Good Morning Daniela:

I would be most appreciative if you could please forward the attached letter from my constituent Bonnie Gratz, Artistic Director, New Vintage Theatre, co-signed by a number of other artistic groups to Minister Beare. I would like to strongly support their request for a meeting with the Minister in the hope to find some support which will help keep these so important artistic groups stay in business. I know that your Minister is aware of the value artistic groups bring to our enjoyment of life and this is never so important as now during a pandemic when so many people are beginning to feel the negative aspects of social distancing and the lack of feeling a sense of belonging. Theatre, dance, and song can make such a positive affect to one's healthy state of mind. Thank you for your attention to this matter and I would be pleased to speak with the Minister or be copied in her response to Ms. Gratz.
Thank you.

Hi Claire & Daniela,

I've forwarded Alan's invite to PJH's team. The date range Alan gave was July 16th – 19th, or July 23rd – 26th.

They will also invite the local MLAs as well as Minister Chow and Minister Beare.

The guests will be given masks with the society's logo to wear. The event will be outside, with 20 people max in Fan Tan Alley/Pandora St at one time. They could also stagger the event so that each Minister could tour at different times throughout the same day and give remarks.

I'll let you know what PO is planning as soon as I hear back.

Hi Claire,

Just talked to Stephanie,

Yes, we are on track to open the Victoria Chinatown Pop-up exhibit by July 20th. In fact, the signage will be installed on July 14th and the AV equipment installed either on the afternoon of the 14th or the 15th. The exhibit should be up and running by the afternoon of July 15th. We can open this at the Premier's convenience if it is his intention to join us.

Hi Daniela/Carla,

I hope this email finds you well in these continued challenging times!

I wanted to reach out as we look forward to our 2021 HSBC Canada Sevens tournament. We were obviously quite lucky to hold our event in 2020, and it was great to have Minister Beare engaged with us again!

As with most sports, the planning for the 2020-21 Sevens World Series is facing uncertainty and we may see changes/reductions to tournaments depending on the state of the world moving forward. If the Series is reduced, we are working with World Rugby to try and ensure that Vancouver would still be selected as a stop on the Series, assuming it is safe to do so. The Government of BC has obviously been very supportive of sport, both professionally with the NHL hub city proposal and on the amateur side with the COVID insurance coverage.s.13 due to our Women's event being cancelled this year, we have been able to push forward our TEP support into 2021 and have no issues for this tournament.

As an aside,

Thanks so much for any guidance you can provide, and sorry if you're not the best contacts here. I hope you and your families are remaining healthy and safe!

Best,
Jamie.

Dear Claire,

At the express wish of the Gitxan community and given COVID, this is not a public event. We will have many technical staff on site wearing full PPW pandemic gear, Gitxan community members, Indigenous advisers and staff, riggers, facilities people and conservators. We are limited to 50. Monday 8 AM-9AM is the only time riggers are available this summer. There are no protocol or formal events associated. No ministers have been invited. Hope this helps, Jack

Importance: High

Hi Brian,

FYI. As you know back in mid-March 2020, we had to cancel the Gitxsan pole installation due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The installation has now been rescheduled for Monday, July 27, 2020 – and the pole raising will begin at 9 am.

The crane operator and contractors will be onsite at 8am to set up and complete safety meeting.

We are limiting people working in close proximity to each other on the install. Everyone that cannot social distance will be wearing eye protection, mask and gloves. If consultation is needed with others we will be spacing 6ft apart.

ICAR has been involved in this (and will be attending on Monday, July 27) and Lou-ann Neel has also reached out to the Gitxsan community. It is expected that there may be one (or two) Gitxsan members that live in Victoria coming to sing a song – but other than that, there will be no other formal ceremony taking place for this installation.

Joanne Orr will be attending the pole raising on behalf of Executive. Our Communications department is also aware that this pole raising is taking place on Monday, July 27.

Thanks.

Pam

Phase three presents new opportunities for tourism in the Kootenays

By Michelle Mungall and Katrine Conroy

The COVID-19 pandemic has been an extraordinarily difficult time for the tourism industry around the world, including the many people in the Kootenays whose livelihoods rely heavily on visitors to our region. The challenges of travel restrictions and closed international borders have hit businesses and communities hard. Kootenay tourism operators, business owners, and workers in the sector have been making extraordinary efforts to find ways to weather the storm.

Our provincial government has been working hard to support the tourism sector through these tough times. Tourism is vital to our area, and we're determined to do what we can to help the sector get through this summer and ensure that we're set up to make a strong recovery.

Since the COVID-19 state of emergency was announced in BC, government has taken measures to support the tourism sector and related small businesses. This has included providing an extra $10 million to BC Community Destination Marketing Organizations to help them retain staff and continue supporting local businesses. We provided $600,000 and secured $1 million in federal funds for the BC Tourism Resiliency Network, which has helped over 1000 tourism businesses access COVID-19 supports. We've supported campaigns by Destination BC to promote domestic tourism, and we've extended other supports to small businesses such as cutting property tax bills for business, deferring payment of other taxes including PST, and allowing restaurants to purchase alcohol at wholesale prices. Lisa Beare, B.C.'s Minister of Tourism, Arts, and Culture, has been working closely with leaders in the tourism sector, and seeking input from the sector on how BC's economic recovery plan can support the industry. We will continue to look at new ways to keep bridging the gap for the sector until the day when international travel can safely begin again.

We know that challenges and frustrations will continue for many until the pandemic allows us all to return to something more like normal. As we face these challenges, it's important to remember that B.C.'s successful management of the pandemic, and the sacrifices that so many people have made is what has allowed us to open the province for domestic travel earlier than other jurisdictions. As difficult as it can be, we need to double down on the collective hard work we've all put in to flattening the curve, so that we can continue to move safely along a path to re-opening and recovery.

With B.C. in phase 3 of our COVID-19 recovery plan this summer, we are welcoming those visiting us from other provinces, particularly visitors from Alberta, while understanding that everyone in BC—residents and visitors alike—is expected to follow the Provincial Health Officer’s guidance. This is also a great time to explore close to home, and take time to visit the places in your own region that you’ve wanted to see, but maybe never found the time to before. Wherever you are exploring this summer, practice good travel manners—researching your destination before you go, following COVID rules of hand-washing, physical distancing, and staying home if you’re sick—and encourage others to do the same.

Tourism is an important part of a sustainable economic future for our region, and our government will continue to be there to support it as we move through the months to come.

As Dr. Henry says, this is the summer of “fewer faces and bigger spaces”—and what better big spaces could there be than the mountains, lakes, and trails of the Kootenays?

Hey Ange,

I asked Marina to loop you in on an announcement related to sport happening on Tuesday.

We'll have a small group of baseball (boys) and softball (girls) players at the ledge. It's a small event to showcase COVID-safe sport and briefly announce new supports and we are also planning for a quick photo. Marina is checking whether the event can happen at 12:45 on Tuesday (meaning MLAs would likely miss part or all of the caucus meeting). We should know this very soon.

Hi Daniela –

I wanted to touch base with an update on things at Golden Ears this morning. Day use passes for the boat launch were most popular this morning, but many passes for the South Beach parking lot still remain for folks not using a boat trailer. The focus is very much on compliance. Where possible staff are assisting people to obtain a pass if they arrive without one.

On a normal day when things get very busy, the gates get closed and cars line up outside the gates. Now with the day use system in place, people without passes might be turned away as there will no capacity for them to park in the lot – which is no different than previously. The difference is that we are able to educate visitors on how they can get a pass for the next day and better plan their next trip. Ultimately this will lead to less car congestion in the local neighbourhood as people will learn that the way to get in is with a pass.

I will provide another update later in the day.

Thank you,
Kelly

Request

Just wanted to follow up on the below announcement regarding funding/supports to combat racism on the Lower Mainland.

In particular, I'm hoping you can provide some more details about the funding for the Richmond Multicultural Services Society. To confirm, is each organization receiving $105,000, or is that total shared between the selected organizations (in which case, how much did Richmond Multicultural Services Society receive)?

Has RMSS received this funding before, or is this the first time?

How long was the procurement process/when did that begin? Are there specific programs that RMSS and the other organizations will need to provide with the funding, or is that up to the organizations?
