Hi Ramesh,

I've attached some instructions that will help to prepare the calendar once it is shared with you.

Here is how someone can share their calendar:

Right click on the calendar>Share>Email Calendar

<image003.png>Then select 'Specify Dates' under Date Range and enter the dates you wish to send (in this case, November 1-30), then hit OK.

<image004.png>

Once you have the calendar, follow the instructions I've attached to prepare it in PDF format. I would suggest filtering out the MLA stuff using the colour coding instructions first.

Let me know if you need any additional help.

Thanks.

Hi PSK,

Below is an invite for you and a guest.

From staff:

- BC Athletics has nearly 16,000 participants, of which 51 percent are female.
- BC Athletics receives close to $300k annually from the Province of BC through transfers provided by viaSport.
- Currently, the Ministry does not have any direct working relationship with BC Athletics (or with any Provincial Sport Organization.)
- There are approximately 70 funded Provincial and Multi-Sport Organizations so attending every Annual Awards Banquet would take up quite a bit of time.
- However, Athletics is the 12th largest sport in terms of participation (although participation rates have been declining slightly over the past five years) so provincial attendance to the event is recommended.

Would you like to go? You currently have nothing booked for Saturday Feb 2.

Hi Gang, s.13 Van Sun and they said the op-ed was a bit too short their template has been updated to include words 575-630.

I have updated the op-ed attached with additions highlighted for your review and approval.

I think we can get the new year's resolution theme still this week, but if they can't run this week, we will need to shift the theme, so I will ask them to rush this week if at all possible.

Thanks
