Re: Living Allowance

Your appointment as Deputy Minister, Intergovernmental Relations and Public Affairs Bureau, requires you to work the majority of each month in Victoria while your home base is in Vancouver. As a result, I am offering you a monthly living allowance of $1,000 to offset the cost of maintaining a residence in Victoria instead of reimbursing you for accommodation expenses and living expenses on an ongoing basis. The allowance will be added to your paycheque and is a taxable benefit. Transportation and miscellaneous expenses will continue to be paid as usual.

This arrangement may be reviewed at a future date.

Hi Heather. Payroll needs to know whether Athana is going to receive the DM car allowance (which is $267.69 bi-weekly) or if she is going to lease a vehicle.

Will you please confirm this for us. (If you prefer me to contact Athana directly, please let me know.)

Thanks!
Melanie

Dear Athana:

This letter will confirm that an Order has been prepared for signature by the Lieutenant Governor in Council appointing you Deputy Minister, Intergovernmental Relations, Office of the Premier effective April 13, 2004.

Your salary on appointment will be $150,000 per annum, which is at the Deputy Minister 3 level, plus up to 10% annual re-earnable bonus. The terms and conditions of employment for Deputy Ministers are those established for Category A Order in Council appointments as set out in the attached extract from Policy Directive 4.5, Terms and Conditions for Excluded Employees. This document is being updated to reflect recent administrative changes as a result of collective bargaining changes.

Also attached is an overview of Deputy Minister Compensation and Benefits that highlights certain benefits, some of which are unique to Deputy Ministers and not available to other public servants, such as vacation, car allowance and severance provisions for "without cause" termination consistent with Public Sector Employers' Council legislation. Yearly performance reviews and evaluations are performed which are based on delivery of Service Plans and specific corporate goals and bonus goals as agreed to by you and the Deputy Minister to the Premier. If your appointment as Deputy Minister, Intergovernmental Relations, Office of the Premier is rescinded, and you are offered a position providing equivalent compensation that you decline, you will not be entitled to severance. The Employment Termination Standards, which are also attached, are applicable to your severance arrangement.

As a Deputy Minister Order in Council appointee you have the option of opting out of the BC Government Pension Plan. You are automatically enrolled unless you complete the attached Waiver of Pension Coverage form within 30 days of the date of this letter.

I wish to highlight two conditions of your appointment as Deputy Minister.

Firstly, as a public service employee you must conduct yourself in a manner that maintains and enhances the public's trust and confidence in the public service. Please familiarize yourself with the attached Standards of Conduct for Public Service Employees. Should you have any questions on this policy, you should contact the Deputy Minister, BC Leadership Centre, to answer any questions or concerns you may have.

Secondly, is the Post-Employment Restrictions that you will be required to follow if you leave the public service. These are attached for your reference. Please ensure that you read and understand these terms.

Once you have signed the letter below indicating your acceptance of the terms, please return the original letter to my office. I look forward to working with you.

Yours truly,

Ken Dobell
Deputy Minister to the Premier and Cabinet Secretary
