Now to the next NR for – hopefully quick – quote approval. It goes out tomorrow at 9 a.m.

Would like to get to editors by 4 p.m. (best 3 p.m. )

"We're very pleased to support these national level golf tournaments because they attract international visitors and athletes, boost spending at local businesses, and provide great volunteer opportunities for residents," said Lisa Beare, Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture. "They also give communities valuable experience hosting national level competitions, which can help attract other major sporting events.” NOT APPROVED

Hi Folks – this is being sent out by FNLRO tomorrow at 3 p.m. and they've offered a quote to MLB. Here is the draft for review/ approval:

"This is great news for British Columbians and visitors that use off-road vehicles to enjoy the B.C. wilderness. Our vast network of coastal, rural and mountain trails is a strong attraction for those who are looking for the thrill of the outdoor ride on safer, more reliable trails." said Lisa Beare, Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture.
"Investments in these sorts of recreational activities not only mean a better experience for riders, but more jobs for British Columbians." NOT APPROVED

Hi James,

Attached is OCG's 2017/18 Ministerial Accountability Report certification for the minister's signature. This is required to release the ministerial holdback.

The memo includes a reconciliation of 2017/18 budgeted 'expected results' (a BMMAA term) to actual results, indicating the minister is entitled to the payment.

OCG has requested the signed copy be returned to their office by end of day Tuesday, June 12th. Please contact me with any questions or concerns.

Thank you
Jennifer

Hello!

The folks at AGRI sent us an NR this morning with below approved quote.

Hoping we can get fast turnaround... they want it back for tomorrow.

Minister of BC Tourism Honourable Lisa Beare
"I'm so glad to hear British Columbians and visitors engaged in BC Wine Month and made it such a big success," said Lisa Beare, Minister of Tourism,

Arts and Culture. "The quality and popularity of B.C. wines are putting our province on the destination lists of culinary tourism enthusiasts around the world – and this is great news for all B.C. tourism operators and the people who work for them. I'd like to toast everyone involved in BC Wine Month – from Destination BC to the hard-working people who staff the vineyards – well done." NOT APPROVED.

Full release attached.

=====DRAFT MLB
STATEMENT=====

I congratulate the United bid on their success.

Our government has a responsibility to ensure that B.C. taxpayers are not on the hook for hidden costs.

The Province carefully assesses all sport events for value to taxpayers.

The FIFA bid agreement contained clauses which the government felt left taxpayers at unacceptable risk of additional costs. We tried very hard to get assurances regarding our concerns. Unfortunately, those assurances were not forthcoming.

I am happy for Canadian soccer fans that some of the World Cup matches are coming to Canadian host cities.

Hi folks – sorry for this being late as its scheduled to go out on Monday. This is a release for funding for a CBC online program and they are eager to get this out on Monday to launch the program. We'll send you the final when we have it but want to make sure the quote works.

Trish

"I am delighted to see this innovative funding partnership between CBC and Creative BC," said Lisa Beare, Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture. "The Digital Production Fund will open doors for women and other underrepresented storytellers who often struggle to get financing and recognition for their work. I'm glad our government's funding will support these storytellers to hone their skills, create engaging new digital content and share it with CBC's growing online audience." NOT APPROVED

Hello!

Sorry about this... DBC is hoping to put a news release out tomorrow regarding an award they have won.

Pls find a quote for approval below:

"Congratulations to Destination BC for earning this prestigious honour, and for its leadership as a standard of excellence for tourism organizations across the province," said the Honourable Lisa Beare, Minister of Tourism, Arts & Culture. "Tourism is an integral part of B.C.'s culture and economy, employing more than 133,000 British Columbians. I am so pleased that the BC chapter of the American Marketing Association has recognized the hard work undertaken by DBC and other tourism businesses to bring visitors to the province and build B.C.'s thriving tourism industry." Not approved

When discussing plans/schedule for the summer with James and Korleen.....the following was proposed and I wanted to run it by you before we fully confirm.

Instead of doing strategic planning on Monday, July 30th and Tuesday, July 31st, we lock them in as CO days. This is primarily because not all of us can be there for strategic planning on those days and I think it's really important that we are all present when doing planning prep.

The week of August 13th – 17th is currently all scheduled for CO days.

So, we take the first two days – Monday, August 13th and Tuesday, August 14th and make them the strategic planning days.

Basically swapping two for two so we can all be present for planning.

What do you think?

Clearly this also rests on whether or not either Sandy or Claire are available.....I have just requested their holiday schedule and am expecting to get it by the end of day tomorrow.
