Hi Eric,

I've also attached the other two documents so you have them in one place, plus there were a couple updates in the Indicative Design note so please use this one. Thanks.

I have asked Nick and Claire to try to get this to you today so that you can fine tune tomorrow. I will be in the air between 12 and 6 pm today so it will be coming to you directly from Nick and I will not have reviewed. Happy to make myself available tomorrow though if you have any questions.
