Hi Paul:

Minister Kang's office has just officially requested that I connect with you to ask if you could book a brief teleconference or video chat with CCCAC members tomorrow morning (Friday) from 9:40-10am so that Ministers Chow and Kang can share news about today's Economic Recovery Plan.

I believe they've checked with Minister Chow's office directly and are advised this time would work for him.

Could you please let me know if you have time to do this today?

Thank you very much!

Hi Alison

I can certainly do this. Do you have any sense from Minister Kang's office whether she would prefer video chat (in which case, we would set up on Zoom) or is teleconference sufficient (in which case Skype or MS Teams)?

Could you let me know what you're planning to do for the MAC call? In the meantime, I'll give CCCAC members a heads up so they can block their calendars.

Thanks

Hi Paul:

Minister Kang's office has just officially requested that I connect with you to ask if you could book a brief teleconference or video chat with CCCAC members tomorrow morning (Friday) from 9:40-10am so that Ministers Chow and Kang can share news about today's Economic Recovery Plan.

<https://news.gov.bc.ca/releases/2020PREM0052-001780>

I believe they've checked with Minister Chow's office directly and are advised this time would work for him.

Could you please let me know if you have time to do this today?

Thank you very much!

Alison

Hi Scott,

Nanaimo radio reached out and asked us about the spoke Liminal Spaces Consulting. Please see our suggested response from the ministry below for your approval.

Thanks
Carla

Deadline Friday, September 18, 2020 4:00 PM

Request

Hi there,

I am interesting in Limo Space consulting receiving a multiculturalism grant.

Can you please confirm:

1. What is the grant $ for?
2. Is the ministry expecting anything from them as a result?
3. What is the deadline for them to complete this work?

Recommendation

Send the following from the ministry:

Please note: The funding provided Liminal Spaces Consulting was not a multiculturalism grant. Liminal Spaces Consulting received a $7,500 contract to be a community spoke in Nanaimo under the Resilience BC anti-racism network program.

2. Is the ministry expecting anything from them as a result?

- The Resilience BC Anti-Racism Network is a "hub and spoke" model for anti-racism network. This model has a centralized "hub" that provides oversight; the "spokes" are community-based branches that help see through service delivery.
- The Resilience BC hub will:
  - Connect communities
  - Increase capacity to share information and resources

- Coordinate training and anti-racism initiatives
- The spokes will:
  - Represent communities and work with local members
  - Identify local priorities and move projects forward
- This network of supports and resources will allow us to be proactive, bold and well-coordinated across the province to address racism and hate together.
- This network will also better connect communities and build their capacity to share information and resources, coordinate training.
- For more information visit about Resilience BC program's goals and responsibilities visit: <https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/governments/multiculturalism-anti-racism/anti-racism/resiliencebc/14637-50670>

3. What is the deadline for them to complete this work?

The current contracts under the Resilience BC go until July 31, 2021.

Morning,

Attached is a Minister's message we are hoping to share with DBC and the RDMO's largely based on the Fact Sheet approved yesterday. DBC has received numerous stakeholder inquiries about the support, so ideally if we can send it to them this afternoon.

DBC has also requested Minister participate in next Thursday's call to speak about the recovery package, can we book that in for her at 10:30?

Many thanks
