would work and can be available at any time that she is available.

Thank you in advance for your assistance,

Here is Dan's from last year:

My A-List; MP Dan Ruimy

After nearly 12 months as the Member of Parliament for Pitt Meadows-Maple Ridge, I have learned many things, but perhaps one of the most important has been the ongoing reinforcement of the importance of community engagement.

When I initially campaigned on providing a space to promote community discussion, where people could have their say and voice their opinions, I knew this was incredibly important.

Now as an MP, every time I engage with the community, I feel as though I become an even stronger representative in Ottawa for our community.

Listening to the people you serve is at the heart of any successful government. It's one of the many reasons I have held three town halls and a dozen roundtable discussions; why I go to schools to visit students; why I met all the amazing Canada Summer Jobs students in our riding; and it's why I am launching a Constituency Youth Council.

Listening and interacting with each member of our constituency instills in me a deeper understanding of who we are as a community. So, I would like to thank you for attending our town halls, inviting me to your events, sending me your emails, and engaging with me on social media. I am so proud to represent our community, and as I approach what will surely be a productive second year in Parliament, I will continue to represent Pitt Meadows-Maple Ridge to the best of my abilities, supporting residents where they need it the most.

I look forward to seeing you soon.

Thanks,

Dan Ruimy, MP Pitt Meadows-Maple Ridge

Lisa,

We are soon to publish our annual A-List, a special section in which readers voted on their favourite things about Maple Ridge and Pitt Meadows, from businesses to sights to professionals.

I am wondering if you would be interested in submitting a brief summary about what you like best about the local community, your own A-List, about whatever you want.

If so, we would require about 350 words, due Sept. 26.

Let me know.

Hi Carolyn,

We were just brainstorming a few more potential questions for the town hall and I came up with these. Could you have a look and develop a Ministry response?

1. Your mandate letter mentions establishing an 'arts infrastructure fund' to help provide space for B.C. Artists. How and when will I see that commitment played out in my community?
2. Your mandate letter directs you to work with the Minister of Municipal Affairs and Housing to develop a community capital infrastructure fund to upgrade and build sports facilities, playgrounds, local community centres and arts and culture spaces? Have you started this work and/or when will our community start to see this in action? Will there be funding we apply for?

THANKS!!!!!!

Kelly,

I want to see if this request from Amy Thacker can possibly be fulfilled. Amy spent three days touring the minister through Cariboo in August for your background.

I don't want to get in the way of messing the calendar for UBCM but if the DMO thinks this meeting is possible it would be good to make it happen. It would also be good for you to meet Amy.

Hi Stepan,

Apologies on the delay getting back to you – s.22 – catching up now!

Attached is some of the background on the TNG file I promised. Notes on operators you can speak to will follow.

I was wondering if there is any chance for the meeting with the Minister and MIRR Minister next week, prior to UBCM. There are some quickly unfolding pieces on this file – with new federal government engagement and the liberal critics meeting with our operators. In addition, I will be in attendance at UBCM if there is a need for any in person connecting.

Thanks!
Amy

At this point we are in the process of scheduling a meeting with MLB and Minister Joly.

I anticipate getting confirmation about that by the end of the day. As soon as I do, I will let you know, so that background information can start being prepared, as this clearly will be an important meeting.

Hello Kelly.

As discussed with James last week, I have on my docket to establish a daily morning Issues Briefing, which will include the MO (either or both of you as you prefer), the DM, and the Min or PS as she/he prefers or is available.

This is standard practice for comms for all ministries.

The daily Issues Briefing covers the hot issues of the day in news and upcoming media.

I have been awaiting confirmation of my full permanent weekly meeting schedule from the DM to confirm the morning time for this meeting.

It is currently slated at 8:30, and – as discussed with James – I expect to start the briefings on Monday October 2nd, once the UBCM is over.

You will receive a meeting notice from either myself or the DM once I have confirmed the details of time for the conference call.

With best regards
Carolyn

Hi Carolyn,

Thanks for letting me know.

It is unfortunate we weren't fully in the loop, as it was quite a significant announcement and feels like a missed opportunity.

I'm thinking it might be good to have a quick 5 minute chat each morning – just to review the day ahead and make sure nothing is missing.

Probably better to set that up on the daily and cancel if we have to, then miss something.

Would that work for both of you?

Say – 8:30am?

Hello Kelly

Thanks for your note.

My apologies - I should have sent a heads up note to you and James on Friday evening.
In the melee, it slipped my mind.

Yes - on Saturday the much-delayed release re: film numbers was finally sent out.

This release was reviewed by myself and James Infante a week ago Friday.

It was then repeatedly delayed.

Late on Friday afternoon, after intercession by both the DM and Sarah Zaharia with a sister department..
The release received approval at last to go out at around 8pm.
And was sent out early Saturday, in time before the Minister's speech to the film industry Saturday evening.

Again - my apologies.

It was a mad flurry at the end, and other fires were burning at the same time.

Hello MAs,
Following on our call this morning, here is what you will need to have ready for you ministers for the UBCM town halls.

- 1) Opening remarks – 2 minutes
  - Who they are
  - What their mandate is and how it connects to the partnerships they hope to build with municipalities
- 2) Top level issues sheet

-messages on what you think they will likely be asked/ top issues

3) Issues binder

-Could be helpful to have on hand to review beforehand

4) 3-4 questions for your minister (for practice)

-prepare a few questions you think your minister could be asked for the practice session.

The town hall practices will take place on Tuesday at 5:15pm, locations TBD. There will be 4 concurrent sessions, in the same groupings as the Wednesday town halls:

- Health and Safety: Ministers: Eby, Farnworth, Dix, Darcy, Sims, in that order,

- Infrastructure and Economic Development: Ministers: James, Trevena, Robinson, Bains and Beare

Facilitators will give advice on answering difficult questions, then we will run through a practice with the questions you have prepared.

Please let me know if your minister is unable to attend the practice session or if you have any other questions.

Hello MAs,

Following on our call this morning, here is what you will need to have ready for you ministers for the UBCM town halls.

- 1) Opening remarks – 2 minutes
  - Who they are
  - What their mandate is and how it connects to the partnerships they hope to build with municipalities
- 2) Top level issues sheet
  - messages on what you think they will likely be asked/ top issues
- 3) Issues binder
  - Could be helpful to have on hand to review beforehand
- 4) 3-4 questions for your minister (for practice)
  - prepare a few questions you think your minister could be asked for the practice session.

The town hall practices will take place on Tuesday at 5:15pm, locations TBD. There will be 4 concurrent sessions, in the same groupings as the Wednesday town halls:

- Health and Safety: Ministers: Eby, Farnworth, Dix, Darcy, Sims, in that order,
- Investing in People: Ministers: Fleming, Mark, Fraser, Simpson, Conroy
- Infrastructure and Economic Development: Ministers: James, Trevena, Robinson, Bains and Beare
- Jobs, Resources and Green Communities: Ministers: Popham, Mungall, Donaldson, Heyman, Ralston, Chow

Facilitators will give advice on answering difficult questions, then we will run through a practice with the questions you have prepared.

Please let me know if your minister is unable to attend the practice session or if you have any other questions.

Thanks,

Hi,

Would you folks please do up a New Release for Wednesday speaking to the fact that BC is the most amazing tourist destination in the world and that we are open for business. Maybe not in those words exactly, but you get my point. I think it's important BC make a statement on World Tourism Day. James and I were also thinking it might be a good idea for Lisa to do a video message that could be put on the website. I'm not sure if you can make that happen since she is in Vancouver, but if so, it would be great.

Attached is the budget I provided to Stepan the other day. To date only approximately $200 in office expenses have been processed for your office all other expenditures were incurred pre-July reorganization. Your office budget and all associated expenditures were transferred from the former Ministry of Natural Gas Development.

All MO expenses, including travel claims, are processed through the Ministry of Finance. I have confirmed with Finance, Cindy McKinstry, that there are no outstanding travel claims pending processing. I would recommend you submit any outstanding claims for processing as soon as possible to get through the GL (ie. Minister's travel to Quebec).

Let me know if you have any questions regarding the budget.

Thank you.

Greetings,

I would love to invite Minister Beare to our upcoming conference in Wells, BC - the 3rd Annual Northern Exposure Conference October 12 - 15. Northern Exposure brings together rural arts, culture and festival organizers for networking, sharing ideas and learning opportunities. It also features musical showcases. I believe Minister Beare had an opportunity to meet Paul Crawford earlier this year, who runs the Penticton Art Gallery. He is also very involved with our organization, sitting on the board and being a founding member of the ArtsWells Festival, which we run.

There are a few of topics we are focussing on this year. Indigenous engagement, social media/communications and emergency preparedness (many of us in the Cariboo were heavily impacted by the wildfires, thus learning how to prepare for these emergency situations is top of mind).

Our schedule is available here: <http://support-imarts.com/northern-exposure/>

We are bringing in facilitator Kelly Poirier from White Raven Consulting. She will try her best to “unconference” the conference in order to make open space for discussion and collective story gathering.

Let me know if you, or anyone from the ministry might be available.

Thanks for your time!
Julie

Hi Kelly,

It was nice meeting you today. I did a search on what we discussed, but could not find a news item similar to what you described. I did, however, find this piece below on the impacts of the wildfires on tourism in BC's southern Interior that does touch on having a strategy for tourism in that region. I will include this in tomorrow's clips and will continue to watch for what comes through our news folks.

Thanks,

Hi Kelly –

It was nice meeting you the other day. Below is an invitation to the Minister for an upcoming conference in Wells, BC. Normally, these types of requests are sent directly to the Minister or MA but I am told there is some trouble with the contact information on the website (I think it currently goes to the Minister of Municipal Affairs instead TAC) so instead, folks are sending these requests to my staff. In the meantime, I will forward them to you unless you advise otherwise – should they go to James or ? Please let me know your preference so I can advise staff. Thanks.

Subject: Invitation to Northern Exposure, October 12 - 15, Wells, BC

Greetings,

I would love to invite Minister Beare to our upcoming conference in Wells, BC - the 3rd Annual Northern Exposure Conference October 12 - 15. Northern Exposure brings together rural arts, culture and festival organizers for networking, sharing ideas and learning opportunities. It also features musical showcases. I believe Minister Beare had an opportunity to meet Paul Crawford earlier this year, who runs the Penticton Art Gallery. He is also very involved with our organization, sitting on the board and being a founding member of the ArtsWells Festival, which we run.

There are a few of topics we are focussing on this year. Indigenous engagement, social media/communications and emergency preparedness (many of us in the Cariboo were heavily impacted by the wildfires, thus learning how to prepare for these emergency situations is top of mind).

Our schedule is available here: <http://support-imarts.com/northern-exposure/>

We are bringing in facilitator Kelly Poirier from White Raven Consulting. She will try her best to “unconference” the conference in order to make open space for discussion and collective story gathering.

Let me know if you, or anyone from the ministry might be available.

Thanks for your time!

Julie

Hi Stepan and James,

While I was in Vancouver I forgot that I was supposed to get the laptop from you, Stepan. I wonder if there is anyway you two could coordinate so that James could bring it back for Monday. If not, no worries...we could probably put it on the Harbour Air....

I definitely need it though as this laptop I have will still not work wirelessly.

Thanks and I hope you both have a great weekend!!!

Hi Carolyn,

Just to keep you in the loop, it's my understanding that Ministers Joly and Beare will be meeting the morning of Friday, October 6th in downtown Vancouver. The coordination is now happening directly between their respective offices. Thanks again for your help in connecting me with Kelly.

Cheers,

Hi Carolyn,

Nice to meet you, if only virtually at the moment.

The Minister of Canadian Heritage, the Honourable Mélanie Joly, will be coming to Vancouver next month on Oct 5+6. My team is working with her office to manage her itinerary.

There is an interest in organizing an in-person meeting with Minister Beare, if time permits. Her schedule is still fluid at this point, and I know that the Legislature is sitting in Victoria as well, but I was hoping we might connect to discuss what might be possible? I had been informed previously that Minister Beare would be willing to travel over to the mainland, so I'm hopeful that is still the case. Unfortunately, Minister Joly's schedule does not permit her to go to Victoria.

At this juncture, there is flexibility possibly for a dinner meeting the evening of Oct 5, and a lunch or dinner meeting on Oct 6. If mealtimes are tricky, there may be some wiggle room on the afternoon of Oct 6.

I'd be grateful for an opportunity to speak with you on Monday, if you have a few free minutes.

Have a great weekend.

Cheers,

Anna

Hey, attached for your review is the IN for Parq Vancouver.

New information is just coming in about there being a potential protest outside the 9am or 6pm events. This is what I know:

- Food and beverage workers at the Edge Water Casino were unionised.
- With the transfer of the Casino to Parq Vancouver, food & beverage positions are no longer unionized.
- Food and beverage employees were given the option to change jobs to other union positions at the Parq Vancouver casino.
- Overall, the new casino has more union positions at Parq Vancouver than it did at Edge Water.

Here is the background that I have on the issue thus far:

- In February 2016, Edgewater informed Unifor and all Edgewater food service employees that when Parq Vancouver opened, all food and beverage functions outside of the hotels would be managed by a third party, as the scope and scale of Parq's food & beverage program needed to be realized and managed by a recognized expert. Parq Vancouver includes eight separate food & beverage venues, each of which is a unique, stand-alone facility catering to the dining and beverage needs and expectations of Parq's diverse customer base.
- In June 2017, Parq Vancouver announced that Blau Restaurant Associates LP, a highly respected restaurateur, would manage the Parq food and beverage venues. Founded by Elizabeth Blau and her husband, Chef Kim Canteenwalla, the Blau group are generally acknowledged as being the catalyst for the "celebrity chef" direction top tier restaurants have taken over the last decade.
- All Edgewater food & beverage employees have been offered the choice of either transitioning to BA Restaurant Holdings LTD or staying in the collective bargaining unit and transitioning to casino or customer service positions.
- 50 of the 84 Edgewater food & beverage union employees have decided to work for Elizabeth Blau, as it will give them extensive opportunities to learn the restaurant business through exposure to a wide spectrum of cuisines created by top tier chefs and culinary experts, with excellent opportunities for advancement. The other F+B employees were internal transfers to the casino or resigned.
- Parq Casino will have 700 employees in the collective bargaining unit, an increase of 121 union members over the Edgewater Casino.
- Parq Vancouver will employ 1,694 full time equivalent associates, which equates to approximately 2,078 full time and part time jobs, with a projected annual payroll of approximately $85M.

REPLIES TO GLOBE AND MAIL QUERY re: TAX CREDITS:

1.) How does the NDP government regard the production sector as a contributor to the economy and a job creator?

Our government sees the production sector as a pivotal part of the creative economy we want to build. B.C. is a top centre for screen-production excellence in North America. In 2016-2017, film and television production alone contributed $2.6 billion to our economy. Thousands of British Columbians have good employment in the film and television industry and the sector generates significant economic opportunity for local businesses and B.C. communities.

Over the past few weeks, I've met with industry leaders several times to find out more about how our government can support the growth of BC's production industry.

2.) What plans if any does the NDP have for the current structure of tax credits for the production sector?

Our government is committed to supporting a competitive production industry.

3.) How in a nutshell does the government see the writers tax credit working? And why exactly is this a priority for the government?

The Premier highlighted this issue in my mandate letter. We are committed to expanding B.C.'s film tax credits to include B.C. writers, to ensure that the importance of talented scriptwriters is recognized. We are working on this, and will provide more details at the appropriate time.

4.) Will the writers tax credit be applicable to American productions? Or Canadian productions only?

We don't have details at this time.

The only problem with this is that we are still waiting for confirmation about the Minister Joly meeting and I haven't heard back yet. Not for lack of trying but I imagine they're pretty swamped with the recent announcement. Hold tight....

Claire & Jennifer,

We have been looking into opportunities on October 6 and there is not a lot happening that day in Maple Ridge but we have another option if the Minister is open to travelling.

The Canada Motion Picture Park studio is located at Boundary Road and Marnie Drive – about a 45 minute drive from Maple Ridge. On October 6 the film “Skyscraper” starring Dwayne (the Rock) Johnson will be in product at the studio and The Rock will likely be there. This could be an interesting opportunity for the Minister to see one of the largest facilities and backlots and meet the talent. The tour would like need to be closer to the end of the day and it would require 90 minutes.

Here is link to the studio: <http://cmppstudios.com/>

Let me know if this would be of interest and we will set it up.

Hi Kelly & James,

I have a strange request.

The Scotties tournament of hearts is coming up in February in Penticton. As part of the funding the organization will be providing eight jackets and shirts that we have to order by next week.

I am not sure who will be attending the event, but we are thinking it would be great to have jackets for Premier Horgan, MLB, and PS Kahlon. If they do not attend, we can likely do a group photo and / or greeting with the three of them. It at least gives us a bit of flexibility. The reason that I am asking is that we will need their sizes for the order and I don't want to even try guessing. I have placed the sizing chart below for reference.

Kelly – we can ask PS Kahlon if there is anyone else that we should include when we meet next week, but I think this would be a good start and then I will do a variety of sizing for the remaining.

I got a call tonight from Ian Bailey of the Globe.

So... I had thought that the Robert Everett-Green statement we sent out today re: any expectations on Joly announcement was all part of the same Globe piece... and that Bailey's request (which I received last Thursday or Friday evening) was therefore superceded by E-G.

However, I am wrong.

Separately, Ian Bailey is working on a story focussed on tax credits for writers, and whether the new government will extend those tax credits to other writers.

Bailey would like to speak briefly with the Minister by phone tomorrow (Wednesday) for his article.

Is that at all do-able?

What do you think of that?

I am copying Sandra here as there has been considerable elevated concern - as you know - from the NAFTA team re: tax credits recently.

Bailey knows the Minister is in town at the UBCM and doesn't want to scrum her... he'd prefer a considered response.

What are your thoughts?

I told him I would reach out to you to see what may be do-able...

That I was not sure about the feasibility of a phone call...

But could also check whether a statement might be possible.

Let me know your thoughts.

Hi Ravi,

Although this seems like a very worthwhile event. I think it would be best to send greetings/acknowledgement as the event is actually in Kaslo, not Victoria.

What do you think? ....especially since Minister Mungall will be there.

Hi Kelly,

I followed up with Kiran regarding this event directly because he had indicated that it was an event in Victoria. It is being held in Kaslo located on Kootenay Lake near Nelson. Kaslo is absolutely beautiful in the fall and the Langham museum has an incredible history around the Japanese internments.

Please let me know if either the PS of MLB will be attending and I will follow up with the organizers and prepare any background and SNs.

Hello,

I am forwarding this event to MLA Kahlon in his role as Parliamentary Secretary for Sport & Multiculturalism. MLA Mungall wanted him to know about the event and extend an invitation on the organization's behalf, but understands the difficulty of travelling during a holiday weekend. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Dear
Michelle Mungall
MLA
, and NDP
Nelson-Creston
community office members,

Maggie Tchir
here from the Langham Cultural Society in Kaslo. Firstly, congratulations on your re-election this year. I am personally so pleased!
I am the coordinator of the 75th Anniversary of Japanese Canadian Internement at the Langham Cultural Society centre in Kaslo
this year, s.22
ED. He is great!

Paul Grace-Campbell is now our new

We rec'd a Heritage Canada grant this past year to commemorate this important Canadian and provincial anniversary. We have been showcasing several events this summer, but the big event will take place on Thanksgiving weekend, October 5 - 8, beginning on Thursday evening to Sunday morning.

I have attached the first round of PR that we have done this summer and will be doing another brochure in early September.

On behalf of our committee I would like to invite

you,

to join us on Friday evening, October 6th, for our GALA evening event of commemoration and celebration.

We would love to have you speak a few minutes about this important Canadian and provincial anniversary.

If

you cannot make it for the Friday Gala, there would be an opportunity to speak either on the first evening event, on Thursday October 5 during our reception before the film(s). OR at the Saturday cultural events and at the commencement of the PANEL Discussion MEMORY and REFLECTION on October 7. (see below for detailed information) and we welcome you to stay for the evening concert with Certified Mango, a local group, composed of musicians from the West Kootenay region. Having our MLA present at any of these events would be a wonderful honour and a great pleasure! You are invited to all activities!

Invitations have also gone out to Wayne Stetski, our MP and to the Village of Kaslo Mayor, Susan Hewatt and her Council and others, for opportunities to speak at this important Canadian / Provincial anniversary.

More details to help you understand the whole event and how it will unfold. ....

Earlier summer events include:

Canadian celebrated author, Joy Kogawa and the TASAI Artist Collective from Vancouver, who visited the Langham in early July. We just finished a cultural arts program this past weekend during the Columbia Basin Culture Tour, and on September 8 we will now be having Chuck Tasaka, an internee of Greenwood, come speak at our opening of the TAIKEN exhibition which is on loan to us through the Nikkei National Museum and Centre in Burnaby, TAIKEN - Japanese Canadians Since 1877 and MEMORIES FROM HOME

This is our tentative schedule of events for the big GALA weekend...

Thursday Oct 5 - wine and cheese / saki and sushi - Meet and Greet and Film(s) on Japanese Canadians.

Friday Oct 6 - a Haiku workshop, the play, JAPANESE PROBLEM, by a Vancouver theatre troupe, the viewing of TAIKEN, a traveling exhibition from the Nikkei National Museum and Centre, Burnaby, and a small extra exhibit on MEMORIES FROM HOME, with artifacts from Chuck Tasaka's and the Langham's collections.

Friday Evening - GALA reception with dignitaries

GALA performance with encore of JAPANESE PROBLEM, along with musicians and newly composed piece of music honouring the 75th Anniversary, speakers, the TAIKO drummers from Kelowna, dancers from Lethbridge etc... still in process of confirming everyone.

Saturday morning and afternoon - on going special TEA / cultural activities for all ages.. with TAIKO drummers, the theatre piece again, JAPANESE PROBLEM for general public viewing.

THEN.... Saturday Panel...

2:30 - 5 pm PANEL : MEMORY and REFLECTION examining the role of small museums such as the Langham - as a repository of memory and stories, BUT given the landscape of the world / and in Canada/ USA, where people of colour, other religions, and war torn refugees, the first nations people, and in general, those the dominant society think of as THE OTHER... will be the focus of our panel.

Our intent is to have a diverse offering of cultural activities on the weekend for special guests and also for our small community. The panel was an important part of our deliberations on the Japanese Canadian Museum committee... as we feel the topic of the panel and a discussion of how we treat each other and the idea of THE OTHER... is a very important current issue facing everyone. We would like the panel to speak to where we are now, but where we might put our collective energies in the future to make this very special small museum which we have in our collective , be more than just a repository of stories, but engage people to think about social justice and our cultural framework for not only Japanese Canadians but for all people.

OUR PANEL members include:

Dr. Bernadette Lynch who is coming from England. She used to live in Kaslo and began her career as the director of the Langham in the eighties. She was the person who worked with the Japanese Canadians in the area and with the village council, making Kaslo the first municipality to apologize to the Japanese Canadian community for what happened in the war. some links are:

Dr. Gerooge Takashima from Lethbridge, who is a pastor now, but who was involved for many years as an educator in Ontario. He and family were interned in the New Denver area during the war. He currently organizes bus tours into BC to the internment sites every year or every other year...

And the Landscapes of Injustice Project out of Victoria have agreed to speak with associate professor of history at the University of Victoria, Jordan Stanger-Ross and a MA candidate, Nicole Yakashiro

Yakashiro's interest and concern lies with the ways in which the Japanese Canadian internment is discussed and historicized, using her family's internment in Sandon as a geographical space which holds layers of historical injustice and / or trauma.

Mr. Stanger-Ross is a former Chair of the Canadian Committee on Migration, Ethnicity, and Transnationalism, which is affiliated with the Canadian Historical Association, and founded UVIC's Committee for Urban Studies, which initiated the interdisciplinary lecture series, The City Talks. Since founding Landscapes of Injustice, Stanger-Ross has edited a book, Witness to Loss: Race, Culpability, and Memory in the Dispossession of Japanese Canadians (McGill Queens University Press, 2017), with Pamela Sugiman, and written a number of articles, including, "Promises of Law: The Unlawful Dispossession of Japanese Canadians," Osgoode Hall Law Journal 54, 3 (2017), with Eric Adams, and "'My Land is worth a million dollars': How Japanese Canadians contested their dispossession in the 1940s" Law and History Review 35, 3 (2017), with Nicholas Blomley. He has also written on the topic in popular media, including, "Remembering promises – lessons from 75th anniversary of dispossession of Japanese Canadians" Vancouver Sun, 26 March 2017, with Eric Adams (also carried in the Calgary Herald, the Edmonton Journal, and the Montreal Gazette) and "Lessons from the Japanese Canadian Internments: Policies built on fear won't make us safer," Globe and Mail, 19 January, 2016, with Eric Adams and Laura Madokoro. In addition to directing the project, Stanger-Ross chairs both the Land Title & Government Records and Public History Website clusters.

And Dr. Mona Oikawa from U of York, Toronto Ontario

Professor Oikawa teaches and researches in the areas of critical race studies, gender, and cultural studies. She is currently researching Japanese Canadians' relationship to Canadian settler colonialism. She also conducts research on the Internment of Japanese Canadians.

The panel will take place on Saturday afternoon, after the cultural activities and before the evening concert with CERTIFIED MANGO.

The weekend events will close the next day, Sunday morning with Dr. George Takashima giving a Sunday service at the historic St. Andrews Church, which has long been associated with the internment.

The TAIKEN exhibition will be showing in the Lobby Gallery as well, throughout the weekend.

We very much hope that you,

our wonderful

will be able to come help us make this a truly great weekend of Memory and Reflection.

Hi Kelly,

So the CAN vs. the Maori All Blacks from New Zealand is happening on Nov. 3rd—The question from PSRK was whether John was attending, which I am assuming is not the case and whether we could do something for this event? Its coming up quick, I can see if PSRK has tickets but I haven't caught wind of any tickets coming our way.

Attached is some of the background on the TNG file I promised. Notes on operators you can speak to will follow.

I was wondering if there is any chance for the meeting with the Minister and MIRR Minister next week, prior to UBCM. There are some quickly unfolding pieces on this file – with new federal government engagement and the liberal critics meeting with our operators. In addition, I will be in attendance at UBCM if there is a need for any in person connecting.

Thanks!

This is a note in our communications outlook.

I am drawing it to your attention as something important.

There are a variety of ways we can handle this from a comms perspective.

But I first wanted to draw it to your attention, so that you and the Minister might consider the event.

I will be providing a major events outlook as part of our briefing meetings starting next week.

Because this and the Writers Fest are coming soon.,
I wanted to be sure to get in front of you now.

Either way, she won't be able to make it as the house will be sitting.

We would be interested in meeting with them at some point.....and/or would be happy to send greetings via video or otherwise.

But first, if you could let me know how this came to us, that would be great!

THANKS!

Hi Layne,

Two suggestions.....which are pretty obvious and are probably already in there, but just in case.....

- #1. Best ways to communicate and strategize with each other.....email/in-person/text/phone etc....
- #2. Always remembering to give a 'heads up' when an event for a particular Minister is in the riding of another Minister/MLA.

STATEMENT FROM MLB for G&M:

BC's creative industries are world-class, and deserve our whole-hearted support as they move forward in the digital age.
This is a dynamic time – with digital technologies reshaping our cultural landscape.
Our creative industries are enormously important to British Columbia.
In 2016-2017, film and television production alone contributed $2.6 billion to our economy.
We look forward to working with Minister Joly and the federal government to ensure that British Columbians can fully benefit from federal government programs which support the sector.

The sooner we can confirm, the easier it will be to prepare the information on the event. I will have the event plan today and meeting with the organizers tomorrow afternoon.
