Good morning,

The licensee holds Special Authorization only. This vehicle can operate as a special authorization if a bench is removed. Must seat 12 persons or less (includes the driver). There are licensees who toggle between a GA and SA. This is not the case in this instance.

We will contact the licensee.

Thank you.

I requested from the pt board whether this license was a hybrid or special authorization.

I was told this was a special authorization.

If this is true, I believe that this license is operating this vehicle illegally.

From my understanding a 14 passenger vehicle cannot be on a special authorization license unless it is a hybrid of sa & ga.

Thanks
