Hi Folks – I'm resending the NR for tomorrow for approval ASAP with an update quote for MLB if this works.

"The strategy offers renewed vision, values and strategic direction for the B.C. Arts Council," said Lisa Beare, Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture. "This plan will strengthen opportunities for British Columbians all across the province to participate and thrive in the creative economy today and in the future." (not approved)

We do need it approval for formatting with editors as soon as possible.

Thanks,

For approval.

NR has been reviewed and approved by program and DMO.

"This will be a very exciting, international competition," said Lisa Beare, Minister of Tourism Arts and Culture. "It will help cement Big White's reputation as a year-round destination for world class sporting events and provides a great boost to local tourism, bringing in thousands of visitors." NOT APPROVED.

Release is slated to go out Wednesday afternoon.

Suggested Statement on behalf of MLB:

This new strategic plan for the BC Arts Council outline the vision, values and strategic direction of the council for the next five years. The plan is the result of a comprehensive series of consultations conducted over three years with artists, cultural organizations, indigenous communities and representatives from across the province. It reflects a new approach designed to strengthen opportunities for British Columbians to better participate and thrive in B.C.'s creative economy both for today and for the future.

I'm proud of the work done by the BC Arts Council to develop a new Strategic Plan that will help enhance engagement with the indigenous arts community, improve sustainable and creative development, expand regional arts. This is a reflection of the strong commitment the Government of B.C. has in supporting arts and culture in B.C.

Hi Asha,

As discussed, here is a brief overview of the 45th Siggraph, Conference on Computer Graphics and Interactive Techniques which is being held in Vancouver August 12-16th.

SIGGRAPH 2018, which attracts 15,000 attendees from around the world, is a five-day conference into the latest innovations in CG, Animation, VR, Games, Digital Art, Mixed Reality and Emerging Technologies. There is also the business symposium, which Creative BC and the Province are the key sponsors of ($50,000). The Business Symposium, organized by SIGGRAPH takes place on Saturday August 11th and Sunday August 12th. The theme of the business symposium this year is exploring the intersection of Creativity and Technology. The audience, of about 200 VIPs will get to learn from feature speakers from multiple industries and backgrounds who will explore the intersection of technology, creativity and business.

There will also be programming for the international delegations during the conference that Creative BC and JTT will be funding ($25K Creative BC and $10K JTT – tbc). This will include 4 information/networking sessions, a networking reception, local company site visits (tbc) and a b2b program. JTT's IBD branch is also involved in helping to recruit international companies and connect them to B2B opportunities. JTT has also been asked to help find delegates to fill a couple of speaking roles at the Symposium Siggraph has outlined their plans to invite Minister Ralston and Minister Beare to speak at the Symposium. JTT has advised that Parliamentary Secretary for Technology Rick Glumac would like a role at the event and has been asked to attend on MBRs behalf. PSG has also asked to attend a meeting on June 25th with Creative BC and Siggraph to get more details on plans moving forward. I have asked to be included on the June 25th call, given TAC and Creative BC are the lead on Siggraph. Please let me know if you have any questions.

Hi Folks – As per below and attached, here are the Speaking Notes for MLB for the event on Tuesday at 1 p.m. (Mountain time). We are still waiting for the event details (location, itinerary, etc) but Amy is aware this is coming on Monday. Regional District is getting this together.

As well, as draft quote for MLB with News Release to come but you may want to wait for that. Wanted to get this all to you asap in advance of next week.

From MAH GCPE for Fernie Event:

Please see attached the SN and KM for Tuesday's event in West Fernie for a completion ceremony for the Regional District of East Kelowna's West Fernie Water System Project funded under the SCF.

Also, below is a draft quote for MLB. We are still waiting for the draft NR from the region, and as mentioned, we are also waiting for event logistics. This was put together in a hurry by the region, so a lot of TBC in back end of the SN (apologies).

Draft Quote for MLB:

"The new West Fernie water system is a great asset to the community and will make a positive impact in the lives of the people who live here. This is an example of how partnerships between all levels of government support communities to thrive and make life better for British Columbians."

Here is some background on the project:

The Regional District of East Kootenay (RDEK), will hold a celebration to mark the completion of the West Fernie Water System project, which received funding through the Small Communities Fund. The project provided funding to upgrade the existing West Fernie water system by making improvements to the water, wastewater, and storm water systems.

This project included:

- Upgrading the existing water distribution system including water mains, valves, fittings, services, fire hydrants, and water meters.
- The Stormwater System upgrade included installation new stormwater main, connections, catch basins, pump station and dewatering requirements.
- The Sanitary Sewer System upgrade included new sewer mains, connections, manholes, lift stations, and tie ins.
- Road reconstruction.
- Highway and road crossings for water, sewer, and storm; and
- Testing and commissioning of the works.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR: JULIE BEVAN

<image001.jpg>Julie Bevan is the Executive Director at Nanaimo Art Gallery, a post she took up in early 2012. Julie has been leading the Gallery through a significant transformation of its programs, spaces, capacity and roles in the community. Before choosing Nanaimo, Julie lived, worked, and studied in Canadian cities including Calgary, Vancouver and Ottawa. Julie has experience as a writer, curator, and educator, and has worked at museums including Glenbow Museum in Calgary, AB, and Morris and Helen Belkin Art Gallery in Vancouver, BC. She has served on peer advisory committees and juries for BC Arts Council and Canada Council for the Arts. In 2017, Julie was a fellow at the Getty Leadership Institute at Claremont Graduate University in California, an opportunity that was supported in part by a Professional Development Award from BC Arts Council. Julie holds a Masters of Arts degree in Art History (Critical and Curatorial Studies) from the University of British Columbia (2006), and a Bachelor of Arts in Art History (2004) from Carleton University in Ottawa. With her partner Chad, Julie is raising two creative and curious children.

PRESIDENT: DEBORAH GIUNIO-ZORKIN, BSC., MA

<image002.jpg>Deborah was born and raised in Nanaimo. She studied in Vancouver and Victoria, lived in Europe and South America returning to Canada to have her children. She moved back to Nanaimo in 1985 and worked alongside her father in Real Estate and Development for over 20 years. Currently, she has her own consulting business for mediation and conflict management. Deborah has been actively involved in downtown Nanaimo for the past 15 years with the Vancouver Island Symphony Boards, Downtown Nanaimo Partnership and now the Nanaimo Art Gallery board. Deborah has a great interest in art and enjoys painting, mostly with her grandchildren.

CURATOR: JESSE BIRCH

<image003.jpg>Jesse Birch has worked as a curator, artist, writer and educator. He holds a Bachelor's Degree in Fine Arts Photography) from Emily Carr (2001), and a Masters of Arts degree in Art History (Critical and Curatorial Studies) from the University of British Columbia (2008). In 2007, he was a curatorial fellow at de Appel arts centre in Amsterdam, and was Co-Director/Curator of Access Gallery in Vancouver from 2008 to 2010. Birch maintains an active practice as a writer, and has published in art magazines including C Magazine and fillip. In 2013, he received the Art Writing Award from Ontario Association of Art Galleries for his essay on artist Kika Thorne for the Art Gallery of Windsor. From 2009 to 2013, Birch taught at Emily Carr University of Art and Design in the Critical and Cultural Studies faculty. Before accepting the position in Nanaimo, Birch was Exhibitions Curator at The Western Front (Vancouver). He has served on the Board of the Or Gallery (Vancouver) and as treasurer of the Pacific Association of Artist Run Centres.

INDIGENOUS EDUCATION COORDINATOR: ARLENE DEPTUCK

<image004.jpg>Arlene is proud and honoured to belong to the Ganhada (Raven) family of the Kitsumkalum (People of the Robin) community within the Tsimshian Nation and is grateful to live, work, and make art in Snuneymuxw and Snanawwas ancestral lands. The rich and vibrant philosophies of her Tsimshian nation, as well as other Indigenous communities she has had the honour to work with, inspire her commitment to engage in better understandings with all Canadians as we navigate the waters of positive change. Arlene is passionate about art, languages and learning and will share an Indigenous greeting when you meet her!

CURATORIAL INTERN

<image005.jpg>Emma Sise recently completed her BFA at Concordia University in Montreal with a major in Fibres and Material Practices and a minor in Art History. An interest in inclusivity and learning through play in the gallery space has led her toward making works and curating shows that underline tactility, performance, and the lived experiences of objects. As a member and co-director of the Concordia Fibres Student Association, she organized and curated multiple exhibitions, and workshops on traditional and experimental textile techniques. Sise's practice encompasses a studio-practice, curation, writing and publications, and performance. Her work is also informed by a recent interest in permaculture.

NEWS RELEASE

Cowichan Valley welcomes B.C. athletes to the 2018 Summer Games

DUNCAN - More than 2,000 of the province's best young athletes are arriving in the Cowichan Valley for the opening of the 2018 BC Summer Games, and the chance to compete for glory in 18 sports.

"Like British Columbians all over the province, I'm inspired by the athletes participating in the Summer Games. I am especially happy to see more First Nations athletes in this year's Games," said Lisa Beare, Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture. "Along with medals and personal bests, competitors will leave the Games with new friendships and new experiences which will last a lifetime. Through sport, we're building a better British Columbia."

The 2,373 athletes - who are, on average, 14 years old - earned their entry to the BC Summer Games by participating in qualification events around British Columbia. The athletes are supported by 2,500 volunteers, 453 coaches and 246 officials, who will ensure participants have the best possible competitive experience at the Summer Games.

"As we celebrate the 40th anniversary of the BC Games, I am so proud of our successful history of sport and community development," said Kelly Mann, CEO and president of the BC Games Society. "With an eye to the future, I am equally proud of how the Games are expanding, with a focus on inclusion and reconciliation, and creating lasting legacies in every community and across the province."

Cowichan 2018 BC Summer Games is supported with $625,000 in base funding from the Province, and funding from local partners - the Cowichan Valley Regional District, School District No. 79 and Cowichan Valley businesses. The event, which runs July 19-22, 2018, is expected to attract thousands of visitors, and generate $2 million for the local economy.

"We are thrilled to host this exciting multi-sport event for youth," said Jennifer Woike, president of the Cowichan Games Society. "It's a great opportunity to share Cowichan Valley's warm hospitality and great sports facilities with people from every corner of B.C. I hope all the athletes, coaches and officials have a wonderful time, and look for opportunities to visit us again."

The BC Summer and Winter Games were established in 1978 to bring young people around B.C. together through sport and friendship. Former BC Games participants who have gone on to compete for Team Canada at the Olympic or Paralympic Games include:

- * William Dean (rowing)
- * Brent Hayden (swimming)
- * Bo Hedges (wheelchair basketball)
- * Georgia Simmerling (ski cross and cycling)
- * Kirsten Sweetland (triathlon)

Quick Facts:

- * The 31st BC Summer Games takes place in the Cowichan Valley, which previously hosted the BC Winter Games in 1991.
- * Competitors represent eight geographic zones: Kootenays (Zone 1), Thompson-Okanagan (Zone 2), Fraser Valley (Zone 3), Fraser River (Zone 4), Vancouver Coastal (Zone 5), Vancouver Island-Central Coast (Zone 6), Northwest (Zone 7) and Cariboo-North East (Zone 8).
- * To date, 38 communities have hosted BC Summer and Winter Games.
- * The Cowichan 2018 BC Summer Games participants will compete in athletics, baseball, basketball, canoe/kayak, equestrian, golf, lacrosse-box, lacrosse-field, rowing, rugby, sailing, soccer, softball, swimming, synchronized swimming, towed water sports, triathlon, volleyball-beach, volleyball-indoor and wrestling.
- * Athletes with disabilities will compete in athletics-Special Olympics, canoe/kayak-para, equestrian-para, swimming-para and swimming-Special Olympics events.
- * More than 350,000 participants and volunteers have taken part in BC Summer and Winter Games over the past 40 years.

Good morning James and Kelly;

I know you are both super busy, but could one of you review this draft quote for Minister Beare (3rd Party release) and let me know if it meets the Minister's approval? Creative BC needs the quote approved today, as the NR is scheduled to go out on Monday Morning (July 30). Thanks very much for your help.

Subject: Draft Minister's quote for approval please (third party release)

Good morning James and Kelly;

Carolyn Jack has asked me to send you this draft quote for Minister Beare for a news release that will be issued by Creative BC and Canadian Media Producer's Association on July 30. The quote has been reviewed and approved by our program folks, Karen Lamare and Asha Bhat.

Creative BC would greatly appreciate receiving an approved Minister's quote later today, or by noon tomorrow (July 27), if at all possible.

Here is the draft quote:

"This program demonstrates the truly innovative and entrepreneurial spirit of our domestic production sector. Designed to maximize the impact of the Province's new tax credit for domestic screenwriters, this program will significantly increase the pool of skilled writers in British Columbia, and strengthen our local film industry as whole," said Lisa Beare, Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture. "I look forward to seeing how these industry supports generate more original BC content in the years ahead."

It is also embedded in the draft NR above, so you can see it in context. Thanks very much for your help!

Hello gang.

Sorry about the fast turnaround on this one...

Just came in yesterday and they're wanting it back asap pls.

QUOTE:

"Destination BC's Co-Op Marketing Partnerships Program provides incredible opportunities for the tourism industry to pool their resources and creativity," said Minister Lisa Beare, "Tourism is an important, sustainable industry that provides jobs for more than 130,000 British Columbians. Whether creating new content or forming new collaborations, I look forward to watching partners in this co-op program grow their marketing impact in the year ahead and grow more good jobs for British Columbians." Hi Carolyn,

Please find attached the Co-Op Marketing funding announcement with a draft quote from the Minister requiring approval. Feel free to edit as you see fit. We'd like to send this out as soon as possible so as tight of a turnaround as you can manage would be much appreciated!

Lisa Beare, Minister of Tourism, Arts, and Culture

"Tourism is a valuable and sustainable industry that provides over 133,100 jobs to British Columbians contributing to $174 billion in overall revenue for the province. Through the work of the Co-Op Marketing Partnerships Program, businesses, opportunities and experiences are strengthened for both the future of the tourism industry and British Columbians."

Quote in 3rd party release. Pls approve at soonest opportunity.

SUGGESTED QUOTE - MINISTER LISA BEARE

"This prestigious ranking once again highlights the unique appeal of the Vancouver Convention Centre on the world stage," said Lisa Beare, Minister of Tourism, Arts and Culture. "The highly competitive meetings and conventions industry is an important part of B.C.'s visitor economy. I'm proud of the team at the Vancouver Convention Centre, Tourism Vancouver and the hospitality community for this outstanding achievement, and their ongoing effort to make B.C. a better place for people to live, work and visit."

[OPPORTUNITY FOR QUOTE]

Hi Carolyn,

Vancouver was recently ranked as one of North America's top meetings destinations, including number one in Canada and second in North America, among the influential Watkins Research Group survey.

As the regional leader in this area, the Vancouver Convention Centre is working with Tourism Vancouver to share the industry news as soon as possible. Please see the draft media release attached for reference.

Opportunity for comment: The draft media release also provides an opportunity for our Ministry to include a quote from Minister Beare. Please let us know if you think we should include a comment, and we can work on some messaging.

Thank you,
