Re: Unlicensed Commercial Passenger Vehicle

It has come to the attention of the Passenger Transportation Branch that the following vehicle(s) registered to you may be operating as a commercial passenger vehicle without a Passenger Transportation Licence:

2015 Mercedes Vehicle Registration s.22

Use of this vehicle as a taxi, rideshare or other commercial passenger vehicle is contrary to the Passenger Transportation Act, Section 23 (1), which reads in part as follows:

“A person must not operate a motor vehicle as a type of commercial passenger vehicle unless (a) a valid licence, issued in respect of the motor vehicle, authorizes the licensee to operate the motor vehicle as that type of commercial passenger vehicle.”

Under Section 57(3) of the Passenger Transportation Act, a person who contravenes Section 57 (2) (a) is liable on conviction, to a penalty of not less than $1,000 and not more than $5,000. Further, each day's continued violation, refusal or neglect is considered a new and distinct offence and is subject to an additional penalty. A Victim Surcharge Levy of 15% will be added to all penalties.

You are advised to cease and desist immediately from providing or advertising any service which requires approval pursuant to the Passenger Transportation Act until you have received the required authority.
