Hi Koraleen,

Our schedule changed late yesterday and our start time next Thursday has been pushed. Are we able to push the Minister's visit to 1pm? If she arrives at 11am as scheduled, she would be able to do the walk through of our sets, but wouldn't be able to see any shooting happening, and our cast would be in Hair/Make-up , getting ready.

Let me know what works best for you.

Thanks,
C

Maria,

Thank you for your help organizing the meeting this morning. Ms. Stephens would like to connect with the chair of the RBCM board, Susan Knott, to further discuss opportunities. Ms. Stephens identified May 1st as a date that works for her and I have now confirmed with Susan Knott that this date works on her end as well. Is it easiest if I send Ms. Knott's details to you to arrange a specific time on May 1st? If not, just let me know what works for Ms. Stephens and I can arrange with Ms. Knott. Ms. Knott is located in Vancouver and could meet via phone or in person.

I also promised a few reference links for Ms. Stephens. Can you please forward?

Dear Minister Beare,

I am writing to ask to meet with you early in the New Year to share perspectives and ideas about arts and culture in BC, with a specific focus on community-engaged art for social change (ASC).

I am a senior artist (choreographer/producer/educator) based in Vancouver and have been deeply involved in policy at national and international levels for many years. I currently lead a $3million study on ASC in Canada and am teaching a new graduate program at SFU where I also direct our International Centre of Art for Social Change (www.icasc.ca). If you have the time and interest to review a short document about our sector, it can be seen at <https://www.icasc.ca/post/state-art-report-art-social-change-asc-canada>.

I look forward to sharing information with you about specific, community-engaged – and remarkable – work in the arts that is happening in communities across BC and to learn about your perspectives vis-a-vis our sector.

With best wishes,
